business yesterday. He says that the snowfall in that section has not attained the depth that is evident in this part of the county. There has been a good deal of moisture, however, and it is welcome to the farmers in general.

Home From Visit

Mrs. Schiffer, wife of E. E. Schiffer of the O. W. clerical department, has returned from a visit of two weeks with friends in Heppner, and during her absence Mr. Schiffer made a short run over to Walla Walla to see old friends and look after some business affairs. They are both at home again.

Claude Wright Is Home

Claude Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wright of Fruitdale, is home from the service with an honorable discharge. He was one of the nine high school young men who enlisted in the aviation truck driver service last March and was away just about one week short of a year. While in Denver he met Paul Beck, another La Grande young man who has been with an aviation squadron in France and who also has his final discharge and is due to arrive home in a few days.

Escaped From Asylum

Dan Clifford, the insane man who was found by the local police early yesterday morning, had recently escaped from the Eastern Oregon hospital at Pendleton, it was learned last night. He was taken to Pendleton this morning by an attendant from that institution who came after him last night.

Was a Wet Moon

The precipitation, mostly snow which came over this part of the country yesterday was the heaviest fall of moisture in an equal length of time for the month just passed. All who base their weather calculations on the moon can now prove that the last moon was a wet one. A new moon showed up last night and this one will be just what it may happen to be.

Buys Twenty-Acre Farm

W. H. Duckett has become the purchaser of Engineer Frank Holm's 20-acre apple orchard north of the river opposite the county poor farm. A similar tract adjoining the recent purchase was secured by Mr. Duckett from Julius Roesch last fall. On the latter tract he is remodeling and adding to the residence building, to which he will remove his family in the spring.

Will Become Auto Salesman

Jay Choate recently disposed of his merchandising business in Sumnerville and since that time has been trying the experiment of loafing. After about twenty years of straight attention to business the present job is a hard one. Mr. Choate put in one week in Portland and that relieved him some and he is now trying to worry along until the weather improves when he expects to go on the road as an auto salesman.

Local Soldier Returning

A telegram received last evening by Mrs. B. W. Carr conveyed the welcome tidings that her son, Capt. A. G. Mayger, who has been serving with the United States forces in France, had just reached Baltimore, on his return from overseas. Captain Mayger states that he is well and happy to be "back in God's country again." He has gone to Camp Lee, Va., to await demobilization. Captain Mayger was decorated for gallantry while in France.

Pay Fines to City

The city collected fines totaling $150 Friday, the various contributors being as follows: Earl Wilson for having liquor in his possession, was fined $50. Joseph Boddies, for dealing in liquor, paid $30 and for being drunk was assessed another $25. James Power, who was arrested on a charge of being drunk several days ago, was fined $10. V. Anderson paid $25 as the result of a dispute with an acquaintance a few days ago. Judge Sakis is beginning to hit the offenders a little harder. Cases of this nature have been coming in to the frequency of late.

G. F. Short and W. G. Returning. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Short left Denver last evening for Salt Lake where they will visit a few days before returning to La Grande, which will be some time this week. Mr. Short has been in St. Louis on business and Mrs. Short has been visiting relatives in Denver.

High School Girls Play Wallowa

The girls' basketball aggregation of the La Grande High School went to Wallowa last night, in charge of Miss Riddle, to engage in a contest with the girls' team of the Wallowa High School.

INDIAN WANTS DIVORCE

The attempt of Mrs. Joseph Statler an Indian woman, to secure a divorce from her rookish mate in Circuit Judge Bell's court at Dallas this week was frustrated when District Attorney E. K. Plascok introduced a letter alleged to have been written by the woman to a white man in Saigon. She alleged in her complaint that her husband was cruel and addicted to drink. The court refused to grant a decree.

A CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank each and every one of our many friends who assisted in any way during the sickness, death and burial of our beloved relative, Agnes Carter Daron.

To one and all, for kindness you have shown, Oh, friends and neighbors—best that earth has known—A card of thanks seems feeble to convey the gratitude that fills our hearts today.

Some People Lose Money

By concealing it about their person; by stowing it away in mugs, jars and jafs; by sewing it up in skirts and ties; by tucking it away under couches and carpets, in cupboards and bureau drawers. These are some of the ways by which people lose their money, and sometimes their lives. Every person who is desirous of laying aside something for a "Rainy Day" should open an account with our bank.
