LOCAL Y. M. C. A. ON CAMPAIGN

WORKERS SCOURING CITY FOR CONTRIBUTIONS.

Good Sized Sum Is Needed to Meet
Current Expense Budget of Local Institution.

The local Y. M. C. A. has its committees out this week calling on the business men and citizens of La Grande for the community's share of the support of the local association. The association is not designed to be self-supporting from the payments for privileges. To operate the association on this basis would require membership and dormitory rates which would make the privileges prohibitive to the very class of boys and young men who need them most. So it has always been the policy of the association to make an annual canvass among public spirited citizens for a proportionate amount of the required budget. This is a civic-patriotic enterprise and everybody should give something and thus share in the splendid dividends which the association pays annually in improved manhood and trained boyhood. No subscription is too small to be acceptable. Do something, but make that something as generous as possible.

What the Y. M. C. A. Is.

It is a high-class, far-sighted investment in the greatest undeveloped resource of a city—its young men. It is a wise and economical investment of young men themselves in the work of their own development. It is an attractive and workable combination of the club, athletics, education, religion and organization, the most effective agencies known in mutual work with men. It invests money, it gets manhood. It invests sympathy; it gets friendship. It invests small sacrifices; it gets abundant dividends. Its investments are human; its dividends are divine. When the solicitor calls on you be ready to do your just share in the maintenance of La Grande Y. M. C. A. The association has arranged to serve the returning soldiers and sailors for one year after their return without expense to them. Each returning warrior will be given a free membership for one year, and in many ways the association plans to help in the great task of reconstruction. Its chief concern now is to help the soldier back into his normal life with as little friction as possible and to care for the growing boys of the community. Every boy who comes to maturity has cost the state—that is, you and me—$1000. Some boys go wrong. When a boy goes wrong we not only lose our thousand dollars, but we have to spend another thousand to protect ourselves against him. The Y. M. C. A. is an organization of manly men whose object is to keep our boys morally, mentally and physically right. You can help with your subscription to the maintenance budget.

CHANGE BEARD FOR BUTTON

CHICAGO, Ill., March 5.—Chicago Bolsheviks have abandoned the bristling black beard, the red flag, the red tie and other conspicuous marks of their particular breed and are today using gun-shoe tactics—avoiding the public soap box and wearing, instead of the red flag, a red button on the under side of their gulars.

Acting Superintendent Phillip Barry, of the Department of Justice, revealed all this recently and at the same time declared that the flamboyant article was a thing of the past.

This secrecy, however, has by no means thrown ascreen around their activities, according to Barry, who says the local authorities are in closer touch with Bolshevik than ever.

DOROTHY PHILLIPS ENACTS ROLE FROM EXPERIENCE

She's a little girl whose weight, artistically, is measured in sparkling ounces of irony. That is the impression of girlish youthfulness until you look her into the eyes.

Then from the dark grey eyes you would discern shining forth comprehensive outlook of the mother-heart, a smile as wholesome as friendship, a sympathy as soothing as a lullaby played upon muted violins.

This is the picture admirers of Dorothy Phillips bear with thee in their mind's eye. This is the conception that the extraordinary art of the star has made to vary so that instead of the grey eyes of understanding, on occasion one sees the sparkling orbs of the schoolgirl, the flashing lines of the worldly-wise woman or the gleamingly inviting heart-signals of the ingenue.

But perhaps among the millions of Dorothy Phillips' devoted few know that the cinema player is the mother of a four-year-old girl and one of the most domestic of wives. It is from her own experience, therefore, that Miss Phillips' enactment of the role of Nanette in "The Heart of Humanity" her newest picture and her greatest, is drawn. In "The Heart of Humanity," which Allen Holubar has produced as a multiple-reel document of humanity based on heart incident in the great overseas conflict.

As Nanette, Miss Phillips is the mother-heart emblematic. Too, she is the inspirational force, the representation of the woman spirit of the world that has won the war for civilization and has saved thousands on thousands of lives that for lack of the succor of the Red Cross, might have passed away on the battlefield. "The Heart of Humanity" will be shown at the Arcade Theatre on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

La Grande theatre goers are indeed fortunate in being able to see this wonderful production at this early date, even before Portland and Seattle, and if it proves as popular here as it has in the eastern cities the Arcade will not be
