Social and Personal

Mrs. J. C. Norderer of this city is a visitor in Portland this week. She is stopping at the Hotel Portland.

H. C. Rees took a trip to Baker today, to look after business in the auto truck line there for a day or two.

Vernon M. Shuback, traveling representative of the Universal photographs, is in La Grande today and is registered at the Foley.

The L. D. S. choir rehearsal for this evening has been postponed, according to information given out today by J. H. Trayner.

Mrs. Dudley Peel, of Joseph, came in on No. 17 this morning to meet Dr. Ruckman and family, who are visiting here from Seattle.

The Red Cross unit of the Catholic ladies will meet with Mrs. A. Newlin, 1408 Fourth street, tomorrow (Wednesday) afternoon at the usual hour.

Geo. Hanson, Union's enthusiastic stock show booster, and former Charter No. 3655.

W. H. Van Leaven, who for seven years was with the Russell Meat company in La Grande, was a visitor here today, coming in from Peasleton on No. 6. He is leaving again tonight for Seattle, where he expects to locate.

Thos. Brazier is a visitor in town from Union today. Mr. Brazier is a well known, old-time farmer of the Union neighborhood, who is beyond the days when he has to work for a living.

H. C. Cotner left this morning on a trip to Salt Lake City, and then to Los Angeles and other southern points, where he expects to enjoy himself resurrecting old memories among friends of the pioneer days. He will likely be away for several months.

E. M. Murphy of Miles City, Mont., arrived in La Grande this morning and will visit for a time at the home of Cato Johns. Mr. Murphy and Cato Johns, Jr., were comrades in Uncle Sam's service for some time, and received their discharges together a short time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Reynolds and daughter Dorothy returned this morning from Portland and Corvallis, where they have been visiting for the past week. While in Corvallis Mr. Reynolds was initiated into the Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

Dr. R. J. Ruckman, accompanied

YOUNG COUPLE WED.
Miss Irene Castle, a popular member of the staff of the Home Independent Telephone exchange, was united in marriage last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist church to Howard England, a well-known young man of this city. Rev. N. S. Hawk officiated. The ceremony was performed at 6 o'clock, the bride being attended by Miss R. N. Swan and Miss Pearl Williams and the groom by Irvin Wilkins.

PLANNING BIG AFFAIR
A mask ball, to take place May 1st, is an important event which will be held by the local Eagles lodge. The social life of this order has been somewhat quiet of late, due to flu and the reaction against gaiety caused by the war, but they are planning to formally let joy break loose upon this occasion. Fuller particulars of this event will be made public as the time for it draws near.

Drama of Optimism Is Mary Pickford's Photoplay of Slums
Mary Pickford adds another striking characterization to her notable repertoire of screen successes in the Paramount adaptation of Frances Hodgson Burnett's great drama of optimism, "The Dawn of a Tomorrow," the world-famous story of a young girl's unflinching faith and triumphant ultimate reward which will be displayed at the Arcade tomorrow and Thursday.

In this celebrated play that gladdened the hearts of so many when presented on the stage with Eleanor Robson in the stellar role and the screen version of which will cheer as many thousands more, Mary Pickford portrays the weird character of Glad, a beautiful and ragged girl of the London slums whose underlying optimism and heroic courage, even starvation and deadly peril, are unable to quench. The delicacy of Miss Pickford's portrayal and the treads of forceful symbolism woven about the drama are unforgettable.

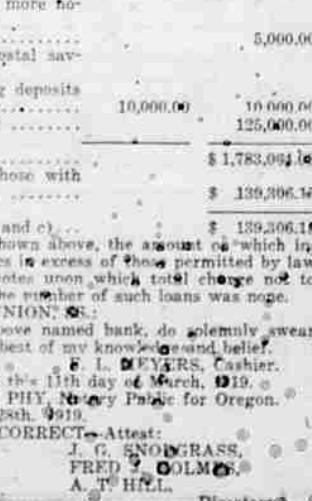

How the innocent little slum-girl, by her beautiful faith in the mysterious Power she but vaguely comprehends is enabled to save her sweet heart from the gallows, bringing him a new hope and meaning of life and awakens his reprobate nephew to a better manhood, are vividly related in this sublime drama of human suffering and sacrifice.

SEATTLE PREACHER WILL OPEN LAYMEN'S CONVENTION
Dr. Kirtley of Seattle will open the Baptist Laymen's convention in La Grande tomorrow evening. The meeting will commence at 7:30 o'clock. Dr. O. C. Wright of Portland will be a prominent speaker at the meetings on Thursday, on which day a number of addresses from prominent laymen will also be heard. Meetings on Thursday will be held at 10:30 a. m., at 2:30 and at 7:30 p. m. A banquet will be held in the church Thursday evening at 6 o'clock.

The men of the community are particularly invited to attend these meetings. The addresses delivered will be particularly for men, and it is felt that if a good attendance can be secured much good will result.

Musterole
Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard. It does all the work of the old-fashioned mustard plaster—does it better and does not blister. You do not have to bother with a cloth. You simply rub it on—and usually the pain is gone!

Many doctors and nurses use Musterole and recommend it to their patients. They will gladly tell you what relief it gives from sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).
30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.
