Renewed Interest in Dairying.

Preliminary announcements have been received of a meeting to be held in Portland at an early date for a dairymen's conference. This is a good move; dairying is one industry that is excelling from beginning to end, but only lightly practiced.

usually so ill informed, as school matters. Associations of parents and teachers and frequent opening of the schools to the inspection of the public are needed everywhere.

Is a Good Roads Advocate.

W. J. Henry, who has resumed his former place as the editorial manager of the Elgin Recorder, is an advocate of good roads. Mr. Henry has just returned from service in France and is, therefore, acquainted with the condition of the highways over the seas.

Had Right Idea, Anyway.
My youngest daughter is quite a peachy little person and it is quite amusing at times to hear her give her views. The day after Christmas several children from the neighborhood came in to see her gifts and to play with her.

ST. PATRICK WILL BE SEEN
If you want a good time tonight, say the ladies of the First Methodist Foreign Missionary society, "come to the St. Patrick's social that will be held in the basement of the church at 8 o'clock." It is given on good authority that St. Patrick will be there himself, there will be the Barney stave for visitors to kiss, and a great snake drive will provide entertainment for all.

Advice From a Great Man.
Phillips Brooks once said that it is just as presumptuous to think that you can do nothing as it is to think that you can do everything. Try to "steer a middle course" between the two.

The Golden Rule Co. will maintain an office at the same place as before closing their store until about the 15th of March. All accounts are due now and must be settled.—adv. 2-26-41

Forgot What He Needed.
From the Republican, Mt. Gillad, O.: The editor had an interesting experience some time ago, when a young gentleman came to this office and asked for a copy of the Morrow County Republican. He scrutinized it carefully when a copy was handed him, and then said: "Now I know!" "What is it you are looking for?" we inquired. "My wife sent me after a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I forgot the name. I went to several stores and the clerk named over everything in the lot on the shelf except Chamberlain's. I'll try again, and I'll never go home without Chamberlain's Remedy. The Republican would suggest to proprietors of stores, that they their clerks, and never let them attend. Customers lose faith! stores where substitutes is permitted say nothing of the injustice, makers of good goods, and the disappointment of customers.—Adv.

Her Heavenly Program.
Aunt Cullie was a very religious woman—of the shouting variety. She was telling the children about heaven, and what she expected to do when she got there. "When I get there, I will take a crown what a good getting thing, an' put it on my head. Den I will sit out my life and play some of dem heben tunes on it. Den I will stretch my white wings an' fly fum cherry trees to cherry beam."
