WAR-TIME ROMANCE OF PRINCESS PATRICIA OF CONNAUGHT AND COMMANDER ALEXANDER RAMSAY OF THE BRITISH NAVY

Beyond doubt, no princess is better known in Canada and the United States than Princess Patricia of Connaught (or Princess "Pat") as she is more popularly called, and her romance, culminating Feb. 27 in her marriage to Commander Hon. Alexander Ramsay, D. S. O., brother of the thirteenth Earl of Dalhousie, has attracted wide attention. Cousin of King George, daughter of the Duke of Connaught, and patroness of the famous Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry ("Princess Patricia's") to whom she gave the colors under which the regiment made the supreme sacrifice, her beauty, her gracious character and her cleverness have made her a world-wide celebrity.

The romance began in Canada when Commander Ramsay was an aide to the Duke of Connaught, then governor general. When the great war started, Commander Ramsay promptly returned to active service in the Royal Navy and won the Distinguished Service Order for valorous work at Gallipoli.

The princess is domestic and a very clever needlewoman, making many of her own garments. She is fond of outdoor sports and during her tour of Canada with her father, the governor general, she rode her spirited horse over the mountains at Banff Springs, Alberta, bent her father at golf on the local golf links and gave an exhibition of expert swimming in the big swimming pool of the hotel.

The spirit of democracy now so conspicuous in Canada must have been breathed in with the gracious Canadian air by the princess, for she refused to wed at least two kings and chose instead an untitled but heroic member of the king's navy. She has asked for and received the consent of the king for the renunciation of all her titles, princess and royal highness, and she will hereafter be known as Lady Patricia Ramsay.

Forgot What He Needed.
From the Hesperian, Mt. Gilliam, O.: The editor had an interesting experience some time ago, when a young gentleman came to this office and asked for a copy of the Morrow County Republican. He scrutinized it carefully when a copy was handed him, and then said: "Now I know!" "What is it you are looking for?" we inquired. "My wife sent me after a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I forgot the name. I went to several stores and the clerks named over everything to the line on the shelf except 'Chamberlain's.' I'll try again, and I'll never go home without Chamberlain's Remedy." The Republican would suggest to the proprietors of stores that they post their clerks, and never let them substitute. Customers' loss faith in stores where substitutes is permitted to say nothing of the injustice to makers of good goods, and the disappointment of customers.—Adv.

CASE 10-18 TRACTOR

The latest model Case tractor has arrived; the 15-27, a 3-pow machine. You will never know what power in a tractor means until you have seen this Case 15-27 at work. It has the most powerful 4-cylinder vertical motor ever put in a 3-pow tractor. This means less wear and longer life, greater efficiency. Starts and runs on the high tension magnets. No dry cells or batteries to give trouble in cold weather. Let us give you a demonstration. Will be glad to do so at any time.
