UP RIVER LOG DRIVE BEGINS

WARM DAYS BRING SUFFICIENT
RISE IN WATER

Perry School in Receipt of Presentations and Visit From G. A. R.
and W. R. C.

PERRY, March 25.—(Special)—Recent warm days caused the river to rise sufficiently for the company's annual log drive from the camp up toward Starkey and the drive is on. As soon as the logs begin to arrive the mill can run steady for the rest of the season.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ole Matheson early Friday morning a thirteen pound baby girl. Mother and baby are getting along very nicely.

"Al" Reher, who has been connected for the past few years with the G. R. Lumber Company, has accepted a position as log room foreman in the mill at Wallawa and has gone to the latter town to begin his work. His family will follow as soon as a car arrives in which to ship their furniture. Henry Reher has bought most of his brother's stock and will move into the property he is vacating.

Lennie Northcott, and Archie Stevenson are recent purchasers of new Chevrolet touring cars. So many cars have been bought during the past few months that about seventy-five per cent of the families in Perry now own their own cars.

Lawrence Hall and Leighton Shaw were sponsors for a hard times dance last Saturday night that was a decided success. Judging from some of the costumes displayed one would think we were trying to Hooverize on good clothes. Music for the occasion was furnished by Professor Haines' four-piece orchestra.

Born Saturday evening to Mr. and Mrs. Dave Geddes a baby girl.

Archie Kelly who has for the past few years been foreman of the log factory in the local mill has been tendered his resignation and will move to La Grande the first of April where he intends going into the auto repair and vulcanizing business for himself. Mr. Kelly is an experienced mechanic having been in this same business in Union a few years ago. The family will live in South La Grande near Mrs. Kelly's father, Mr. M. McMurray.

Miss Magline La Bean, who has been in the Hot Lake Sanatorium for the past few weeks on account of an operation is rapidly improving and will be strong enough to return home in a few days.

Last Friday afternoon two veterans of the G. A. R. and several members of the W. R. C. came up to visit the Perry school. Our school literary society had prepared the following program which was rendered for the visitors: Vocal solo, America; recitation, "The Gold Star," Karl Geddes; "We Love Our Flag," five primary boys; recitation, "Only a Volunteer," Alfred Matheson; song, "Hurrah for the Flag" by the primary room; recitation, "Break the News to Mother," Chester Thompson; recitation, "Our Flag," Elfred Coalwell; instrumental, "Memories of the War," recitation, "The Flag," Lida Allen; recitation, "A Young Patriot," Frank Salisbury; The American Creed, Corolla Hanson; recitation, "For My Country," Charles Hull; Pantomime, The Star Spangled Banner, by eight girls. The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. McAllister, president of the W. R. C. Short talks were given by the president, Mrs. Jessie Nelson, L. W. Paulk, and T. C. Riddle. Mr. Riddle told of his experience in the battle of Gettysburg. An address of the American flag was presented to the school by the visitors. A number of patrons turned out to welcome the visitors from La Grande. Mrs. McAllister said that similar presentations had been made to six other schools in the county but that Perry's program and reception was the best they had received.

Rev. A. J. Vallery Makes Statement

Says Tanlac Has Overcome
His Troubles and He Feels Like a New Man.

"I feel that it would be helpful to others to tell what Tanlac has done for me," said Rev. A. J. Vallery, living at 824 Chelsea ave., Main place, Tuley.

"About three years ago," he continued, "I had a general breakdown that made me very nervous. I had a sour stomach and would spit up undigested food. The pains in my stomach hurt at times that I thought they would kill me. I also suffered with rheumatic pains in my joints, and my kidneys were in bad shape. My sleep was poor and I felt so tired at the time that I could not do my work."

"Since taking Tanlac I have been relieved of indigestion and those pains are all gone. My kidneys don't trouble me any. I am not nervous like I was and I can sleep fine every night. My strength and energy have been restored and I feel like a new man."

Tanlac is sold in La Grande by Silvertown and Richardson Drug stores; in Union by L. A. Wright; in the North Poudre by L. A. Russell; and in Hines by Scott & Harris and in Tuley by Telecast Grocery Co.—Adv.

NOTORIOUS CASE IS RECALLED

The notorious "Caillaux Case" of France has at last been put on the screen. This sensational international drama of ambition, intrigue, love and war, which for years has filled columns after columns in the public press, will be shown to picture lovers of this city at the Sherry theatre for two days, beginning tomorrow.

Everybody remembers the sensation caused a few years ago, when the beautiful Mme. Henriette Caillaux entered the office of Gaston Calmette, editor of the Paris Picaro, and shot him to death for exposing the political and financial trikes of her husband.

Everybody remembers the scandal of Mme. Caillaux's acquittal of murder, and the violent demonstrations of the Paris populace, because it believed that she had escaped punishment through the political influence of the powerful Minister and the workings of a sinister secret order of which he was the high priest.

Many months were consumed by the Fox forces in collecting historical data for "The Caillaux Case." Richard Stanton, the genius who directed it, insisted throughout that every detail should be accurate, and spared neither trouble nor expense to make it so. The court-room where Mme. Caillaux is tried is an exact replica of the original in Paris, as is also the editorial office, where she kills Calmette. So many commanding characters are involved in the action that it was necessary to give the production an all-star cast.

PAULINE FREDERICK HAS US-
USUAL ROLE IN PHOTOPLAY

Appearing in one of the finest roles of her screen career, Pauline Frederick, the beautiful Paramount star, will be seen in "Bella Donna," a picturization of Robert Hitchcock's great novel, at the Arcade theatre today and tomorrow. The character of Bella Donna, the stately role of the picture, is a remarkable one from the standpoint of art, but Miss Frederick succeeds in vesting it with verisimilitude and convincing sympathy.

Bella Donna, a London adventuress, lures the Hon. Nigel Armine into marrying her despite the damaging gossip of the capital of which she is the central figure. He takes her to Egypt, where she becomes infatuated with a powerful native, Baroud, who persuades her to poison her husband. This she does, but as he becomes gradually weaker from the effects of the drug, Dr. Isaacson arrives and discovers her treachery in time to save the husband's life.

Driven to hate Armine and foiled in her attempt to kill him, Bella

BRET HARTE'S FAMOUS PRAIRIE
ROMANCE IS TOLD ON SCREEN

Bartered by her father for a grub-stake, Sue is the loneliest and most pathetic figure on Bonanza Plains, as the wife of Ira Bearseley, doomed to live and die a drudge, unloved and unloving. Then comes to her just a fleeting glimpse of what love might be, but love is not for Sue, and her romance is carried away on the winds to which she listens all day long, but which never tells her anything.

Sue's pitiful prairie romance is told in "The Dawn of Understanding," the Vitagraph Blue Ribbon feature, which will be seen in the Sherry theatre last showing today, and which will present Berdie Love to her hosts of admirers as a Vitagraph star. The scenario is adapted from the famous short story by Bret Harte, "The Judgment of Bonanza Plains," and nothing is lost of the colorful action which characterizes all of Bret Harte's pen-pictures of the Far West when the West was young.

Also a big two-reel comedy with Lawrence Semon.

Forgot What He Needed.

From the Republican, Mt. Gillard, O.: The editor had an interesting experience some time ago, when a young gentleman came to this office and asked for a copy of the Morrow County Republican. He scrutinized it carefully when a copy was handed him, and then said: "Now I know! What is it you are looking for?" we inquired. "My wife sent me after a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I forgot the name. I went to several stores and the clerks named over everything in the line on the shelf except 'Chamberlain's.' I'll try again, and I'll never go home without Chamberlain's Remedy." The Republican would suggest to the proprietors of stores, that they post their clerks, and never let them substitute. Customers lose faith in stores where substitutes is permitted to say nothing of the injustice to makers of good goods, and the disappointment of customers.—Adv.
