CHINA TASTES WESTERN AMUSEMENTS AND FINDS THEM AGREEABLE

Meet me tonight at the gate to the Great World, is a favorite phrase in Shanghai today. Does it mean a delve into oriental mysticism? No, indeed! Quite the contrary. The Great World is the first American-style amusement park in China and is proving fully as popular as are these recreation resorts in America.
Styles in the Celestial Kingdom are changing. First came the cutting off of queues, then the adoption of western dress. Chinese boys and girls who come here to study in our universities, carry back to their native land the customs adopted while here and it is only a question of decades before China will be quite modernized. The opening of "The Great World" marks another step in this direction.

MANY DIGGING FOR WEALTH OF NEGRO

Died Without Disclosing Whereabouts of Treasure Buried Years Ago.
Murphy, Cal.—History has it that in the early days a negro named "Butter," who mined on the San Antonio creek, had a vast amount of gold dust—a bake oven full of the precious metal—and he buried it. Later the negro died without divulging the whereabouts of his wealth. Many people have in years past gone to the scene of Butter's cabin and looked for the treasure.

They Are Daily Working.
Digging rods and all known schemes have been resorted to, but without avail. Now comes David Barfield of Murphy, and Donald Kasper of Fair Oaks, and they have joined in a further search for the gold. Both are confident that they have the "inside track" and will find their fortunes, and they are daily working in great faith as to the ultimate success of their undertaking. To this date they are assiduously digging away without results.

Lines to Be Remembered.
For an immortal being to set his affections on the things of this world is like falling in love with a sparrow, as it flies by us and out of sight.—Malvus Agullo.

For the month of March the amount of soda fountain business done is away above most years of the past few spring months. We notice the very busy people at Silverthorn's fountain—they are busy buying!—most June months. Just about such business as is done at this season of the year away down south. 3-25-31

STOUT TROUSERS PROVE UNDOING OF GAMBLER

Cleveland, O.—A stout pair of trousers and a low picket fence brought about an unnamed gambler's downfall here. Police happened along as the men were talking to the dice and broke up the crap game. All participants surrendered except one, and he made a break for liberty. Along the line of his escape he came upon a low iron picket fence. Vaulting gracefully, he came down fairly upon the spikes, one of them going through the seat of his trousers. The cloth held, and a policeman caught up and made the arrest.

THREW STOVE AT HIS WIFE

Man Tells Judge He Wants to Join Army—Soaked $200 and Sent to Farm.
Kansas City, Mo.—W. H. Heather beat his wife, choked her and threw a lighted stove at her. Still she did not object to the treatment until he said: "I hear you've been joy riding in the city ambulance with a certain ham doctor." Then Mrs. Anna Heather, a city nurse, had him arrested.
"Tu fine you $200," said the court. "But, your honor, I want to go to the army and—" said Heather.
"All right, Heather," replied the judge. "You can go to the city farm. Salute your superior officer, Police Lieutenant Leroy Casey, and go with him."

WIFE BEATER MUST FIGHT

Judge Orders Him to Training Camp to Prepare to Try His Talents on Hun.
Akron, O.—Henderson Dugan, aged twenty-eight, cigar clerk, whipped his eighteen-year-old wife. He was taken before Judge Pardee, who pronounced the following sentence: "As you appear to be a fairly good fighter, the sentence of this court is that you go to Camp Sherman, or any other training camp the government may designate, and prepare to fight for your country during the duration of the war."

BOY CHAINED IN DARK ATTIC

Accuses Father of Beating Him Repeatedly During Several Days' Confinement.
Kankakee, Ill.—When police raided Mrs. Stankovick's home in complaint of neighbors they found John Stankovick, aged thirteen, chained in chains in a dark attic room. On his body was evidence of mistreatment. He accused his father for his confinement, charging his parent had beaten him repeatedly with a whip during several days' confinement. Stankovick claimed the boy was innocent. He was arrested.

SOLDIERS HEAR MINSTRELS

Toul, France, March 25.—Soldiers of the American Second Army and others who are here on leave crowded the Theatre Comedie at the opening performances given by the Knights of Columbus overseas minstrels, a troupe of sixty or more entertainers. Performances were given at Toul for a week and the theatre was filled to overflowing at nearly all the performances.

Carrying out a plan to give all the soldiers of the American expeditionary forces an opportunity to see the show, the troupe was then divided into lesser units and these units made a circuit of camps and smaller centers in the Toul sector including Conflans, St. Mihiel and Pont-a-Mousson.
