Sound, Reliable and Progressive.

Whether it be a time-worn chair or a table, saved more for sentiment than for appearance sake, it can be brought back to its original lustre by one coat of B-H Lustrelac.

Mahogany, walnut, cherry, oak—whatever the style and whatever the finish, there is a Lustrelac shade to match it. Lustrelac imparts a brilliant, durable and lasting finish. An old piece of furniture touched with Lustrelac can hardly be told from new. Eight shades and colorless.

will be held April 1st, 2nd and 3rd.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Currey, 1714 Fourth street, was the scene of a pleasant social time Friday evening. When Mrs. Lawrence Dutton and Misses Beta Kiddie, Dorothy Dunbar and Helen Currey entertained a small number of their friends at an after theatre party. Refreshments were served and a general good time enjoyed.

Paul Meyers was host at an enjoyable little party a week ago, March 23rd, on the anniversary of his eleventh birthday. About a dozen of his young friends gathered at his home and entertained themselves at outdoor games for most of the afternoon, and refreshments were served them to put the finishing touches on a really good time.

The usual large crowd attended the Elks' dance and social evening held in their fine home, here last Monday. With the rapid improvement in the country roads, many from out of town were able to attend the event, and reports of a splendid time were very frequently heard.

Misses Anna and Eva Elesche left yesterday for their home in Portland, where they will remain for some time. The Misses Elesche had been at Hot Lake for the past year, and in that time made many friends at that place and in La Grande who regret their departure.

An interesting session of the Elks lodge was held Thursday evening, when a class of nineteen was initiated. Refreshments were enjoyed at the conclusion of the evening's work. Another large class is expected to join the order next month.

Mrs. E. P. Mossman returned yesterday from Portland, where she had been for the past three weeks visiting friends. Mrs. Mossman was entertained at many enjoyable social affairs by her Portland friends during her stay in that city.

The return of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Grady to La Grande a couple of days ago is noted by their many friends here with great pleasure. They arrived from San Francisco, where Mr. Grady had been so ill for several weeks that his recovery was doubted.

CAPIES ALONG COAST NOT ON MAPS

Women are really swimming more—than in days of old. Each season goes further to prove this as new bathing suits are built more along practical lines. Here is shown one of the favorites at the winter resorts in Florida, as worn by Mrs. John Liggett of New York, at Palm Beach. And the cape—it is very important—to comfort when coming from the water.

evening at the home of Mrs. O. May Noyes. There was a good attendance of members and all spent a most pleasant evening with their hostess.

Mrs. F. L. Lilly and daughter, Cecile, leave tonight for Portland and Corvallis, where they will remain for some time. They will visit Mrs. Lilly's sister in Portland and other relatives at Corvallis.

Mrs. C. D. Putman entertained a number of friends at cards last Wednesday evening, the guests being the members of a card club to which Mr. and Mrs. Putman belong. A very sociable evening was spent.

Jack O'Connell, while home from service in the navy last week, was entertained at dinner Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ford, at their home in the Gilbert apartments.

Miss Ethel Wright entertained the members of the Westminster Guild at her home last Wednesday evening, when a roodly number of the members were present.

Miss Marguerite Winters, who has been visiting for a few days at the home of her friend, Miss Mima Cooper, leaves today to return to her home at Caldwell, Ida.

Miss Ivy Williams, one of teacher's school teachers, was in La Grande Thursday evening for the senior class play. She returned home Friday morning.

Mrs. John French, of South La Grande, left yesterday for Portland, where she will remain for some time visiting her sister, Mrs. Kori.

Mrs. David Stoddard left Thursday evening last for Salt Lake City, where

Relatives See it on a Screen After War Department Notice.

To receive word that a brother had been killed in action in France and then see his picture alive and happy among a number of other frolicsome doughboys on a film in a picture playhouse is the rare experience of Lyle Beck and his sister, Miss Velma Beck.

The two went to a theater in Mattoon, Ill., the memory of a telegram from the war department at Washington announcing the death of their brother was still fresh in their minds. During the performance a war film picture of scenes in France was shown.

"Why there's William," Miss Velma suddenly exclaimed to Lyle. Both distinctly recognized the picture. It was unusually clear, they said. Adv. 3-29-3t
