Some Old Traditions Spoiled.

The precepts of Benjamin Franklin are freely used in connection with impressing the lessons of the benefits of thrift. This has been spoiled by the assertion that if everyone were as penurious and close-fisted with their money as the old philosopher advised there wouldn't be enough pennies in circulation to make change at the postoffice and the advancement of the world would be set back to the plans of a community of misers.

One after another our traditions are toppled over and our ideals dimmed. There is the bee, for example. From time immemorial, and possibly longer, the bee has been a synonym of productive industry and a model for mankind.

"How doth the little busy bee, etc.?" How doth she, indeed! According to recent observations of irreverent, hard-headed, practical observers, this is the way she doth:

She goes around gathering honey for two shining hooves, and then she sneaks home to the hive and lays off, stuffing herself from her store of sweets, and finally working her wings just enough to keep herself cool—sweet food being heating, as everybody knows. She acts precisely like the idle woman we sometimes read about who spend the afternoon dipping into a handy hand-on box and furnishing motive power to a palm leaf fan.

After a while this germanizing lethargy pulls on Mrs. Bee. The concentrated food she consumes produces so much energy that she just has to get outdoors and work it off, somehow. So she proceeds to take the only exercise she knows anything about, and makes her flower-rounds again. Two hours on duty and two off seem to be her usual schedule. The experts say they have yet to find the bee that puts in an eight-hour day.

There is only one hope left—the art. And after this saddening revelation, we're almost prepared to learn that Mrs. Ant is a hypocritical loafer.

Cleaning Up Only a Beginning.

In many communities the mayors, city managers and boards of health are calling upon the public to take the necessary steps in preparation for Cleanup week. They are to notify citizens of the date, to arrange for proper disposal of the rubbish collected and to arouse the interest of every resident of every community.

The National Clean-up and Paint-up campaign bureau, with headquarters in St. Louis, suggests that clean-up campaigns this spring last more than one week, and take on a broader purpose than ever before. In doing so it is sending all over the country its urge to every community, no matter how large or how small it may be, to put forth its best effort to make that region a better place to live in.

"We need an immediate and continuous and thorough campaign that represents and builds every interest and organization, every man, woman and child in the community, in a crusade of cleanliness, thrift and civic pride, and their practical application."

Neat yards, clean streets, every man and scrap of waste paper disposed of properly instead of left to clutter up the landscape, are only the simplest aims of the clean-up campaign. Repairs on houses, barns and fences, as well as all kinds of improvements on public buildings and parks, call for energetic, thorough work and the earnest co-operation of everybody in the neighborhood.

Incidentally, the fullest carrying out of such a campaign will mean more opportunities for employment in any community. Carpenters, masons, tiners, painters, gardeners, etc., will be in great demand for a considerable period. The improved appearance of the town will be closely followed by improved health and prosperity.

Proper Use for Explosives

Linah's promise that swords should be beaten into plowshares and the spears into pruning hooks is given a new and wondrous version in one of the peace measures adopted by the United States government.

The modern equivalent for swords and spears, as everybody knows, is explosives. Instead of cutting up the enemy, we blow him up. And the chief ingredient of our many blowing up mixtures is nitrate.

Now, it happens, strangely enough that nitrate is also one of the most necessary and valuable substances used in agriculture. It is just as good to make things grow as it is to smash things—as good to create as to kill. Chemists say, indeed, that the process is very much the same in both cases, and that the stimulus given to plant growth by the nitrate might be described as an infinite number of infinitely small explosions in the plant cells.

So it is perfectly fitting that the war department should be turning over to the agricultural department more than 100,000 tons of nitrate of soda for distribution among American farmers.

That would be enough to kill hundreds of thousands of Germans. It is also enough to produce millions of bushels of grain and save vast numbers of hungry Europeans from starvation. Wonderful are the ways of Providence.

Two Discredited Prophets.

Among other nineteenth-century false prophets might be mentioned the ex-mayor, Richard Brothers, who predicted that he would be king of Jerusalem, and Private James White, who founded a religious sect known as the Jerrycities.

PUTS UP TROPHY FOR COMPETITION IN CHURCH LEAGUE

Believing that the church basketball league should have a suitable trophy to be played for, Cashier T. J. Strough of the United States National Bank has ordered a fine, large loving cup which will be presented to the winning team at the end of the scheduled number of games. The cup is 12 3/4 inches high.

The M. L. A. team, which won last night's contest from the Methodists at the Y. M. C. A., look like the championship team so far, as they have not lost a game.

LETTERS WORK FOR VICTORY LIBERTY LOAN

Yours for the Victory Loan. A prominent business man of St. Louis has suggested that if all business letters were signed in this manner the thought of the Victory Liberty Loan would be so firmly impressed on everyone's mind that it would be much easier to raise the $5,000,000,000 to be asked for by the government beginning with the fifth drive April 21.

Make your letters work for the Victory Loan. Start in now to boost. Make the slogan "Yours for the Victory Loan," help put the fifth drive over the top.
