LOCAL HAPPENINGS

The Loyal Sisters will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. J. T. Conwell, at her new address, 402 West Adams.

F. G. Schilke, O.W. divisional engineer, is away this week on a trip to Portland and Seattle, on company business. He left Sunday night.

Clarence, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Woods, arrived home last night after over a year in the service of his country, the most of which time was in France.

Mrs. M. P. Thompson, of Innaba, who visited at the W. F. Gillaspie home in La Grande for a couple of days this week, left this morning to return home.

Mrs. Lovett, matron of the Louise Home, Portland, left this morning to return to Portland, after spending a couple of days in town. Miss Lovett spoke Sunday evening at the service in the Methodist church, South.

Dr. R. E. L. Holt, of Portland, is in La Grande today attending to professional business and looking up old friends. Dr. Holt recently resumed his practice in Portland, after spending several months in the service.

Mrs. F. G. Schilke, Mrs. Pele Beyer, Mrs. Frank Jackson and Mrs. Lou Given accompanied Mrs. Mabel Settemier, grand matron of the O. E. S., to Baker yesterday and attended a meeting of the chapter there last evening.

Mrs. D. C. Kellens, of Eugene, state president of the Woman's Bible Mission of the Christian church, was in La Grande yesterday, visiting the pastor, R. L. Coker and his wife. She went out this morning to visit various points in this part of the state and will return to address a meeting of the Christian church women Saturday afternoon.

Word has been received from C. H. Griffin, who with his wife and boy went to Tacoma several days ago to be at the bedside of his sick mother, stating that it was found necessary to amputate one of his mother's limbs. Although she is 84 years of age she stood the ordeal well and is recovering. Mr. and Mrs. Griffin expect to return to La Grande soon.

Harold F. Humbert, executive secretary of the Oregon Sunday School Association, was in town today, conferring with W. F. Landrum, who is head of the Union County organization, regarding the state convention, which will be held May 22nd in Baker City. It is expected that there will be about twenty-five delegates from Union county attend the convention.

Have the label, which stands for fair working conditions, put on your job printing. The Observer is one of the two shops in town observing union principles. Phone Main 37.

PASSION WEEK SERVICES
Passion week union service will be held at the First M. E. church this evening. R. L. Coker, pastor of the church, will bring the message. The meeting will commence with a song service at 7:45. All are invited to come and enjoy good singing. Further services will be held throughout the week, and everybody is urged to attend.

MOOSE LODGE WILL INSTALL
Tomorrow, Wednesday evening, is installation night with the La Grande Moose lodge. The officers to be installed are: Fred Smith, Dictator; Wm. Hansen, Past Dictator; R. J. Kitchen, Vice-Dictator; Jap Stevens, Prelate; C. N. Palmer, Trustee. Appointive officers will be announced after initiation of elective officers. All members are urged to be out, as a program has been arranged and refreshments will be served.

SUMMERVILLE ITEMS
Rev. Gano, of Alsea, filled his regular appointment on last Sunday evening. A beautiful violin solo was rendered by Misses Fern and Oua McKinnis.

Thelma Choate of La Grande spent Saturday and Sunday visiting at the home of her uncle, Thelbert Choate. Frank Smith, a resident of the Summerville neighborhood, has received an honorable discharge from the U. S. army and returned home. He was fortunate enough to get over seas and help make things warm for the Hunns.

After a pleasant vacation with her mother, Rose Zweifel, has returned to her work in La Grande.

Francis Ott has accepted a position with his uncle of Lathrop.

Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Long entertained a number of their friends Sunday, with a beautiful farm dinner.

D. R. McKenzie has returned home after a two weeks visit in Portland. Arthur Behrens who went to Portland submitted to an operation in his new home and able to be on the streets again, much to the joy of his friends.

Mrs. M. D. Sanderson and her cousin, Miss Hunter, spent the week end with Mrs. F. E. Woodell.

Mrs. C. M. Hale is having dental work done in La Grande this week.

Mrs. E. M. Wagoner and daughter, Irene, who are spending a few months in Oklahoma, expect to return home soon.

Mrs. Ed Combs spent Thursday visiting with her daughter at Palmer Junction.

Clarence Gray has purchased a "New Model" Studbaker car.

As a result of the drive for clothing for the suffering refugees in the war stricken districts of Europe Mrs. Fred Hamilton, chairman of the local Red Cross here, packed and shipped quite a number of pounds. The Summerville quota for the three drives was more than filled.
