LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Jas. Gallagher, of Durkee, was a business visitor in this city today.

James Grant, of Huntington, was a La Grande visitor today, doing business with the land office.

Mrs. Harry Grove left on No. 17 this morning for Pendleton, where she will visit for a couple of days.

Ed. Lettel, of Joseph, who was a La Grande visitor yesterday, returned home this morning.

A. W. Schupp, Joseph, attorney, was a business visitor in this city yesterday. He went out on the branch this morning.

Mrs. Chas. Wolf, who had been visiting friends in La Grande for a week past, returned this morning to her home at Joseph.

Mrs. John McNair, who had been a guest at the E. D. Graves home in this city since Monday, left this morning for her home at Pendleton.

W. S. Parker, manager of Hill's Department store, is spending a couple of days in Portland on business this week. He took an early train west this morning.

Circuit Judge Knowles and Court Reporter W. J. Hannah left this morning for Enterprise, where the judge will hold court for the trial of equity cases. Mrs. Knowles and little daughter accompanied the judge to remain with him in Enterprise during the week or ten days the court will be in session.

Lieut. Clarence Ford, of the Salvation army, who had been visiting his parents and friends in La Grande for a week past, left this morning to return to Seattle.

Mrs. Anna Molloy left today for Kingman, Ariz., for an extended visit. Mrs. Molloy will remain there indefinitely with her daughters, who are in poor health.

Mrs. and Mrs. George Gowing were Joseph people who went out home on the branch train this morning. They had been spending the winter in the southern part of the state and arrived in La Grande last night on their return.

Leroy V. Thomas, former O-W operator here, who had been paying La Grande a brief visit following his return from the service, left on No. 6 today for Baker, where he was operating when he entered the service. He will return to the position he formerly held.

L. J. Allen, of the O. A. C., Corvallis, arrived in La Grande this morning, and is being taken by County Agent Spillman on a visit to boys' and girls' club and picnic grounds in the county. Mr. Allen is the college representative in charge of this work in the state.

The news of Arthur Golden's return to the United States from overseas was conveyed in a telegram received from him by his mother, Mrs. C. E. Golden, yesterday. He landed at New York Friday and is now in camp in New Jersey. He expects to be back in La Grande at an early date. Private Golden served with the 157th Infantry overseas.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo D. Noah, who have been residing in Portland for the past year, returned to La Grande last night and will again make their home here. Mr. Noah, who worked in the shipyards during his stay in Portland, was a building contractor in this city before leaving.

Mrs. M. Anthony and Misses Edna Graham, Friederike, Schlike and Gladys Miller, who attended the Godowsky piano recital given in Pendleton yesterday, returned to La Grande this morning with reports of having enjoyed a splendid program by the well known artist. The recital was well patronized, drawing a large attendance from outside points, they say.

Mrs. A. B. Cooper left this afternoon for Alice, to spend the day visiting friends in that neighborhood.

Miss Ina Richardson, of Astoria, is spending a few days in La Grande this week, visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. E. W. Cox arrived from Baker last night, to spend a few days here visiting her parents, Mr and Mrs. James J. A. Russell.

Mrs. J. E. Reynolds is expecting her sister, Mrs. C. A. Hunter, to arrive from her home in Wallowa this evening, on her way to pay a visit to relatives in Portland. Mrs. Hunter will go on to Portland tonight.

Col. E. L. Eckley went to Hot Lake this morning to take a course of baths in the heated spray. He says positively that as far as taking baths is concerned he does not approve going such a distance but he has hooked up a severe cold and has hopes that the Hot Lake treatment will loosen up the cold and make him return to his usual supple and agile manner.

While attending the Red Cross convention at Seattle Mrs. W. H. Talbot visited for a short time her friend, Miss Ida Rettig who was stationed at Camp Lewis as a surgical nurse. Miss Rettig finished her work last week and was discharged from the service. She is now with her relatives in Portland taking a rest and has not announced her plans for the future. She is a graduate of the Grande Ronde hospital and has made good in every way in the service. The highest praise is accorded her by surgeons with whom she worked at Camp Lewis.

GIRL SHOW COMING TO ARCADE
An announcement that no doubt will be welcomed by all the theatre-goers of La Grande was given out today by Messrs. Meyers and Ford of the Arcade theatre that they have secured the Sunset Amusement company for two days, next Monday and Tuesday.

The Sunset Amusement company offer as their headline attraction Duke Westcott, the famous black-face comedian, and for a vehicle have made him the center of attraction in those sparkling musical satires, "The Strollers" and "A Night Out." Besides Mr. Westcott there is Miss Arline McDonagh and the Golden Gate Girls, as well as others in the cast. This attraction will appear at the Arcade on Monday and Tuesday nights, giving two shows each night. "The Strollers" will be presented on Monday night and "A Night Out" will be presented Tuesday night. On account of this extra attraction the regular picture booked for those days will be presented at the matinee only.

Eastertide

With the bursting of the buds this Easter there wells anew in hearts throughout the world the spirit of service.

Service, man to man and Nation to Nation, this is the vision which comes with peace, like the first faint glow of the morning.

May each of us be inspired to do our share in lifting this new inspiration from the dimness of a horizon glow to full, clear glory in the zenith of a new day.

Surely it is a wonderful opportunity which this Eastertide brings!
