FAMOUS ACTRESS LOSES "IDENTITY IN MICKY"

Mabel Normand in a Memorable Characterization.

"When an actress loses her identity, so that she is always thought of as the character portrayed rather than herself, it's hard sometimes for her to discover whether she is exactly pleased or not." Mabel Normand, who is featured in "Micky," said to a reporter during a recent interview.

She seemed to complain and at the same time appreciate that everyone who had seen her as "Micky" thought of her as only "dear little Micky" which was naturally absorbing. "Mabel Normand"—just as Maude Adams is inseparable from Peter Pan. Because the story of "Micky" is so vivid and appealing, and the characters are so real and human, one will always remember the people in this play.

"Micky" is a story of universal appeal. It is a human, tender parable between laughter and pathos. There is that in the telling is somewhere are charming bits of comedy and there are places where the story trembles very close to the brink of tears. Micky is a quaint little mountain girl, and this lovable, mischievous child, with her little scuffed-up shoes and her bulging and lopsided old burro, is a wonderfully vivid characterization. The action of the play carries her finally into the city and into new complications whose dramatic contrast is telling and strong.

This is not a drama of flying pastries, innocent heroines seduced and seven buckets of blood. "Micky" is a production of the ordinary run of picture plays, and will be shown at the Arcade theatre on Saturday and Sunday.

FAMOUS STAR IN FINE PLAY

John Barrymore Will Be Seen Here in "Are You a Mason?"

John Barrymore, the immitable stage and screen favorite, who has convulsed countless audiences by his work in "The Man From Mexico," returns to the screen at the Arcade theatre today and tomorrow. In Lee Dittichstein's sensational farce tri-umph, "Are You a Mason?"

The humor generated by the play is the result of genuinely funny action and situations, that accumulate more quickly than can be described. A young married man, who is anxious to go about in the evenings, leads his trusting wife to believe that he is Grand Master of the Masons. His new father-in-law practices the same deception, but neither suspects the other, and both avoid each other for fear of being exposed. A bona-fide Mason invites the wives of the two delinquents to an entertainment at the lodge. At the same time the older offender arranges to visit his daughter which fact is communicated to the younger bogus Mason, to his intense disgust and frantic fear. The entanglements that follow provide much amusement.

John Barrymore is at his best in the role of the deceiving young Mason. Among the cast Ida Waterbar who plays the irate mother-in-law with just the right touch of humor and Charles Dickson, as the bogus Grand Master, are particularly prominent.

In addition to this feature film on the two-reel Sunshine comedy an additional feature of unusual local interest will also be presented.

Miss Florence Lamb will organize the Big Show at "Micky," to the La Grande theatre public as both ever the performances on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evening.

Repairs on repairing on Green Service station. J. E. Kelly.

MARBLE BRIDE LEARNS TO LOVE HER HUSBAND

Madge Kennedy sparkles and shines in her own individual way in her latest Hollywood picture, "Friend Husband," scheduled at the Sherry theatre tomorrow and Friday. She is a different sort of actress who finds herself in a complication as different as it is alarming.

Madge Kennedy is Dorothy, a girl who considers her sister a slave to the herself down to domestic drudgery. Dorothy is strong for the freedom of her sex, but when her grandmother's will is read she learns that she must marry in order to inherit the fortune. Accordingly, the lawyer is instructed to advertise for a young man willing to enter into a marriage in name only for a monetary consideration.

Visiting the lawyer's office Dorothy meets a young man who, she assumes, is an applicant. He is really a man of fortune, the son of the lawyer's friend. Don falls in love with Dorothy's plan and they are

WELSH LECTURER COMING

Nephew of David Lloyd-George to Be Here Soon in Lyceum.

Arthur Walwyn Evans, nephew of David Lloyd-George, son of the great Welsh revivalist, will be here soon on the Lyceum course and his lecture will be one of the longest remembered events of the season. He is undoubtedly one of the most brilliant men who have come upon the American platform in the last decade.

He contrasts in telling comparisons the weakness and strength of America from a Welshman's viewpoint. Often he hits hard but he hits a constructive blow. In the opinion of press and public this great Welsh orator is contributing the sanest criticism and the most fervent tribute to our country that has been heard in many years.

HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

April 17th; 8:15 P. M.

Single admission 50c

Dr. Lincoln McConnell, who speaks on the Lyceum course in the high school auditorium the evening of Saturday, April 19, is a southern evangelist who has made an international reputation through his ability to speak forcefully and interestingly. "Dead Lions," the lecture he will give in La Grande, is humorous, philosophical, and practical. It has been called the "Lyceum Classic." Dr. McConnell has given this lecture over 2000 times, and everywhere it has met with enthusiastic response and approval. Dr. McConnell has been a prime favorite in the cantonments since the beginning of the war, where his red-blooded addresses have thrilled the American boys who were preparing for the fight for democracy being waged on the soil of France.

Dr. McConnell has two sons now serving under Pershing. To hear him is to get new inspiration for the big tasks ahead of us.
