LITTLE TRAFFIC ON RUSSIAN RAILWAYS

Said That Not One Per Cent of the Population is in Favor of Bolshevism.
STOCKHOLM, March 18.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Passenger traffic on Russian railroads has ceased ostensibly because of the spread of spotted typhus but really because there are no locomotives to spare and because there is a great shortage of fuel, according to I. Hesen, the former editor of the Petrograd Rjetch. Thanks to heavy bribing he has just managed to leave Petrograd which he said was in desperate straits.
"At the Putiloff Works, where formerly 15,000 men were employed only a very few are now to be seen," said Mr. Hesen to the Associated Press. "Sabotage prevails. Locomotives cannot be repaired nor constructed. The only one the Bolsheviki have is valued at four million rubles.
"In Petrograd a piece of firewood costs four rubles, bread twenty rubles a pound, meat thirty, sugar 120 and butter the same. Maxim Gorky, the novelist, has at his disposition 10,000,000 rubles for printing books and supporting authors and tutors, but no books can be printed as long as paper is five rubles a pound.
"Why the Bolsheviki regime has not fallen puzzles everyone, particularly the Bolsheviki themselves. Time after time they have expected their fall and prepared to quit, but each time something happened that improved their chances. Last autumn when Perm was taken by the Czechs, when armed forces threatened from the Ukraine and the Narva and British warships approached in the Baltic everyone was sure it was the beginning of the end. And then, instead, came the invitation to Princes Islands.
"Not even one percent of the population is in favor of Bolshevism. Bolsheviki troops fight without knowing why, but continue for fear of being shot if they disobey. If given an opportunity they desert at once. An example of this was the action of what was considered a model regiment in Petrograd. The men, 3000 of them, were sent from their barracks to the railway station to entrain for the Narva. When the train arrived there were just eight men who had obeyed instructions to entrain.
"If there is no intervention soon pure anarchy will rule Russia. Trotsky and Lenin are gradually being pushed aside and real criminals will succeed to the places of power."

Alaska Representative Urges Inheritance Tax on Estates of $10,000

JUNEAU, Alaska, March 14.—(City Mail)—Inheritance tax on estates in Alaska is proposed in a bill submitted to the territorial house by Rep. A. J. Nordate of Fairbanks. The bill provides for the following tax: on estates over $10,000 and up to $20,000, two per cent; on estates between $20,000 and $50,000, three per cent; on estates between $50,000 and $100,000, four per cent; on estates over $100,000, five per cent.
NEW FEATURE TO MOVIES
LONDON, April 16.—Aircraft development during the last few years has thrown open to the moving picture man an entirely new field. It may be some years yet before flying comes within the means of the ordinary person as a mode of travel but, through the film, he may experience some of the artistic joys of aviation.
Already a certain amount of aerial cinema photography has been carried out successfully—enough, at least, to measure its possibilities. In the near future, it is expected that magnificent mountain scenery will be photographed from aircraft, not only in Switzerland and in the United States, but in Abyssinia, the Himalayas and other less explored regions of the world.
The whole of a wonderful flight from San Francisco to London or from London to India, or to Australia, may in time, be shown to the public.

MORE DEMOCRATIC TENDENCY
STOCKHOLM, April 16.—A movement is under way in the Swedish parliament to place the government of Sweden on a more democratic basis by so altering the constitution as to give parliament direct control of the nation's foreign policy. A committee of the Riksdag has proposed that the contents of all international agreements and treaties should be communicated to parliament, and it is expected that these recommendations will be adopted.
Under the constitution as it now stands, control of foreign affairs is in the hands of the king and his ministers.

GRAY WELSH LECTURER COMING

Arthur Walwyn Evans, nephew of David Lloyd George, son of the great Welsh revivalist, will be here soon on the Lyceum course and his lecture will be one of the longest remembered events of the season. He is undoubtedly one of the most brilliant men who have come upon the American platform in the last decade.
He contrasts in telling comparisons the weakness and strength of America from a Welshman's viewpoint. Often he hits hard but he hits a constructive blow. In the opinion of press and public this great Welsh orator is contributing the sanest criticism and the most fervent tribute to our country that has been heard in many years.

Dr. Lincoln McConnell, who speaks on the lyceum course in the high school auditorium the evening of Saturday, April 19, is a southern evangelist who has made an international reputation through his ability to speak forcefully and interestingly. "Dead Lions," the lecture he will give in La Grande, is humorous, philosophical, and practical. It has been called the "Lyceum Classic." Dr. McConnell has given this lecture over 2000 times, and everywhere it has met with enthusiastic response and approval. Dr. McConnell has been a prime favorite in the cantonments since the beginning of the war, where his red-blooded addresses have thrilled the American boys who were preparing for the fight for democracy being waged on the soil of France.
Dr. McConnell has two songs now setting under Pershing. To hear him is to get new inspiration for the big tasks ahead of us.
