The school days are fast coming to a close. Although both teachers and pupils have been somewhat handicapped by conditions this school year, all is coming out fine. Do the fathers and mothers stop to realize the gratitude they owe the teacher who works for the welfare of the children? Show your appreciation by visiting school one of these fine spring afternoons. The teacher, as well as the boys and girls, will appreciate your interest shown.

The arrival of the hospital unit is anxiously awaited, for three of our boys are coming then.
