20-ACRE HOME
This is just a short distance from the City Park. This property is well improved and all under cultivation and will cost $8000. It will take about $5000 to handle the owner's interest. Some personal property goes with it and he might consider some town property if properly located, and priced at the right figure.

When you consider the value of the improvements on this place and the personal property that will be thrown in, it will bring the land down to less than $200 an acre.

No land in that vicinity can be bought at any such a price. It will require some cash, but this is a bargain and well worth considering. There will be a fine crop taken off this year and the crops will take care of the payments coming later.

Corns Peel Off Painlessly

There's Only One Genuine Corn-Peeler — That's "Gets-It."

There's only one happy way to get rid of any corn or callus, and that's the painless-peel-off way. "Gets-It" is the only corn remedy in the world that does it that way—effectively, thoroughly. Why get down on the floor, tie yourself up into a knot, and have to fool with "package" plasters, greasy ointments that rub off, sticky tape, and digging knives and scissors, when you can peel off your corn or callus in one complete piece, peacefully and surely, with magic, simple, easy "Gets-It"? It takes 2 or 3 seconds to apply "Gets-It"; you use 2 or 3 drops, and that's all. "Gets-It" does the rest! Get rid of that corn-pain at once, so that you can work and play without corn torture. Be sure to use "Gets-It," it never fails.

"2 drops of 'Gets-It'—Corn is doomed."

"Gets-It," the guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, the only sure way, costs but a trifle at any drug store. M'f'd by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

"YARB DOCTOR" BELIEVED WIZARD

Strange Old Man in Missouri Who Embittered the Countryside.

IS SHOT TO DEATH

Suspected of Setting Fires and Destroying Grain, He Is Waylaid at Night by Angry Neighbors and Killed.

Kansas City.—High up in a lonely cabin, on an elevation in an overflow district of the Missouri river, for more than 30 years the mysterious "yarb doctor" of Chariton county brewed his medicines from herbs of the forest and made prophecies to the country folk.

Who he was or where he came from no one ever knew. He gave his name as Sturman, but he never revealed his true identity. His prophecies of death and calamity came true so surely that the people of the vicinity accredited him with the powers of a wizard and feared him.

It is said that he predicted the present world war, declaring way back in the early seventies that "in the last part of the first quarter of the new century the harvest fields will be stripped of their gleaners, as they will be fighting a foe on a foreign soil, with weapons not seen before."

All of his remedies the old doctor prepared in a room which he allowed no one to else to enter. The gray, weather-beaten house straddled the mound like a drunken horseman, looking as if at any time it might reel into the lap of the swamp lands below.

A Tall, Bent Figure.

The appearance of the old man was in keeping with his habitation. A tall, bent figure humped over a cane; black eyes that glittered under thatchlike eyebrows; long, unkempt beard and hair, surmounted by a coonskin cap.

The sight of him coming down the road in his ramshackle buggy, drawn by a rickety old gray mare, made the children scamper from the roadside.

The old man was a cripple when he mysteriously put in his appearance in the Missouri township. He was able to get around only by means of his horse and buggy. Although he gave freely and without charge of his remedies, he refused to "neighbor" with anyone. As he sipped his toddy in the little cross-roads store he quarreled with the bystanders. He was constantly engaged in some lawsuit and made many bitter enemies.

And then there came a July night when the men of the community decided the old doctor had been a neighborhood nuisance long enough. There had been several fires in the township. Buggy-wheel tracks were seen in the vicinity of each. Following the fires a number of sacks of wheat that were loaded at the old Keytesville landing ready to be shipped to Kansas City were cut one night and thousands of bushels of grain lost. The same wheel tracks were seen near the landing. The community was enraged. The old "yarb doctor" was held responsible.

The next afternoon, as he was jogging homeward, a number of men ambushed in the lonely road riddled his body with bullets and hastily buried him in a shallow grave.

Superstitious Fear.

The community approved, but later on a dozen men were arrested for the murder. When the court ordered the body of the murdered man to be exhumed the whole neighborhood was alarmed. They feared life might come again to the old doctor. Prayer meetings in the churches and at the old camp-meeting ground were set for the day.

Each man arrested, however, proved an alibi. The prosecution was suddenly ended. The body was supposedly nailed up in a walnut box and buried in a deep grave. The neighborhood rested easier.

The grave in the woods, however, is said to be a haunted spot.

Aerial Postal Service.

Negotiations for aerial postal service have been completed between the British and Dutch governments, and Holland is very busy making final arrangements. The journey from Amsterdam to London would take but one and one-half or two hours. The Dutch military airmen, who have been in training since the beginning of the war, are to act as pilots and the ministry of war is lending full co-operation to the scheme. On the same lines an air service between Amsterdam and Groigen is also being arranged. Ground for large airdromes is being prepared near the Dutch metropolis.—Scientific American.

Austrian Child-Slaves.

The report of a parliamentary committee appointed to investigate conditions surrounding child labor in Austria discovered a most deplorable condition, according to the Arbeiter Zeitung of Vienna. More than one-third of all schoolchildren are engaged in some kind of work. In some districts all the children of school age are working. Out of every 100 schoolchildren between six and eight years, 18 are at work; between nine and ten, 35; between eleven and twelve, 50, and between thirteen and fourteen, 52. Two-fifths of these children have been working from the time they were five or six years old.

MODART CORSETS
Front Laced

WHY LOOK OLDER THAN YOU ARE?

It is astonishing how many women through lack of attention are wearing corsets that give a more mature appearance to the figure than it should have, and consequently they appear to be five or ten years older than they are.

It is possible to readily improve that condition if you will come to our corset department and get a trial fitting of the MODART front laced corset.

OTHER INVESTMENTS MAY LURE BUT BUILD THAT HOME FIRST

The building of a home is the first investment a family should make—first, because it it used every minute of the day and every day of the year, because it is "home."

The purchase of a home may be rated as the best investment a family can make, best because it is of stable value; it does not pass out of style with the changing seasons; it does not lose its charm with continual use.

Building without plans and careless designing are the big items of expense. Select a plan designed by an architect—it will cost no more than a home in which the modern conveniences are missing. It may be a modest cottage or bungalow, it may be a model of architectural beauty, but unless it has the many new built-in features it is not up to what is now considered modern.

Our Catalog—A Magnificent Volume of 400 Modern, Moderate-Priced, Step-Saving, Convenient Homes, Barns, Silos, Grain Bins, Hog and Poultry Houses and other buildings. Every design is the work of an expert. There are no dark corners and all matters pertaining to sanitation and ventilation are perfect.

We have listed for every one of the designs all the necessary lumber, millwork, built-in features, hardware, paint, number of days labor, etc., making it possible for you to build for a definite sum of money, without waste, and every modern built-in feature included.
