LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Edward B. Rosenheim, lawyer of Boise and sporting writer on the Capital-News of that city, is in town today to referee tonight's wrestling match.

Meivin F. Boice, physical instructor at the Y. M. C. A., left last night for Seattle to attend the funeral of his sister-in-law, of whose death he received notice yesterday morning.

Mr. Sias Robbins, who is in partnership with John Anthony in the Paris Cafe, will become one of the new residents of La Grande. His home has been in Baker.

The Catholic ladies of the Red Cross will meet at the home of Mrs. A. W. Ray, 1302 Sixth street, tomorrow (Wednesday) afternoon at 2 o'clock. A full attendance of the members is desired.

W. Albert Burns, of Tolocmet, was a visitor in town today, the chief purpose of his visit being to get a line up on the good roads program that has been prepared by the local committee of the Ad Club for Union county.

A. L. Schupp, of Joseph, lawyer-mayor of that would-be city, is spending the day in town and intends remaining over to witness the De Court-Santel wrestling exhibition this evening. Mr. Schupp once took a very active interest in the wrestling game himself, and although he declares that he is going to behave himself perfectly this evening, he has some friends here who know him who would not be surprised if in his excitement at the match a return of the old-time enthusiasm should cause him to issue a challenge to tonight's winner.

James McLaughlin, of the dispatcher's office of the O.W., returned this morning from Seattle and Tacoma, where he concluded yesterday a pleasant tour with Capt. Francis E. Kelley, the chaplain of the 27th of New York, who visited La Grande a short time ago. Mr. McLaughlin left here with Capt. Kelley and accompanied him to the various points to which he had been taken by the railway company to

...to men. The popularity which Capt. Kelley gained at Pendleton, Seattle, Tacoma and other points, says Mr. McLaughlin, was not a whit less than that which he gained here. He was heard with pleasure by large audiences wherever he spoke. Capt. Kelly was due to leave Seattle today for Portland and intended going from that city to San Francisco.

A large boulder on the track near Hood River this morning was responsible for a forty-minute delay to train No. 6 this morning, says W. P. Walter, county work secretary of the Y. M. C. A., who returned to La Grande this morning from a couple of days' stay in Portland. The engineer succeeded in stopping his train in time to escape hitting the boulder, but the sudden application of the brakes jarred a good many passengers from their sleep. Mr. Walter stated.

SANITARY TRAIN GOING THROUGH HERE TOMORROW

No. 316 Sanitary Train is scheduled to arrive in La Grande at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, with four hundred soldiers bound from the east for Camp Lewis. The ladies of the Red Cross canteen and of the Salvation Army are today making great preparations to feed the soldiers aboard. No local soldiers are known to be aboard, with the possible exception of Kenneth Bartlett, son of Attorney E. W. Bartlett, formerly of this city. It is thought by relatives here that he may be on the train.

WALLA WALLA MEN FIND ROADS GOOD TO THIS PLACE

R. B. Bade and J. P. Welch, of Walla Walla, arrived in La Grande yesterday afternoon, by automobile making the trip from their home town in five hours. They report the roads good all the way, with the exception of a three-mile stretch this side of Meacham, where they found the going very heavy. Messrs. Bade and Welch are establishing an automobile agency here for Premier, Stutz and Packard automobiles and until they make arrangements for a suitable building they will make their headquarters at the Foley hotel.

CHAPERON AGAIN APPEARS IN LONDON

Custom in London Has Been Revived After Being Suspended During Four Years of War.

LONDON, April 15.—(Correspondence of Associated Press.)—The chaperone is reappearing in London, after more than four years of absence because of the war. American women, the society leaders say, are responsible, because they want to see London and independent and self-reliant as they are, they do not want to see it without assurance they will be well chaperoned.

The chaperone, once a well established institution in England, lost her calling when women went in for war work. Many a young girl who had never ventured from home without the guiding hand of a chaperone, took to driving an ambulance, while others were installed in the "Waacs," the "Raffs" or some one of the many other women's organizations which had to do with the prosecution of the war. These vigorous young women had no use for chaperones.

The American women who want chaperones also are war workers, Red Cross, Young Women's Christian Association aids and others who are here. They, too, are self-reliant and independent, but when they doff their uniforms and go out to see London or spend a part of their very little leisure time in the gaieties of the city, they feel they ought to subscribe to the conventions.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS WANT SOUVENIRS

COBLENZ, May 6.—Soldiers of the American army of occupation in the region of Coblenz have been sending home more souvenirs recently than at any previous time since the Americans reached the Rhine. At first these souvenirs consisted of German helmets, iron crosses, bayonets and other articles of war used by the defeated army, but of late the soldiers have been buying German steins and other articles made of pottery.

Within the American area on the east bank of the Rhine there are several pottery plants which have been working overtime during the past few weeks turning out souvenirs for the soldiers. All kinds of pottery pieces are made, bearing the soldier's name and unit while he watches the process of manufacture. At the American postoffice in Coblenz, officers estimate that about sixty mail sacks of souvenirs are shipped to the United States every day.

The sportsmen of Walla Walla county have blood in their eyes for the present State Fish Warden, says the Reporter of Enterprise. One thing is sure he has given very poor protection to the fish in this county. Millions of small fish are allowed to perish each year because the heads of the irrigation ditches are not screened. He certainly has not enforced the law requiring the ditches to be screened and has only recently given any indication that he was going to enforce the law.

WILL MEET IN ENTERPRISE

...committees of the different commercial clubs of Walla Walla county will meet in Enterprise next Friday afternoon at 2:30, to consider the county road bond issue. There will be $100,000 for county roads and it will probably be planned where to spend this money. Quick work will have to be done with the petitions as the county court meets Monday, May 7th and the petitions will have to be presented to them for approval.

ARCADE

— WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY —

She tried to kid the Sheriff but he was a woman-hater!

You see, the Sheriff came in and arrested the whole Company while they were playing "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at a little town in the Middle West, and just as little Eva is going up to Heaven on a white sheet, she has to break off and soothe this hayseed official—an actress certainly has to have her nerve with her, doesn't she? Funniest picture in months.
