MERCHANT SHIPS SHORT OF MEN

1500 NEW SHIPS WILL NEED CREWS THIS YEAR.

Volunteers Will Be Sent for Training to Boston, San Francisco or Seattle, Fares Paid.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—There has never been a time in the history of American shipping when the demand for merchant crews was so brisk as now, according to a report received today by the United States shipping board from Henry Howard, director of the board's recruiting service.

The report shows that the board's manning program for 1919 is based on the expectation that 1500 new ships will be ready for manning before the end of the year. It also states that not less than 200 of these ships must be manned before June 1. Of these, 110 are on the Great Lakes, ready to come down to salt water. Crews for these vessels are being forwarded by rail daily from Atlantic ports.

It is also expected that many of the merchant ships which had been used by the navy during the war, will be turned back to the shipping board in the two months named for manning by merchant marine crews. Many of the officers and men who served on these ships are expected to enter the merchant marine.

Sailors, firemen and stewards are also being trained by the shipping board which has hundreds of jobs waiting for young and husky Americans who wish to enter the training service and be in line of promotion for these ratings. Not long ago the board called for 2000 men to be trained for jobs like these, and it is now ready to take on as many more. Volunteers are wanted from all parts of the country and they need not have had previous seagoing experience. They will be sent at once to Boston, San Francisco or Seattle for training, will be reimbursed for their fare and will be given training pay for the few weeks they are fitting themselves for the big work of helping man new ships. When they go to sea they will receive from $55 to $75 a month, according to their rating, also their board and quarters. Moreover, they will have a rare chance to see the world.

Applicants are notified to apply for enrollment at any of the board's drug store enrolling stations, or to write or telegraph Henry Howard, Custom House, Boston, Mass.

Mint Jell

Try Mint Jiffy-Jell with roast lamb or cold meats. It is vastly better than mint sauce. Try Jiffy-Jell desserts with their real fruit flavors in essence form, in vials. Each is so rich in condensed fruit juice that it makes a real fruit dainty. Yet they cost no more than old-style gelatine desserts.

Joseph is now under consideration. Clifford Stoop of Elgin is visiting his sister, Mrs. E. A. Cole, this week. John Desler, recently returned from France, has gone back to his former position in the Rodgers' garage at Enterprise.

Al F. Strokin, who left the 29th of last May for the army is home again. He received his discharge papers at Camp Lewis on April 22, and on his way home stopped in Portland and Newberg to visit relatives.

Having a hand grenade dropped at his side while passing under a tree in the war zone in France, was the experience of Sam Huffman who returned home last week, following nearly a year's service in the infantry.

ISLAND CITY NEWS

A crowd of parents and friends attended the Sunday morning exercises of the little graduating class. Promptly at 11:30 the little folks marched to their places on the platform which was decorated with apple blossoms and "Old Glory" in the background, but the most beautiful of all was the smiling faces of the happy children. At the close of the service a birthday cake with a lighted candle for each little graduate was brought in and the mothers and children enjoyed the surprise planned by the cradle roll superintendent.

Don't plan supper at home Friday evening, come to the cafeteria supper and bazar at the Sunday school rooms given by the Ladies Aid cafeteria opens at 5 o'clock.

The Place You Get Everything You Want Every Day at the Price You Like to Pay.

AT LAST —

We draw the enemy fire; we didn't suppose they would admit that we existed—PROOF that our plan is getting the business, else they would ignore us.

We haven't robbed any hen house, or the meat-buying public; our conscience is clear; we sort of like this mud-slinging—we are getting lots of free advertising out of this ocean of ink our honorable competitors are spreading in an effort to stop the stampede of their customers to our market. They cannot fool the people forever, for they know

WHO IS WHO

—Who has lowered the prices, who has kept them low, who has compelled that competitor to resort to baits to save his bacon; and then some more—

WHO

—Who wants to live on bait like Pic Hams, Pork Shoulders, Spare Ribs and Hog Livers? Even a fish wouldn't bite. As to quality, it speaks for itself; again we assure you that you will never be able to buy frozen meat from us, that has probably been in storage for months—you know that kind of quality, if you have been unfortunate enough to have purchased it elsewhere—Never from us.

Now as to this mighty capital and great equipment our competitors prate about—more ink for us—with our smaller capital (but sufficient) and less expensive equipment (but sufficient), coupled with our modern way of doing business—(buying and selling for cash)—we are able to do business at much less expense, so—

WE SELL IT FOR LESS.

Remember, we have our own efficient delivery—No extra charge to you—it is prompt and reliable. Use it. Phone Main 32, ask for Meat Department.
