UNION YOUNG MAN MARRIED.

Frank K. Wilson, son of Judge and Mrs. B. F. Wilson, of Union, and Miss Nell Spangler, of Baker, were married at the Presbyterian parsonage yesterday morning. The bride is a popular young lady of Baker and a graduate of the Baker high school. The groom is of a well known family of Union county. They will make their home on the Wilson farm near Union.

HAINES ADDS SAXAPHONES

Prof. David Haines has a saxophone section to his orchestra which has made it even more popular with the music lovers of the city. This is along the line of progress for the saxophone is now recognized as one of the popular instruments in orchestra work.

WITH MRS. SILVERTHORNE

The Woman's Mission Society of the Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. O. E. Silverthorne, 1809 First street, Friday afternoon at 2:30 promptly.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Jeanette Stoddard spent today visiting friends in Baker.

Mrs. Jane Millerink, of this city, is spending a couple of weeks visiting friends at the Dalles. She left yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith, of this city, have gone east to visit relatives in Wisconsin for a couple of months. They left the first of the week.

Miss Miriam Smith, who had been holidaying in Portland for the past three weeks, returned last night to her home in this city.

Mrs. Oscar Hopper, who has been seriously ill at the Grande Ronde hospital for some time, was reported this afternoon to be considerably improved. The many friends of Mrs. Hopper hope for her early complete recovery.

Geo. T. Mangers, of Union, was a visitor in La Grande today. Mr. Mangers has but recently returned from the service and he was inquiring at the United States Land Office regarding making final proof of his homestead.

J. J. Odale, a former Union young man, passed through town this morning on his way from California to Camp Lewis, to receive his discharge from the service. He visited at the Red Cross canteen while the train stopped here and stated that he expects to return to California to make his home when he gets out of the service. He had been with the army along the Mexican border.

A report has been received that George E. Good, former hotel man of La Grande, is seriously ill at his hotel in Walla Walla.

Manager DeAtley, of the Minnua Lumber Company, motored up from the Minnua today and spent the day in La Grande on business. Mr. DeAtley has in process of construction a new mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bloch arrived a few days ago from Portland and will remain in La Grande for some time. Mr. Bloch's father is ailing and this brings them back to La Grande.

Word was received this morning that Mood Eckley has arrived in New York from France. He is at Camp Mills and expects to be home within two or three weeks. He was a member of the 655th Aero Squadron and has been in the service about fourteen months.

W. P. Walter, who had been residing in La Grande for a short time, with his wife and child, left this morning with them for Pendleton, where they will make their future home. Mr. Walter is county secretary of the Y. M. C. A. and will make Pendleton his headquarters for Eastern Oregon.

It was declared to the Observer today by a faint feminine voice at the other end of a telephone line that "from household evidence of property of O. W. & N. property for R. M. Dolan, delivered at the Elks' Club today, it is a moral certainty that the wedding bells will be ringing for Mr. Dolan in the near future."

First Lieutenant Vernon G. Corkins, who had been spending a brief furlough at his home in Enterprise, was in town last night for a short time, visiting at the home of his friends, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Harworth. Lieut. Corkins was a radio-electrician in the aerial service and was five months in the Spruce division and eight months in France. He is returning to Camp Lewis for his discharge and will then return to his former position in Portland.

O. W. BAND VISITORS TO UNION

The members of the O. W. band drove to Union last night and put on a concert and dance there that were very successful. They had a big crowd whom they succeeded in pleasing very much with their fine music, and the O. W. orchestra supplied the music for the dance after the band concert.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this means of expressing our sincere thanks and appreciation to our many friends and to the I. O. O. F., Rebekah, K. of P. and Pythian Sister lodges for their sympathy and kindness shown us during the illness and death of beloved son and brother. Also for the many beautiful floral offerings.
MR. AND MRS. McCLURE AND FAMILY.

The Hood River Fruit company in 1918 handled a total of 110,000 boxes of fruit, mostly Newtowns and Spitzenbergs.

One killed, 60 injured, property damaged to extent of $21,240, is the Portland record of auto accidents ranging from bent fenders to wrecked cars, or at the rate of nearly 20 a day.

The ice cream sundaes and all kinds of soda water drinks are going rapidly at Silverthorn's fountain. Ice cream cones are still 5c each. Why not try the fresh strawberry sundaes with whipped cream, at their fountain.

FOUR Ls TO HAVE BALL TEAM—DAVID GEDDES RESIGNS—SCHOOL CLOSES WITH A PLAY MAY 16.

PERRY, May 6.—(Special)—Mr. Will Kelly has been up from Portland for the past week visiting with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Pete Hogenson and also with relatives in La Grande.

A number of La Grande sportsmen were whipping the streams near Perry Sunday but with scant success.

Pete Hogenson came up from his work at the lower G. R. Lumber camp Saturday night to make arrangements for moving to the vicinity of his work for the summer. The family will move some time this week.

Leighton Slon and family were visiting with relatives near Sumnerville, Sunday.

A meeting of the local Four L organization was held last Friday evening and committees were appointed to arrange for a base ball team and other amusements for the Four L members.

Geo. Andrews and Lennie Northcott have purchased Chevrolet machines.

Mr. and Mrs. Slon were up from their home near Island City Saturday evening to attend the play.

Extensive improvements are being made in the box factory and the management of the mill are planning to run night shifts for a time in order to use up the logs which are being floated down from the upper camp before they become too water soaked.

The local schools will close May 16 and the teachers are preparing for a program and an exhibit of the pupils' work during the year.

Earl Stoddard made a business trip to Portland the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Alice Sanford and children were down from Hillgard Saturday visiting with Mrs. W. V. Thompson.

Miss Catherine Carr has been unable to attend school for the past few days on account of sickness.

David Geddes, who has been assistant superintendent at the sawmill for several years, has resigned his position and will move to Salt Lake City in a few days. Mr. Geddes is planning to take up his old line of business, that of a traveling salesman. One of his daughters, Nona, is attending the La Grande high school and may remain

R. D. BADE AUTO COMPANY Premier Aluminum Six

General performance of a car is never due to any one thing---It's the proper blending of all qualities.

In the Premier a series of unquestionable virtues are blended.

But all we could say about the Premier would never bring home its goodness, like a demonstration---name your conditions.

Premiers are exceptionally easy riding; economical on gas and oil; light on tires, due to light weight, and the most beautiful car manufactured.

The only car in the world with the C. & H. magnetic gear shift, which insures your life, in changing gears on dangerous hills. If interested arrange for a demonstration. Call either
