

OVER-- OVER THERE

HOME COMING OF OUR BOYS HAS BEEN FITTINGLY OBSERVED

The boys who performed their duties so loyally--learned many lessons from "Uncle Sam."

They learned the value of neatness--regular shaving and the use of high grade toilet goods.

Then there was the lesson of writing faithfully to distant home folks and friends--and the use of the trusty fountain pen.

Many other things could be cited--but suffice it in to say--

HOME TEAMS, WINE FROM BAKER IN FIRST GAME--MUCH NEEDED RAISINS ARRIVE--THE FRUIT INJURED BY FROST

Miss Levern and Miss Perryman teachers of the sixth and seventh grades were initiated into mysteries of the Rebekah lodge at the last meeting. A banquet was held in honor of the new members and a pleasant time was enjoyed.

Mr. Tinney, who came here some time ago for the benefit of his health died at the home of his son James Tinney last Saturday. Mr. Tinney was seventy-five years of age and leaves an aged wife and family to mourn his death.

North Powder came off with flying colors in their first game of base ball. They beat Baker in a score of five to three. A large crowd attended. North Powder goes to Baker for their next game.

Eighth grade pupils are already out of school and enjoying their vacation. Their graduating exercises will be held on Tuesday evening.

People in North Powder were wondering why our genial blacksmith, Mr. White was wearing a big smile and passing out the cigars to all. He informed those inquired that "it was a boy." The young man arrived on May 9th.

Born on May 9th a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. George L. Carne.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brothers died a few days ago from a complication of diseases.

John Fisher made a business trip to Baker the latter part of the week. Dick Richeson, who is deputy assessor for North Powder, and vicinity has nearly completed his job.

Herman White is getting to be the champion chicken raiser in this section. He bought three thousand thoroughbred white leghorn chickens a few weeks ago.

Charlie Fisher is sick with blood poisoning. He was hit by a baseball in his leg and bloodpoisoning followed.

Mr. Stickney who is running the John Shaw ranch reports that he is having to replant lots of his winter wheat.

Mrs. Carl Forsstrom spent the week end at Hot Lake with her husband, who is now at that place recuperating his health.

A bunch of horses got on the railroad track west of town recently and before they could be gotten off the right-of-way four of them were killed by a passing train.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Tibbets of Baker visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Burdette on Sunday.

This vicinity was visited by a nice shower of rain on Sunday afternoon. Fresh strawberries are beginning to come in but they are so high in price ranchers wisher that the government would boost grain another dollar on the bushel.

Owing to the cold nights it is thought that the fruit has been injured a great deal. We hope to have enough for home consumption at least.

GOVERNORS SPEAK SPANISH

Unique Feature of a Reception for men Returning from Service

JUAREZ, Mex., May 15--An American governor talking perfect Castilian Spanish and another speaking what he called "cowpuncher Mexican" was the unique feature of the visit which Governor Thomas E. Campbell, of Arizona and Governor C. A. Larrazolo of New Mexico paid to the military and civil officials of Juarez, during the welcome home celebration in El Paso for Arizona and New Mexico overseas soldiers.

Governor Larrazolo, born in the city of Chihuahua, speaks Spanish with all of the eloquent phrasings of a Spanish don. His formal speeches are especially eloquent and he has the Castilian's gift for coin-ing beautiful phrases and epigrammatic expressions. Governor Campbell, reared on the Arizona range, picked up his Spanish from Mexican vaqueros with whom he rode the range and, while less elegant than the New Mexico governor's is equally expressive.

At the entertainment in their hon-or Governor Larrazolo consented to sing "La Galludrina," the famous Mexican love song, and, not to be outdone, Governor Campbell sang the wailing, flasketto Spanish songs of the Mexican vaquero as he rides the range on stormy nights. Both were greatly appreciated and applauded by the Mexican officials.

The Place You Get Everything You Want Every Day at the Price You Like to Pay.

Good Merchandising---

Some merchants consider the old method of large long credits to their customers, with its sure losses, extra expense and unnecessary service, good merchandising.

WE DON'T

and from the testimony of men high in the modern business world of today, we are right, and from the ever-increasing popularity of our market, we know that we are right.

Quality meats, which we sell for less, is possible because we buy it for cash and sell it for cash; the place where you don't pay the meat bill of some one else, or pay for anything else you don't get. Don't be deceived by the squawk of our competitors--do you think for one second that they would lower a price, or even offer you a bait (which they admit doing) if it wasn't for our activities--YOU KNOW THEY WOULDN'T.

We are setting the pace that they cannot make. If meat is cheaper in La Grande than in any other city in Oregon (and we believe it is) it is us that you can have to thank. WHO DESERVES YOUR PATRONAGE?
