which will long linger in the memories of those who attended.

The afternoon entertainment was arranged by Mrs. T. J. Scroggin. An unexpected treat on the program was a couple of Maypole solos by Miss Lavelle Bristow, of Portland. Miss Bristow has a voice of rare qualities and range. She is a niece of Mrs. T. J. Scroggin and was stopping over for a day's visit in La Grande.

To the following committee workers were due in large part the complete success of the occasion:

Luncheon Committee—Mrs. Donohe and Mrs. Logan.

Program Committee—Mrs. Robt. Exlin, Mrs. Geo. Carney, Mrs. P. A. McDonald.

Music Committee—Mrs. H. S. Brewster, Mrs. Garret Hickland, Mrs. T. J. Scroggin.

Decorations and Autos—Mrs. G. L. Larson and Mrs. A. C. Hampton.

The beautiful programs used for the luncheon were the gifts of Mrs. T. J. Scroggin.

The young ladies who served at the luncheon were Misses Carolyn Palmer, Edith Bragg, Lorna Coolidge, Marcelle Berry, Gladys Curry, Edith Piers, Marjorie Logan and Florence Lynch.

What proved to be a most delightful event, was the annual visit of the ladies of the First M. E. church to the ranch of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark. This event took place on Wednesday, May 21st, when about sixty of the members and friends of the society with well filled baskets, motored to the Clark ranch. Soon after arriving the word was passed that dinner was ready, and all partook and gratefully enjoyed the good things provided. A brief business session was held after dinner, Mrs. S. C. Smith, the president of the society, presided. The rest of the afternoon was spent in singing and a general social time which was greatly enjoyed by all. Besides the members of the society, the following were present and added much to the enjoyment of the occasion: Rev. and Mrs. Leitch of Island City; Rev. Ira R. Aldrich, Dist. Supt. of the La Grande district; J. L. Cramer, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. and Rev. Sherman Hawk, pastor of First M. E. church. Shortly before leaving the ranch, Grandma Wagner, mother of Mrs. Clark, sang one of her old time Methodist songs, which was greatly appreciated and enjoyed by all present.

On Tuesday evening the Ladies' Society of the B. of L. E. & F. entertained the members of Blue Mountain Lodge, No. 348 and their families in Eagles' hall. The program consisted of a vocal solo by Miss Lucille Taylor, accompanied on the violin by Miss Head and Miss Walker on the piano. Miss Velta Cude rendered a piano solo, and a song by a double quartet, members of the Ladies' Society, concluded the program, after which a delicious luncheon was served, followed by dancing. The Ladies' Society of the B. of L. E. & F. was organized a month ago, the following members being elected to serve as officers for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. E. R. Head; vice president, Mrs. J. E. Hillery; past president, Mrs. Ed. Straff; chaplain, Mrs. Wm. McDonald; treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Gore; secretary, Mrs. John Clifford; collector, Mrs. Henry Hickey; warden, Mrs. Jessie Dunreel; conductor, Mrs. F. Barnes; guards, Mrs. Cade and Mrs. Jones; trustees, Mesdames Stover, Collins and Lutz.

A large number of the members of the La Grande Neighborhood Club and other club women of the city heard with much appreciation yesterday afternoon an address by Mrs. Clayton H. Castner, of Hood River. Mrs. Castner, who is president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, gave an illuminating address on the various means which are on the ballot for the special state election June 3, but she spoke with particular reference to the Roosevelt Highway bill, the Six per cent. Tax Limitation Amendment and the Soldiers' and Sailors' bill. Mrs. Castner spoke in the local motion picture theatres during the day also. She will remain in La Grande over today, the guest of Mrs. Fred G. Schille, and tomorrow will leave for Portland.

Captain Carl Stelnic Moore, of the La Grande Hospital Unit, and Miss Wolla Mabel Tuttle, of Ogden, were quietly married at the home of the bride's brother, T. B. Tuttle, near 1-1/2 miles, Friday afternoon, May 23, in a ceremony, which took place at 7 o'clock, was performed by Rev. N. Sherman Hawk, pastor of the First Methodist church, La Grande. Captain and Mrs. Moore left for a month's honeymoon trip. The captain will receive his discharge from the service while they are away and on their return it is expected they will take up their residence in La Grande, where Captain Moore expects to be in the presence of medicine.

Mrs. Charles Castner, state president of the Federation of Women's Clubs, was the guest of honor of a newly appointed luncheon given yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the Palmer hotel by Mrs. O. E. Silverthorn. Covers were laid for fourteen, the guests being the directors of the Neighborhood Club of last year, when Mrs. Silverthorn was president, and the local women who are on state committee, appointed by Mrs. Castner. After the luncheon Mrs. Castner addressed the members of the Neighborhood Club and the other club women.

All Right Here in La Grande. They're—

Hart Schaffner & Marx

Clothes. You saw this sign on this ancient building in Brest, telling you about HART SCHAFFNER & MARX Clothes at home.

When HART SCHAFFNER & MARX placed their signs in the prominent locations in Brest, Bordeaux, St. Nazaire, Nantes and other parts of embarkation in France, they hoped the signs would be more than merely messages that let you boys know you'd find these clothes—stylish, all wool—guaranteed, ready for you when you got home.

You all did see them as more than advertisements, too; they gave you boys a glimpse of "back home" that cheered you.

HART SCHAFFNER & MARX say that if those signs didn't do one other thing than that, they're more than repaid.

You're home, now for good and you'll find the clothes you saw advertised in Brest, right here in our store.
