The FRANKLIN SEDAN

An Economical Car For All-Year Service

When the Franklin Company introduced the modern Sedan type in this country, it was apparent that it would become the logical all-year car.

And so it has.

With its growing popularity, other automobile manufacturers have added this type to their lines until there are now Sedans of almost every make.

But the economy of the Franklin Sedan is not easily copied. Years of experience, alone, have built into the Franklin Sedan, a steady, day-by-day delivery of 18 to 20 miles to the gallon of gasoline—instead of the usual 8.

10,000 miles to the set of tires—instead of the usual 5,000.

And what is more, the Franklin Sedan, unlike the heavy and rigid enclosed cars, is not restricted to city use. Over country roads, it rides as smoothly and safely as a touring car.

Anywhere, any time, the Franklin Sedan is ready to go. Because of Direct Air Cooling it cannot freeze in winter or overheat in summer.

Let us demonstrate this car today. You will then get first-hand knowledge of its fitness and economy.

These 16 Maxwell Trucks

Ran 90,010 Miles; Total Repair Cost, $830.59

It is one thing for a motor truck to show long mileage on gas, oil and tires—and quite another to stay out of the repair shop. Maxwell trucks have become well known for their obvious economy. This deals only with the repair side of the Maxwell.

It is pointed after the second year of returns has come in from a canvass of 10,000 Maxwell owners. The first sixteen trucks examined, showed a mileage of 109,700 at a total repair cost of $313.07.

These sixteen did not do quite so well, yet they hung up the magnificent average of $0.09+ per mile on repairs.

One ran 20,000 miles at a cost of $220. A second, covered 12,400 miles at a cost of $12. A third did 5000 miles at a cost of $13. Another passed 4320 miles without a penny's cost. Still another passed 3000 at no cost. Again a fifth did 2400—and no cost.

It is further proof of the contention that Maxwell trucks are efficient in more ways than one; they run at small cost and it doesn't cost much to keep them running.

A further analysis disclosed 15, 18, 22 miles to the gallon of gas, 20, 25, 27 1/2 gallons to the gallon of oil. And not a single owner among these sixteen hesitated to state he should purchase Maxwells again!

Maxwell is the efficient motor truck. Because it costs its cost in a short time, and saves many a good dollar in freedom from repairs. Price for chassis $1085 & o. b. Detroit.
