LOCAL HAPPENINGS

J. G. Anson, of Tolocaset, spent the day in La Grande on business.

The Loyal Sisters of the Christian church will meet at the church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Leal Russell had returned from Corvallis, where he was attending the O. A. C.

E. A. Hardy, of Elgin, was in the city yesterday, spending the day visiting at the home of his niece, Mrs. Watkins, Cove avenue.

Mrs. Roscoe Neal returned yesterday from Portland, where she had been visiting during the week of the Rose Festival.

Lynn Wright and Park Taylor, of this city, returned home yesterday from Corvallis, having completed their first year's studies at the O. A. C.

Howard Stoddard and Joe Reynolds, students of the O. A. C., arrived in La Grande Sunday from Corvallis. They made the trip home by auto.

Mrs. L. F. Dunn was called to Seattle Sunday morning by news of the serious illness of her father, F. S. Newsum. Mr. Newsum was formerly a resident of La Grande.

Miss Ruina Bacon returned yesterday from the O. A. C. at Corvallis. Miss Bacon graduated from the commerce department of the college this year.

Miss Wythel Wade, who has been attending O. A. C. during the past term, returned to her home near here yesterday. Miss Wade has finished her junior year at the college.

Miss Faye McKinis passed through La Grande yesterday on her way from Salem to her home at Elgin. Miss McKinis had been attending Willamette University during the term just ended.

J. P. Lottridge, of Baker, general manager of the Eastern Oregon Light and Power Company, has been a business visitor in La Grande for the past two or three days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. French, of Elgin, were visitors in La Grande yesterday. They came in Saturday night to meet an orphan boy from a Portland home, whose home and playground this summer is to be the French farm near Elgin.

Mrs. C. M. Dorothy and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. King, of Dayton, Washington, who have been visiting the family of C. D. Putman and also attending the Union stock show, left for home this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Gardiner returned last night from Portland, after spending a few days visiting in the city during the Rose show. They made the journey both ways by motor car. This was the second motor trip the Gardiners have taken to Portland recently, and they report pleasant journeys both times.

Miss Ruth Ghormley, who had been visiting friends in La Grande for a couple of days, left this morning for Wallowa, on her way to a rural school near that town which she will teach during the summer months. Miss Ghormley will make her home with her sister, who lives in the forest range district, in which the school is located.

E. E. Beach, local postmaster, is away at present spending a week's holiday at Eugene and Monmouth. He is visiting his daughter, Mrs. D. J. McAllan, at Eugene, and before returning will go to Monmouth to attend the annual meeting of the Board of Regents of the Monmouth Normal School, of which he is a member.

NOTICE
The films for tonight's show at the Arcade theatre were shipped back by the express company through error and for that reason the advertised picture cannot be given. There will however be a good performance at the play house, but not the regularly advertised film.

Just at Hand
The best oranges are being grown in this section. They are being packed in crates and shipped to the coast. They are the best of the kind and are being sold at a low price. They are being sold at the Arcade theatre.

DECLARES MEAT INJURIOUS
LONDON. (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Meat-eating is injurious to the vitality of the race. Dr. Josiah Oldfield, a London physician told the Fruitation Society the other day.

"In every country," he went on, "where meat-eating is a national habit the birth rate has decreased in the last fifty years. On the other hand, in countries like Bulgaria, Rumania and Serbia, where meat is not a national dietary, the birth rate is high and increasing."

Experiments shows, he said, that meat-eating produced sterility. Eggs today, he remarked, were not as healthy as they should be because hens were over-taxed with egg-producing food, such as fish, blood and meat. He said that in his hospital care was taken that the eggs were laid by fowls which fed naturally on grain or in the fields.

NO SHIPPING AVAILABLE

British Settlers for Canada and Africa Must Wait a Year
LONDON, June 16.—No shipping will be available until the coming autumn to carry British settlers to Canada, South Africa or Rhodesia, says the Overseas settlement office. As autumn is an unsuitable season for landing settlers in Canada, no extensive provision for free passage to former soldiers under the new government proposals is likely to be made until January, says the government agency.

The Overseas settlement office adds that there will be no shipping available to carry settlers from Great Britain to Australia or New Zealand until the beginning of 1920.

LOCALS LIST OF WINS GROWS

start, scoring twice in the second inning. Cove came back with one in the second and one in the third and the game remained a tie until the sixth inning when La Grande scored five runs, while Cove was able to get but three. One more for Scrantons' bunch in the eighth and another in the ninth and another for Cove in the ninth finished the scoring. Both nines played fine ball all the way. The Alexander brothers, for Cove, were particularly efficient with the bat, and only good work by La Grande's field kept them from upsetting the scheme of things. Clark, playing center field for La Grande, made a nice play when he hopped over a wire fence and got the ball in time to catch his man at second. The hit looked like a sure home run until Clarke got busy.

Cove comes back to La Grande next Sunday and if the two teams keep up the work they started yesterday there will be a game that fans will surely come miles to see. This win puts La Grande up into second place in the league race, and Cove met their first defeat. Baker won from North Powder, giving them an equal footing with the locals, so it will be some race from now on.

Among the local men who provided cars to take the La Grande team and rosters to Cove yesterday were Ed. Coolidge, Jay Van Buren, The Wallowa Milling and Grain Co. (Studebaker agency), Maxwell Service Station, La Grande Investment Company, Eastern Oregon Hardware and Implement Company, W. H. Bohnekamp & Co., and Roscoe Neal.

The lineup of the teams in yesterday's game was as follows:
La Grande: Workman, c; Garrity, 3b; La Salle, 2b; Clark, cf; Hickey, ss; Pidgeon, rf; Wood, Clarence, 1b; Price, lf; Woods, Clay, p; Melanis, p; Rosaler.
Cove: Marchison, cf; G. Conley, 3b; Carter, ss; Alexander, Roy, p; Alexander, Ray, lf; Smith, 2b; Meyers, cf; T. Conley, c; Gerber, 1b; Alexander, M., p; Rosaler.

COVE FRUIT OUTLOOK

Following is the estimate of the Cove fruit outlook for the present time by Jud G. Orr, former member of the state horticulture commission: "The cherry crop is about fifty per cent of a full crop—which means between forty and fifty car loads. Peaches are a full crop. Pears I believe are quite badly damaged, but I will not make an estimate on them yet. Prunes are eighty per cent, while apples are practically a full crop."

"The above is my estimate at this time, and I believe is approximately correct."

W. W. HOLLANS HOME

Superintendent W. W. Hollans arrived home this morning from an extended trip into the east during which time he interviewed the heads of departments at Washington, D. C. and New York City.

CROIX DE GUERRE WINNER HERE

H. H. Amell, of Tolocaset, recently returned from overseas service, was a visitor in La Grande today. Mr. Amell was with the Marines, and served through the fighting in the Solomons, St. Michael, Marbache and Meuse-Argonne sectors. For gallantry in action he was awarded the French Croix de guerre, and the medal was presented to him March 23rd last by General LaJeune, of the French army. The medal carries two stars, representing additional citations for bravery. Mr. Amell left his ranch at Tolocaset two years ago to enter the service, and he was eighteen months in France. He has also been recommended for the Distinguished Service Cross.

JUST A BULL

A thorough-bred white-face Hereford bull strolled into town Tuesday afternoon to see the sights. He wandered up Storie street but found nothing that interested him or aroused his curiosity. Then strolling down Main street and looking into the large display window of C. B. Smith & Co.'s store at the fine display of summer hats, he was like the ground hog on the second of the February he saw his shadow, and thinking it another of his sect he at once wanted to start a fight. It had not been for some of the men on the sidewalk nearby he would have dashed through the window at the sign with a red back ground and an American flag on display. He was finally persuaded that he had better go into the summer range, which he finally consented to do. Wallowa Sun.

BABIES AND CAGARIES

A man—just an ordinary fellow—one of the Smiths and Joneses—lost his baby to a doctor. This happened in one of the middle western states, but that doesn't matter, it could have happened anywhere in Stanfield.

The doctor prescribed various things, and the man departed with his baby to a druggist. One of the things he had to buy was a bottle of cod liver oil. There was a war on it, but he thought more of his baby than the tax on the bottle.

Another of the items was six straws—what only babies need—and this also was subject to tax. Again parental affection triumphed over parsimony. He bought it. As he was leaving the store he remembered that he needed a bird for his canary. He asked for some, and was gratified to learn that there was no tax.

On his way home he reflected philosophically—without rancor. Yet he felt mystified. "Babies," he thought, "are penalized in the U. S. A. They are not encouraged to exist. It is more practical to keep a canary than a baby."

Long ago in England a marriage license cost three shillings and sixpence, and a dog tax ten shillings. It cost more to be a dog than a married man. The dog was the aristocrat.

But there was method in this. It is unwise to discourage the marriage ceremony; some people are already too prone to dispense with it. And although dogs are good pets.

With the coming of summer and warm days both freckles and tan must be taken care of. Something in a nice greaseless cream fills the bill and is delightfully cooling and beneficial to the skin, protecting it from the dust and hot winds. Try some of them would be worth money to Mark Bennett. There are congressmen who ought to be writing subtitles for two-reel screems.
