

"Tall Aches From Little Toecorns Grow"

This is not quite the way we used to write it in the old copy book at school, but nevertheless, it clearly expresses the feeling of hundreds of those who suffer untold agony every day with an inextinguishable corn or callous.

To these sufferers, we say, come to us and we will show you an absolutely new method for relieving and curing those ACHEs. It costs only 25c, and we guarantee it to give satisfaction or money refunded.

Our Trouble Shooter

Is on the job all the time constantly endeavoring to improve every department of our business. We try to remember the cuts which each customer prefers, and fill each phone order as carefully as those you order over the counter. Our refrigerating system enables us to carry a large quantity and the same great variety of meats in hot weather as in cold. We are not like the retailer who concluded his speech with "and unscrew the unscrewable," but we can come nearer "pleasing the unpleasable" than the average business concern. Try us and you will find that we make good on everything we claim. We have a complete stock today. Phone us your order early, please.

RAILROAD MAN SPENT SAVINGS

Harrill Suffered Ten Years and Tried Nearly Every Medicine But Nothing Helping Him

"I wish to goodness I had only known about Tanlac before for I'd have saved myself years of suffering and my bank account, would have been a great deal bigger," said C. C. Harrill, a well-known railroad man with the Texas & Pacific, who resides at 509 West Belknap street, Fort Worth, Texas, and who has been a resident in that city for more than thirty years.

"It was about ten years ago," Mr. Harrill continued, "that my troubles began. My appetite failed me and everything I ate did me no good, and I was so weak that I could hardly get my breath. I seemed like there was a big lump right in my chest that was cutting off my breath. I got so I could hardly eat a thing that didn't bring on one of these attacks and sometimes it didn't seem like I would live through them. I tried everything I had ever heard of and spent every cent I had saved for years, trying to get relief but nothing that I took helped me at all.

"I read so much about Tanlac and the good it was doing that I decided to try a bottle. I have now taken four bottles, and can truthfully say that it has entirely relieved my stomach trouble. My appetite is just splendid and everything I eat now agrees with me and does me good and I am never bothered with indigestion or those cramping pains in my stomach or chest anymore. I can eat anything I want and never have a minute's discomfort afterward and I am feeling better in every way than I have for years. Tanlac has sure done the work for me and I gladly recommend it to anyone who has trouble like mine were."

Tanlac is sold in La Grande by Silvertorn and Richardson Drug stores; in Union by L. A. Wright in North Powder by L. A. Russo and in Elgin by Scott E. Harrie and in Telocast by Telocast Grocery Co.—Adv.

Constantinople Populace Pleased By Possibility of U. S. Being Mandatory

By Associated Press to The Observer

PARIS, May 24.—(By Mail.)—The report that the United States has been urged to assume the mandate for Constantinople meets with general approval there, writes an agent of the Red Cross in the Turkish capital. It is welcomed as the ideal remedy for an impossible situation. He adds:

"Whenever an American wanders in Constantinople the Turks, Greeks and Armenians impress it upon the visitor that America will be welcomed with open arms, that America will be trusted. At the Turkish foreign office, the Sublime Porte, there is open satisfaction at the report that America will come in and clean up," the Red Cross man continues.

"The Turk has been quick to appreciate what America has done for his country since the armistice. Everywhere one goes he sees American flags stuck in the bags of rice, of flour and over stacks of canned goods which the street merchants have for sale. The American uniform is not a familiar sight in the streets or shops but wherever an American army officer, Red Cross officer or member of the Near East commission is recognized, Turks go out of their way to express their gratitude for America's prompt dispatch of food ships to Constantinople, which just before the armistice was in a bad way for food.

"At present four high commissioners, British, French, Italian and Greek, are working independently in Constantinople and the two commanding-in-chief, British and French, are doing their best to cooperate but with what success, no one can say.

"The present divided control of Constantinople and the rumors constantly reaching the Turkish capital of dissensions among the Allies in Paris are liable to encourage the Turks to believe that by playing one nation off against the other they can conduct themselves as they see fit.

"Parts of northern Asia Minor do not know of the armistice and the Turks are still terrorizing the Greeks there.

"Turks are surprisingly familiar with the way the American protectorate over Cuba has worked out and prominent Moslems believe that what has been done in the Philippines by America can be duplicated in Turkey.

"Howard Hoops, of Chicago, has indicated that a dozen ships laden with food, clothes, shoes, and agricultural implements. The American Red Cross also is helping the starving, whether they be Greek, Turk or Armenian."

Conference Closes Sunday.

G. Earl Stoddard was elected superintendent of the Sunday schools, which position was formerly filled by Robert E. Baird. Both Mrs. Geddes and Mr. Baird have removed their homes from this district. Mrs. Rosenbaum and Mr. Stoddard will be the supervisors of these two important departments of the church work with jurisdiction over the whole district.

The afternoon meeting yesterday was featured by an address by Elder J. Ballard, on "The Signs of the Times." The musical numbers provided were a special feature of the occasion throughout the convention.

Elder Ballard and Hiram G. Smith left Sunday evening for Portland, where they will remain a couple of days and then return to Baker for a conference which will be held in this city Tuesday.

GOVERNMENT IS READY TO ACT IN MEXICAN AFFAIR

By Associated Press to The Observer

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Recent developments in Mexico have caused a radical change in the United States' attitude, it was authoritatively stated today. "Watchful waiting" has been discarded for "watchful preparedness." The war department is ready to throw a punitive expedition of adequate strength across the border the moment that Villa starts reprisals or any other crisis appears. They would occupy the territory necessary for safety and create a neutral zone south of the line.
