THEA BARR MODEL FOR MADONA STATUE

Thea Barr, the beautiful William Fox star, poses for a statue of the Madonna in her newest super-production, "The Light" at Sherry Theatre last showing today tells the story of the "wickedest woman of Paris," whose beauty makes her the idol of men. While Park is solving strenuously to avoid a great disaster and other women stars and toil for the cause, this woman lives a life of revelry. A sculptor sees her beauty and longs to have her pose for his statue of the Madonna. He feels there must be some grain of goodness behind such a beautiful face. He is right. The wicked woman finally gives up her wealth and ease at duty's call. As she is eloping with an Apache dancer, she sees the sculptor, who has been blinded suddenly. That is the Call. The wicked woman sees the light at last. She sacrifices all and turns her back forever upon frivolity, that she may see him and care for him. Thus she becomes a Madonna.

Also the Pathe Review and a comedy. On Saturday only there will be presented at the Sherry Theatre the 1919 William Fox Extravaganza, "Pan Pan." The same wonderful little Kiddies that created such a sensation in "Jack and the Beanstalk" and "Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp" play the principal role in this colorful and delightful picture of old Japan. So much interest has been displayed in these previous pictures that there is no doubt "Pan Pan" will prove an equally successful one. Pan Pan, a comedy, is being produced by the same little studio which the children gave the opportunity to show their own and personality depicting the manners and customs of Japan. A quaint little Japanese village inhabited by natives in their national costumes and with artistic surroundings, was constructed especially for this production. The settings are without doubt the most gorgeous ever presented in the city.

LOUISE VAZENDA IN EXCELLENT COMEDY

She Has Exceptional Role in "The Village Smithy" When Louise Vazenda, one of the most popular of motion picture comedienne, appears in a comedy, it is to be expected that there will be something doing every minute. This is the case in "The Village Smithy," the new Paramount-Mack Sennel comedy which will be shown at the Apollo Theatre today and tomorrow and in which Miss Vazenda has the leading role.

In this story Louise is a lovable young woman with a large inheritance which she can utilize only on the condition that she marry a certain young man. She is attracted to him but her father, who is a banker, is opposed to the match. When Louise's inheritance is discovered, her father falls in love with her, but Louise is suspicious.

Things go on madly until Chester discovers his mistake, and then Louise ends the affair by marrying the man she really loves. The comedy is a masterpiece of the genre.
