VAUDEVILLE TOMORROW.

A House of Scandals is the photo-comedy that will open the Hippodrome Vaudeville show at the Arcade theatre tomorrow. This is a two reel Fox comedy featuring Tom Mix.

Caesar is a young man who is musically inclined. He presents an amusing and interesting number which he calls "Little Music and Little Jazz," playing a variety of instruments and presenting a program of popular, classic and rag-time and jazz.

Two popular girls are the Misses Janis and Gaffney, natives of the Golden West. They have good voices which are shown to advantage in a routine of sure-fire songs. They also present a number of dance numbers and their entire offering has always pleased their audience.

Boshay and Richmond are a comedy pair presenting an up-to-date offering which they call "Comedy Cut-Ups," consisting of good comedy singing numbers and a bundle of laughs. The male member is one of those slippery comedians, who is here, there, and everywhere, and all over at once, who will hand you oodles of laughs.

Yoe and Coe are two clever gymnasts, who bill themselves as "A Few Hard Bumps." They present a most sensational exhibition of falls and bumps on ground and table, also acrobatic feats that assuredly demonstrate the young lady as an exceedingly clever gymnast. Many new and novel ideas are introduced by this clever team during their offering.

TOOK CHARACTERS FROM LIFE

Well Utilized by D. W. Griffith in "A Romance of Happy Valley."

The characters in "A Romance of Happy Valley" are such persons as D. W. Griffith knew in his boyhood days when he rambled through the valleys of the Ohio River in Kentucky and Indiana and Ohio. Simple folk they are who lived and loved and had their weariness and woes all in one small area.

From the lives of the keeper of the country boarding house, his family and his neighbors, he took less than ten years for his story. With their little schemes and their great sacrifices, with trivial events that drove them to far reaching decisions, with the urge of their lives and its penalties and rewards, he drew the details of the drama. It is so simple it seems a tale about one's neighbors; so forceful it seems all life in one white flame.

It sounds home no propaganda, it thumps no pulpit; it is without sermon or moral, only such as life teaches in its quiet way. The Griffith mastery conceived it, the Griffith artistry produced it, which promises well for "A Romance of Happy Valley." It will be shown at the Arcade theatre on Friday and Saturday.

WALK HAMILTON ADIES

FRESH FARM TO HIS NAME

Little Hamilton, the clever Metro star, with the infectious smile, will be the attraction at the Metro theatre today and tomorrow in the triple bill romantic comedy drama, "Little Man from the West," by Ben Aron. Will Hamilton, published in the All-Star Weekly, has a record of his own well-merited distinction both on the stage and screen.

Born in Chicago, he was educated in the Shattuck Military Academy where he studied law. Upon his graduation, however, he abandoned this profession to get to the stars where he soon rose to fame, attaining special distinction in "The Quick and the Dead," by George Randolph Chester. So great was his success in this production that while playing an engagement in London he was commanded to appear before the House of Commons.

Like all others who have achieved fame on the stage, Mr. Hamilton has turned his attention to the screen and made his debut with Metro.

In the May Allison picture, "The Winning of Beatrice," his adaptability for the screen was apparent from the first and he was made star by Metro in "Five Thousand An Hour," written especially for him by George Randolph Chester. After that he appeared in "Johnny on the Spot," and "That's Good." Mr. Hamilton bids fair to be the man of the hour in film circles and has gained as many admirers on the screen as he had done on the stage.

Also shown the last chapter of the Man of Might. Come and see how it ends.

FRANCISCO VILLA IS A STUDENT OF PHYSICAL CULTURE

EL PASO, Texas, July 22.—Francisco Villa is a physical culture enthusiast. When he was at Villa Ahumada on route to attack Juarez, he was seen by residents of that little town doing sit-ups and exercises every morning in front of the home of Jose Velez, which he had appropriated as his headquarters. After 15 minutes of the rebel leader would run the full length of the main street of Villa Ahumada 20 times to enter the five miles he set his task to himself each day.

"Keep the stomach from getting fat makes taking easier," he said to the interested spectators.

UNION SERVICES ARE ANNOUNCED

EVANGELICAL CHURCHES CITY TO JOIN TOGETHER

Service Will Be Held at Riverside Park Next Sunday Evening and for Five Sundays Following

Announcement was made from the pulpits of the local evangelical churches Sunday of a series of six union services which are to be held at the Riverside Park, conducted on each evening by a local pastor and with music supplied by the Community Chorus. The hot weather has affected the attendance at services in the churches adversely of late and it is believed that by holding the services at the park there will be accomplished at once the object of providing the congregations comfort while they worship and as well the lessening of the burden of the pastor, giving all of them an opportunity to enjoy a brief rest.

No reason is seen by local churchmen why these should not be a splendid series of services. Members of all the congregations concerned have received the idea very cordially and something very tangible and valuable in the way of cooperation between adherents to the various denominations is expected to result. Aside from the opportunity of a holiday which it gives them, the pastors will welcome the arrangement for the opportunity it will give them to get acquainted with the members of congregations other than their own.

The pastors have arranged among themselves to have the service next Sunday evening conducted by Rev. W. H. Smith, pastor of the Methodist church South. The rest of the series of services will be held as follows:

Sunday, August 3rd—"You, Hath God Said;" or "The Devil's First Question," Minister, Rev. R. H. Cole, pastor of the Christian church.

Sunday, August 10th—"Youngmanship Ahoy!" Rev. James Alkin Smith, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

POLICEMEN LOSE REVENUE

LONDON, July 22.—The policemen of the pretty seaside town of Ramsgate are to lose their "pin money." This money has been obtained by walking early risers by a knock at their door or tap at the window.

A "season ticket" system was in force whereby the cost of this service was reduced to two cents a call. The receipts were pooled and shared between the police as "pin money."

Instructions have been issued to the effect that the police must discontinue the service. Old residents resent the new order.

BAKER OPERATORS RETURN TO WORK; SUBS RELEASED

BAKER, Ore., July 22.—After 15 days of mediocre service the local telephone exchange again bears the union stamp and everything is running smoothly once more.

In compliance with instructions from the headquarters of the union, operators and electrical workers returned to work yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, the girls who took their places having been released.

While all of the demands of the operators may not have been met, it is understood that sufficient concessions were granted by the wire board to be satisfactory to a big majority.

DROUGHT DRIVES FAMILIES FROM FARMS TO TOWN

BAKER, Ore., July 22.—Starved after their dry ranches by the severe drought, which has prevailed through out this section, refugees are arriving in Baker for protection.

About 40 have arrived so far, including the children, and they are all in a pitiful condition.

Mrs. J. K. Romig, president of the Social Workers, has been busy the past few days looking after the unfortunates, and providing them with food and clothing.

County Judge Dube and Mayor Gardner have taken the matter in hand and are assisting the victims until the men are able to get employment.

A WANT AD will cost

Sunday, August 17th—"Job's Picture to the Throne He Believed;" Rev. N. Sherman, pastor of the First M. E. church.

Sunday, August 24th—Rev. James Alkin Smith.

Sunday, August 31st—Rev. R. H. Cole.

All the above services will begin at 8 o'clock.

A feature of all the union services will be the musical part. The Community Chorus will sing the hymns and render special numbers but there will also be vocal solo quartets, sextets, etc. The chorus is endeavoring to raise all its members to make an amount of a success of their part of the service as they can possibly do, and they are inviting sinners from all the churches to join with them both at the services and at their regular Sunday evening services, when preparation of music for the services will be made.

To make sure that all children goers and every one is able to attend all these services, arrangements are being made to have the members who have machines pick up as their church those who have none. This will incidentally be an opportunity for motorists to combine an evening's drive and outing with the performance of their Christian duty and so in their ears to the work.

ADVENT OF THE PENNY

The widow's mite or the little copper penny has finally hit this land of "two-bits." But it took a world war and the taxes thereof to bring it into Caucan. The only thing that it will buy is a tobacco that was scarce enough to bring it into the country, and it is more likely that it has come to stay. The Eagle is not going to complain about this insignificant coin, but we are going to state publicly and boldly that we will take any kind of money on subscription account save and except pennies. Pennies are hoarded from the old print shop and when we have to put in time counting them in and out, we are going on a long, long strike.—Blue Mountain Eagle

NEGROES INJURED IN RACE WAR

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Scores of negroes were injured and beaten in mob clashes between negroes and whites. The police said that soldiers, sailors and marines led the disorders.
