

Visited Summit Mt. Emily—
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Blumenstein and daughters, Misses Minnie and Lena, have returned from a trip to the top of Mt. Emily. They were accompanied by J. H. Blumenstein and Miss Mabel Langley of this city. The visitors were very favorably impressed by the grandeur of the scenery. The smoke of rising forest fires obscured the view to some extent but the wonderful Grande Ronde Valley, spread out like a great map 2,000 feet below them, was declared the finest beauty spot they had ever seen in all their travels. The trip included a short stay at the J. H. Blumenstein place and the camp of Fire Warden Courtney. Many interesting pictures were taken at the summit and along the way. All are of the opinion that the trip was worth many times the trouble, exertion and time spent on it.

Capt. D. H. Jesse Returns—
Capt. D. H. Jesse, well known O-W. conductor and trans-fer here, passed through town yesterday on his return from France, where he has been for over a year past. Capt. Jesse was on his way to Pendleton, where his family had made their home during his absence. He was commissioned a first lieutenant shortly after enlisting and gained his captaincy in France, being promoted in the railway transportation service there to the position of director of a terminal district. A large number of local men who were in the service in the engineering corps served under him in France.

Returns from Synod Meeting—
Rev. James Alkin Smith returned Thursday evening from Eugene where he has been attending the meeting of the Synod of Oregon, the annual state meeting of the Presbyterian church. There was an eight day session which proved to be a sort of spiritual chautauqua so greatly enjoyed by all that it was decided to carry out a similar plan next year and to attempt to very largely increase the attendance.
