SALE OF HOUSE DRESSES

This lot of house dresses were left over from a special sale a few weeks ago and we are offering the remainder of the stock at the same price now. Only a limited number, so get your's first, $1.39.

$1.39

MEN.

This week we received twelve new Waist-Seam models in HART SCHAFFNER & MARX Varsity Fifty-Five Suits—When we say they're made by Hart Schaffner & Marx, that's enough about the quality. The colors are mostly mixtures of greens and browns.

See the few in our window—there are more inside, at $45.00 and $50.00. We invite you to inspect them.

New YARNS

For your Sweaters—the right colors in the right yarn—Fleischer's—pink, wild rose, coral, yellow and peacock are the colors. Price 40c skein.

A New One For Fall

This is a Beaver Brown, high Louis heel and long narrow vamp, of very fine grade kid, blind eyelet; the top is slightly higher than those of last fall or last spring, due to the fact that all restrictions on shoes were lifted. This is one of our prettiest fall styles. Price $14.

DURING AUGUST—

Watch our ads for arrivals of NEW FALL MERCHANDISE—be on hand to see it unpacked. We like to have you there to see each new garment as it comes direct from the factory.

Even jazz must have its day. Then, maybe, after awhile, we shall hear the faint, small voice of real music once more.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The pastor has returned home and will occupy the pulpit Sunday morning. The theme of the sermon will be "The Great Overtures." This is a timely topic dealing with the great world movements of the past and present.

HE WAS A STRANGER, THEY TOOK HIM IN; ALAS! 'TIS EVER THUS

Is the stranger ever safe? Every one is a stranger outside his own little circle of acquaintance, yet a stranger generally seems to be commoner legitimate prey for tricks and wiles and questionable practices, one to be treated with suspicion and coldness.

Always society apparently has considered the stranger in the same light. The "Pharisees are infamous for their treatment of the unknown traveler in Biblical days; and the modernist and middle prosper: "He was a stranger and I took him in," has been largely followed by the popular and slangy interpretation of the phrase "took him in."

It was in the plight of a stranger that David W. Griffith found one of the most impressive and vivid climaxes in his second Artcraft production, "A Romance of Happy Valley," which will be shown at the Arcade theatre today and tomorrow.

The wrongs visited upon the stranger even by those kind, honest and considerate towards those they know, have afforded abundant material for the dramatist, but in the hands of Mr. Griffith the situation has assumed a new effectiveness. It is doubtful if in all drama and literature there is a meeting with more suspense, more thrills and greater surprise than those attending the coming of the stranger to Happy Valley. Persons who are inconsiderate of strangers will never forget it, and after all, that about means everyone, doesn't it?
