Equally charming in all its appointments, as was the first one was the second bridge party, with which Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe entertained recently, honoring her sister Mrs. H. M. Ruby and her daughter, Miss Maud MacGregor, of Golden, Colorado, who are house guests of Colonel and Mrs. Ivanhoe. High honors were awarded Mrs. Delle Green, while one of the honor guests, Mrs. Ruby, held second place. Delicious refreshments, charmingly served were enjoyed following the game.

One of the events of the season will be a delightful informal dancing party given by the younger set at the park next Tuesday evening. The personnel includes: The Misses Dorothy Meyers, Leona Newlin, Mary Newlin, Minna Ash, Bessie Allinson, Stella Desilet, Margaret Corbett, Helen Currey, Inez Knowles, Charlotte Jones, Helen Sims, Hene Pearce, Wilma Oesterling, Roma Jacobson, and Mrs. Charles Binger and Mrs. Clarence Charbonneau.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Zurbrick entertained the Clio Club at their attractive home on Main avenue Wednesday night. Six tables of bridge were arranged and Hal Bohnenkamp carried away the honors. Baskets of sweet peas in pastel shades and graceful gladiolas were effectively used about the rooms. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bay, Miss Maud MacGregor, of Denver, Colo., Mr. Charles Harding and Dr. Landis, of Seattle.

Levi A. Duker and Emil Plumridge were married at the M. E.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stoddard and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stoddard and family, Mr. and Mrs. David Stoddard and family, Miss Jeanette Stoddard, Miss Helen Thomas, Miss Nettie Adams and John Stoddard left yesterday afternoon for an auto trip to Mr. Rainier, where the men of the party will attend a lumbermen's convention. They will be gone for a couple of weeks. Mr. and Mrs. David Stoddard will stop over in Portland a couple of days, where they will purchase a new car and join the party later.

La-Grande friends of Henry McCaffery, well known member of O. W. Superintendent Bollons' staff, welcomed him home yesterday with his bride, who was formerly Miss Winnifred English, of Goodmayes, Essex, England. They arrived from Portland on No. 6 after an extensive honeymoon trip. Mr. McCaffery met his bride at New York city on her arrival from England and they were married in that city July 12. Returning west, they spent some time in Colorado, and then went on through to Portland to spend a couple of days. They will take up housekeeping here.

Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe was hostess last Saturday night at a party, given in honor of Mrs. H. N. Rubey and her daughter, who are visiting here from Golden City, Colorado. About twenty-four enjoyed Mrs. Ivanhoe's hospitality. The evening was topped off with dainty refreshments.

Parsonage yesterday at 11:30 o'clock Rev. N. Sherman Hawk officiating. Mr. Duker is a farmer whose home is between Cove and Union and the bride has been a resident of Weiser Idaho.

Dr. and Mrs. Ray F. Murphy and Mrs. Murphy's brother, Mr. J. Roland Griffith, of Kansas City, Mo., leave today to motor to Nestucca Bay. They intend staying for a couple of weeks.

A very enjoyable evening was spent last Friday evening, when Mrs. H. H. Grady entertained four tables at cards, in honor of Miss Bessie Allinson. At a suitable hour dainty refreshments were served.

Miss Evelyn Lilly, of Baker, is the guest of Mrs. Staincamp and Mrs. Lindsay, of Island City, for a few days.

Miss Catherine Lindsay, of Spokane, Wash., is spending a short time in the district, being the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Lindsay, of Island City.

The Misses Lena Robertson, Mary Gruppe and Hene Pearce left yesterday afternoon for Baker to stay over Sunday.

Mrs. Storey and daughter, Nellie, arrived in the city a few days ago to visit with friends and relatives. They will return to their home in Toppenish, Wash., in a few weeks.

A party of young people expect to leave this morning for a motor trip to Fisher's Springs to enjoy a swim in the natorium there. They will return tomorrow evening.
