MRS. BURNETT ONE OF THE BEST KNOWN AUTHORS

Her Novel, "The Secret Garden," Filmed for Lilla Lee.

Frances Hodgson Burnett, who wrote "The Secret Garden," the new Paramount picture in which Lilla Lee is to be seen at the Arcade theaters. This story only has been one of the most popular of novelists wherever English is spoken, for thirty years. "The Secret Garden" is one of her most popular recent stories. It now buys its readers by the millions and it has been translated into several foreign languages. It is an entrancing story and its success in book form has been more than duplicated on the screen.

Mrs. Burnett, who also wrote "Little Lord Fauntleroy" and other successful, consider "The Secret Garden" her finest story. The dramatization was made by Marion Fairfax while G. Burch Clough directed. An excellent cast supports the star.

THIEVES STEAL HOUSE

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 29 — Thieves recently drove up to a four-room house at Temple avenue and Broadway in Long Beach, loaded the house on two motor trucks and drove away. No trace of the dwelling has been discovered by the police.

SPOKANE IS MEETING PLACE OF LAWYERS

SPOKANE, Wash., July 28 — Three days of addresses and entertainments are planned for members of the Washington State Bar association, which will meet here July 31 for its annual convention. Visiting attorneys are to be the guests of the Spokane County Bar association during the meeting.

Former United States Senator Geo. Turner of this city will deliver one of the principal addresses of the session on "The German peace treaty," and Attorney Carol B. Graves of Seattle will reply to Judge Turner, speaking in criticism of the treaty. James H. Lawson of Vancouver, B. C., will speak on "The Taxation System of Canada," and James T. Rogers, an attorney of New York, will address the convention.

J. B. Bridges of Aberdeen state supreme judge will respond to the address of welcome which will be delivered by Joseph McCarthy, president of the Spokane County Bar association, and C. O. Bates of Tacoma will deliver the president's address. Frederick Bauman of Seattle, former state supreme judge, will deliver a eulogy of the late D. C. Hughes of Seattle.

A "high links" has been arranged at the University club here for one evening of the meeting and a banquet at the Spokane club will occur on another. The final day of the convention will be taken up with an automobile trip to Hayden lake, Ida., for a picnic.

WILL SEND TEACHERS ON TRANSPORT

HONOLULU, T. H. June 26 — (By Mail) — Private airplane lines fall in proper accommodations for 125 people. The plane is now to come from the mainland to the west two months to take in Hawaii. It will, "Give me the world," McCarthy will appeal to the state department to have them brought on an army transport. Passenger stickers are being made for months ahead, but last night were made in accordance with the leaders, who services are greatly needed by the department of public education.

WITCHCRAFT AMONG INDIANS

JUNEAU, Alaska, June 11 — (By Mail) — Witchcraft, it appears, and is practiced by some tribes of Alaska-Indians. The latest example, has come to light in the arrest of the heads of the tribe of Bess Lake Indians, who are said to be the average native in intelligence and physical endowment.

Cause for the arrest, it is learned was the action of the Indians in tying a girl of sixteen, a member of the tribe, to a tree by the hair of her head and with her hands behind her back. A small boy was found loose to wander in the timber. When rescued a few days later the little fellow's face was raw from insect bites and the girl in various conditions. The children were taken to Telegraph creek to be cared for and the men of the tribe responsible for the cruelty arrested.

FRENCH ENGINEERS MAKE INSPECTION

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 29 — Twelve engineers sent to this country by the French government to make a survey of water and electrical projects to obtain ideas to be used in the reconstruction of France have been inspecting power plants in California. The engineers also are studying the electrification of steam railroads.

Major, H. L. Augland, M. Manduit, M. Paradi, and M. Barillot, members of the party, said the French government was determined that in the rebuilding of France only the most modern ideas should be used.

REMODELING LARGE VINEYARD

ONTARIO, Cal., July 29 — What is claimed to be the largest vineyard in the world, owned by H. H. Frost, Jr., of Los Angeles and located 25 miles north of here, has been converted into a fruit ranch. The 400-acre tract of land will be irrigated and set out to walnut and fruit trees, according to Mr. Frost who recently announced the completion of the planting of four wells on the ranch with a capacity of 13,000,000 gallons.

More than a year ago, in anticipation of prohibition, trees were set out among the vine grapes on the land. Now these grapes are being taken out entirely.

TIRE CONSERVATION—

is important. It is made possible by vulcanizing which prolongs the life of old, worn tires and tubes and avoids the necessity of buying new ones at frequent intervals. Our vulcanizers are especially skilled experts in tire conservation. If it is at all possible to save that tire, we can do it.
