A report from Oregon City tells of the remarkable success of a farmer in that locality.
Coming to this county from Chicago 12 years ago, with nothing except his two good arms to make a living, Anton Souvinski settled in the Highland neighborhood on a small rented farm. By hard work and thrifty methods, Souvinski yesterday sold his farm for $6500. The land was sold to John Gross of Twin Falls, Idaho, who will move to this county and operate the farm besides getting $6500 for the land. Mr. Souvinski will realize about $4,000 more from the sale of the stock

A Dream---

A lady told her husband
She had had an AWFUL dream,
And that it did affect her,
For it made her feel REAL MEAN.

She dreamed about the Hooverized Store—
That it had moved away;
She thought of the high prices
She then would have to pay!

Then hubby said, "Don't worry, dear,
That store will NEVER quit,
For they've saved the public 'thousands,'
That ne'er no one dare deny."

We know our stocks do quickly "move,"
For we do save you more
On everything you eat and drink,
At this big, double daylight store—
"The Busy Store for More."
