that A. H. Woods has produced a screen version of this American masterpiece. It is figured roughly that, in all, about ten or twelve million persons will watch it on the silver screen.

The estimate includes a large percentage of those who witnessed the stage presentation and naturally will be curious to see how more fully it may be done on the screen, and millions of moving picture lovers who are alert for the coming of a really imposing feature. "Columbo Clay" is one of these and care was taken to surround Miss Ward by a most capable cast of specially selected players.

The star and her support under the skilled direction of George Fitzmaurice combined in making a perfect performance, rich in faithful character, study, human feeling and human feeling and compelling emotional appeal.

The general consensus is that this screen version of the American masterpiece, which will be shown at the Sherry Theatre last time is a gripping, absorbing sensational play.

DIVORCE TANGLES WOMAN'S PROBLEMS

Because the divorce laws in the United States are not uniform, many difficulties arise. A man or woman who obtains a divorce in one state may be considered still legally married in another.

But international divorce is beset with even more difficulties. Six years ago May Gantz, an American girl, went abroad to study art. In Berlin she married Hugo Fuhrman, a German. Recently she tried to return to this country, and was told that she must stay in Germany because her marriage had made her a German citizen.

As her patriotism was stronger than the marriage tie, the young woman divorced her German husband. So she became an American citizen once more, only to be sent to a prison camp at Barnstable because she was an American.

Often, however, the divorce laws are used to further the aims of scheming men and women. They seem to present little difficulty to those who deliberately abuse them. Such is the case in "The Divorce Trap," a William Fox photoplay in which an innocent woman caught in the coils of a divorce case, so cleverly does her husband come to case again her that all the odds seem to point in his favor. Gladys Brockwell is the heroine of "The Divorce Trap," which will be shown at Sherry's tomorrow only, also at Arbuckle and Pitt and Jeff.

"Soon after my husband's death 3 years ago I was taken with typhoid fever. Since then have suffered from stomach and liver trouble and constipation. I have doctor'd and a great deal without benefit. Since taking May's Wonderful Remedy three months ago my bowels have moved regularly and I am feeling well again. I am now a happy woman." ### MODART CORSETS Front Laced

WHY LOOK OLDER THAN YOU ARE?

It is astonishing how many women through lack of attention are wearing corsets that give a more mature appearance to the figure than it should have, and consequently they appear to be five or ten years older than they are.

It is possible to readily improve that condition if you will come to our corset department and get a trial fitting of the MODART front laced corset.

MILLIONS OF FOLLOWERS

It is estimated that "Common Clay," the Harvard prize play by Cleves Kinkaid, in which Jane Cowl achieved one of her most notable successes, has been witnessed by more than five million persons. Under the direction of A. H. Woods, it ran for a full year as a Broadway attraction, playing to the capacity of the house. During the three years following it was interpreted by six companies throughout the United States and Canada and everywhere attracted large audiences. Now mouse Players-Lasky, Corporation at No. 485 fifth Avenue, New York, Jesse L. Lasky, a famous producer, indorsed it as being one of the best pictures ever exhibited. Mr. Faversham was present, together with his wife, whose stage name is Julia Opp, and Maxine Elliott, the famous actress-manager.

"It is a remarkable picture," said Mr. Lasky, "for in no particular has it been overdone. Mr. Mantle, the scenarist, and Mr. Irving, the director, have done wonders with the story, a masterpiece in itself, but all too easy for less competent hands to ruin in transferring it to the screen. Mr. Faversham and Miss Clafferton are superb and I failed to find a flaw in the work of any supporting player. As a Paramount Afterart Special "The Silver King" is certain to raise still higher the standard of this series which we determined would be the best that money and the development of photodramatic art could provide."

"The Silver King" will be shown at the Arcade theatre today and tomorrow together with a new two reel Mack Sennett comedy called "Cupid's Day Off."

To give you an idea of the strength of the organization, the Fred Siegel Stock Co. has in the past two seasons played engagements as follows: Thirty weeks at Boise, Idaho; Forty-two weeks at El Paso, Texas; twenty weeks at Phoenix, Arizona; and twenty weeks at Salt Lake City, Utah.
