

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Joseph Folks Seek New Home—Mr. and Mrs. John J. McClain and son, Jeanne, were visitors this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Niederer, La Grande. Mrs. McClain and Mrs. Niederer are sisters. The McClains left Tuesday morning, accompanied by Miss Esther Niederer, on a motor trip to Huntington, Seattle and Portland. They have sold their farm at Joseph and are looking for a good wheat ranch. If they do not find land that suits them on this trip they intend to go to California.

Has Everbearing Berries—L. Orton, the owner of a place near the oil tanks, has a patch of ever-bearing strawberries of which he is justly proud. A few boxes of the berries reached the Observer office today and they in every way fill all the claims made for them as to general superiority and the fact that they grow through more than half the year is a recommendation not to be overlooked.

Married This Afternoon—At the parsonage of the First M. E. Church August 7, 1919 a 12:30 o'clock, Charles G. Dobson and Elizabeth Flower, both of La Grande, were united in marriage. The principals were accompanied by E. H. DeLong and E. N. Bushnell. Rev. N. Sherman Hawk officiated. The couple will continue to reside in the city.

Home From Portland—Mrs. C. H. Bidwell, accompanied by her two nieces, Miss Iela and Virginia Bryant arrived home a few days ago from Portland and near by coast points. Miss Iela Bryant has been attending summer school in Portland, while Mrs. Bidwell and Miss Virginia Bryant were at the coast.

Home From Portland—Mrs. M. J. Colk and children, Virginia, Jannia, John and Leal Crane, arrived in the city this morning on No. 6, from Portland, to visit with Mrs. Colk's sister, Mrs. Ed Anderson on First street. They will remain here for several weeks.

Practices Dentistry in Alaska—Dr. E. Mulholland, of Juneau, Alaska, was in the city yesterday, enjoying a session in the chair of his old-time friend, Dr. H. S. Brownson. Dr. Mulholland, who is also a member of the dental profession, came south with his wife a couple of weeks ago to visit old friends at Union, where Mrs. Mulholland's parents formerly resided. The doctor says that while winters are the style all summer at Juneau, the winters are much the same as they are here. 12 degrees above zero was the lowest temperature Juneau saw last winter.

Making Picnic Arrangements—J. T. Ridenour, O.-W. shop foreman, and J. C. Murphy, president of the Central Labor Council of La Grande, left this morning for Joseph to make all necessary arrangements for the visit of the several hundred O.-W. employes and their wives and families on a picnic expedition Sunday, August 17th. The picnic is to be held at Wallowa Lake, a few miles from Joseph. They are expected to return to La Grande this evening.

Band Men Asked to Meet—All members of the O.-W. band are asked to meet at Rex Hall Sunday morning at 11:45 sharp, to be ready to meet the special train arriving from Enterprise, conveying the Enterprise ball players and fans. The train is expected to arrive at 12:00 o'clock, noon, and the band will welcome them at the depot.

Is on Way to The Valley—L. J. Allen, of the O. A. C., head of the boys' and girls' industrial club work for the state, is here today on his way back to the Wallamette valley. Mr. Allen came in last night from Baker county, where he had been working for a few days.

Larsen Wins Singles Honors—Ted Larsen last night won the senior singles championship in the Y. M. C. A. tennis tournament. M. F. Boice defaulted his match with Larsen, who then played J. L. Cramer, following the latter's entry into the finals through his defeat of W. H. Short.

County Agent Head Is Here—F. L. Ballard, of Corvallis, is in the city today paying a visit to County Agriculturist Spillman. Mr. Ballard has charge of the county agents in Eastern Oregon.

BIRTH RECORD.
Born, to Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mulhall, August 7, a pair of twin boys, weighing eight and nine pounds, respectively. Mr. Mulhall has charge of the barns at the Palmer mill.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Porter, of 1309 Y avenue, a 10-pound son, August 6.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Carpenter, of 2404 North Birch street, an eight-pound daughter, August 5. Both mother and daughter are doing well.

Magazine Gun Teeth.
The elephant has what a dentist calls "magazine gun teeth" because of the curious fact that when the big pachyderm wears off a front tooth it is replaced by the one just behind it, the whole row moving up a tooth. It is said this takes place continually, so Jumbo always is guaranteed a set of teeth, no matter how many he wears out.

Song: Remarkable Sighting.
A play was being given by a group of soldiers, the hero of which was to shoot blank cartridges at a row of bottles standing on a shelf, while another soldier, well concealed, was to break each bottle in turn with the point of his bayonet, thus pretending that the hero was shooting the bottles. Through some misunderstanding the hero started shooting at the wrong end of the row, while at the other end the bottles were being broken.

Well Improved Farm

I have a splendid 160-acre farm. The improvements are high class, the land is exceptionally good; in addition to several springs, the land is naturally sub-irrigated; a good family orchard. Come in and see a photograph of the house, you will then want to see the two large barns and other out-buildings. $7000 cash will put you in possession. Purchaser may secure a Federal loan to the amount of $8000 or more and the owner will take a second mortgage for the balance, to run for six years. The price for this splendid farm is $20,000.
