Spooky for Buddy.

Joe is the spookiest in automobile parlance. His baby brother was beginning to wobble and wobbled considerably. One day Joe dashed into the kitchen shouting, "Oh, fun, come quick and see Buddy wobbling."

Not to Forget Sweetstuffs.

Not to forget sweets within its own borders and to protect itself from outside sources are a slight improvement, so that country is in a position of almost absolute dependence on imports for its sweetening materials.

Incredible.

Wise men say that if we could see ourselves as others see us, we would believe it.—The Bins.

Interviewing the Minister.

My brother was married young and felt embarrassed. He went to interview the minister relative to the ceremony, and after much stammering and many blunders, managed this surprising request: "Will you come up to the house and marry me and another girl?"—Chicago Tribune.

Good Law for Germany.

The Dolbeek law, which became effective in Germany early in 1914, provides for Germans obtaining their allegiance to Germany while becoming citizens of the United States or any other country. In granting the new citizenship a German subject, if it suits him, continues his German citizenship and allegiance in Germany according to this law.

The Telltale Thumb.

It is a well-known fact among nerve specialists that by an examination of the thumb they can tell if the patient is affected, or likely to be affected, by paralysis or, at least, the thumb will indicate this long before there is an ailment of the disease in any other part of the system.

Optimistic Thought.

Spread the table and contentment will come.

Wisdom in Quotation.

Bartlett, in his "Familiar Quotations," gives the following: "We read of a certain Roman emperor who built a magnificent palace. In laying the foundation, the workmen discovered a golden sarcophagus ornamented with three circlets, on which were inscribed: 'I have expended; I have given; I have lost; I have possessed; I do possess; I have lost; I am punished. What I formerly expended, I now; what I gave away, I have;—Gesta Romanorum, Tale XVI."

Reasoning From History.

Little Edward's twin sisters were being christened. Ed went well until Edward saw the water in the font. Then he anxiously turned to his mother and exclaimed: "Ma, which one are you going to keep?"—Lionel (London).

Floor and Walls.

The choice of floor covering is affected by so many conditions that it is not easy to lay down any definite rules as guides. Hugs and carpets should always be as inconspicuous as possible. They must blend with the walls and furnishings or in otherwise beautiful rooms will prove unpleasant to live in. The less pronounced the floor of the room, the better and more restful the combined effect.

Knew What He Meant.

My three year old boy noticed all the others on leaving the party speak to their hostess, so when his turn came he looked up with a most engaging smile and said, "Haven't we had a terrible time?"—Exchange.

MAZOLA

The perfect oil for cooking and salads

FREE Every housewife should have a copy of the interesting 66-page Corn Products Book, beautifully illustrated and full of information for good cooking. Write today for it.

Remarkable Economy!

MAZOLA is used over and over again without transmitting flavors or odors from one food to another. It is not absorbed into foods.

And remember—Mazola is equal to butter for cooking, better and more wholesome than lard and compounds and you use 1/4 to 1/2 less Mazola for shortening, as in pie crusts, etc.
