their rest to the staff of men. "The Spear of Malice" will be on view at Sherry's Theatre at 10:30 and tomorrow where future episodes of "Perils of Thunder Mountain" will be shown on Tuesday and Wednesday of every week.

SCENES IN L'EMPIREY TAKEN IN SANTA CRUZ

Many of the beauties of the tropical island of Santa Cruz will be seen in "Blackie's Redemption," the latest Metro production in which Bert Lyell is starred and which will be shown at the Sherry theatre today and tomorrow.

The picture shows the rugged coast and much of the magnificent grandeur of the interior of the island. Scenes of this kind were necessary to the production as, in the latter part of the story, when the beautiful romance of the play comes to a happy ending, Blackie, played by Mr. Lyell, and Mary Dawson, the girl of his heart, go to a tropical island for their long-deferred honeymoon.

The picture is replete with unusual and exciting scenes that end in a startling and surprising climax.

GREAT MENAGERIE WITH THE HAGENBECK-WALLACE CIRCUS

Hagenbeck-Wallace circus has a well-celled to its in its menagerie. Carl Hagenbeck, the noted animal man, was the first person who ever succeeded in breaking and taming wild animals for a public performance. He started the capital of Europe half a century ago with his intelligent, but uncutting, sense. At such world's fairs that have been held in the United States in the past 50 years, the Carl Hagenbeck wild animals have always furnished the stellar attraction.

But the Hagenbeck animals only form one department of the combined shows. The Coast Wallace Circus still excels as the highest class circus in the world. The performance is given in three rings and on two elevated stages. More than 250 noted artists that represent almost every country on the globe will be seen with the Hagenbeck-Wallace circus in La Grande, on Tuesday, August 20, for two performances.

FOUR ACT VAUDEVILLE SHOW TOMORROW.

Sergei Cedric Lindsay opens the Hippodrome Vaudeville show at the Arcade tomorrow with an unusual talking, gymnastic and acrobatic dancing novelty. He does some sensational balancing with his cigar boxes and his acrobatic dancing and balancing are apparently the easiest thing in the world to do—for Cedric Lindsay.

Billy Star and Evalynne present a comedy skit and talking offering which they call "At the Bal-Masque". The male member is a character comedian and has a good singing voice, singing several popular songs; the female assists him in the double numbers. It is laughable offering and has always proven an entertaining number.

The La Moy Sisters are two charming young misses who offer a singing and piano act that will appeal to all lovers of good vaudeville. Both girls possess good voices and are talented pianists. They play and sing both high class and ragtime numbers equally well.

Mapeo and Louise offer some whirlwind comedy that is hard to beat. Their talk is new and up-to-date and the man of the act has an original way of working that shows he knows how to handle the comedy. This young couple have one of the funniest and snappiest acts of its kind and their billing "The Jazz Duo" was well picked.

A two reel Tom Mix called "Tom and Jerry Mix" will also be presented on the same program and Lindsay's Jazz Orchestra will present some new and snappy numbers.

NIGHTMARE

Did You Ever Wake Up in the Middle of the Night with Snoring Drums and Screeching Locomotives? Doing the Buny Hng Right on Your Solar Plexus?

If so you can imagine how John Daryl felt one night when awakened from peaceful slumbers to see a dreadful sight, popularly known as a howl. Kuffs, descending seemingly from nowhere to place him through the heart.

This is one of the countless thrilling scenes in "The Spear of Malice," first episode of the new Vitaphone serial, "Perils of Thunder Mountain" in which Antonio Moreno and Carol Holloway are jointly starred. The fact that this dread public weapon seems bent on forcing its way into the hero's heart without a human hand to guide it, so that the intended victim can only clutch the slippery blade and thus earn what strength he can, which, lying on his back is little enough, to avert death, furnishes a real mystery. What or who is it that seeks the life of John Davis—and whose? You must see this episode to get an inkling of the strangest circumstances that ever beset a hero to mine and millions. This is a story of the West, with the strength of the righteous pitted against the cupidity of the evil, and with a primitive daughter of the mining settlements to add fur-
