Upton H. Gibbs, who was formerly with the Episcopal church of this city, has dropped the title of reverend and is now running the East Clackamas News at Estacada. He has the following to say of one of La Grande's most popular young ladies who was recently married here: We were surprised last Thursday morning while busily engaged in one of the runs of press day to have Mr. R. Alpaugh, of Eagle Creek, come in and inform us that someone wished to see us. On going out to his car, we saw his new daughter-in-law, the bride of his son Ernest Lewis Alpaugh. We would have been more astonished if we had not just received the announcement of their nuptials. We have known the bride, who was Miss Dora Van Fleet, for many years in La Grande, from the time when she ran around with her hair down in a long braid. It was a great pleasure and we felt it an honor, that she stopped to see us. Our hands were black with printer's ink, but she insisted on shaking them nevertheless. The groom is to be heartily congratulated for winning such a charming prize for his matrimonial career, and we charge him solemnly to love and cherish her so she will never regret her giving herself to him. The young couple will make their future home at The Dalles.

Miss Zella Elizabeth Switzer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Switzer, and Robert Danc, of East End, Saskatchewan, will be united in marriage in a pretty home wedding at the family residence, 906 Pennsylvania avenue, this evening at 10 o'clock. Rev. N. Sherman Hawk, of the M. E. Church, will officiate. Only relatives and a very few intimate friends of the bride will be present. Preceding the ceremony, Stuart Bennett will sing "Because I Love You." Miss Enid Switzer, sister of the bride, will act as bridesmaid. Dressed in pink, she will carry a bouquet of pink and white sweet peas. The bride's dress will be of white georgette, satin and lace and her veil will be caught with real orange blossoms. The bride's bouquet will be of pink roses. Edward Keckritz, of Union, will attend the groom. After a wedding supper, the young couple will leave on a honeymoon to Portland, Seaside, Spokane and Glacier Park. They will make their future home in East End, Saskatchewan, where Mr. Danc is engaged in the mercantile business.

Miss Bessie May Ellsworth, of La Grande, and Henry Pieper, of Sumnerville, were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the M. E. parsonage. Rev. N. Sherman Hawk officiated at the marriage.

Complimenting Miss Zella Switzer, bride elect, the Misses Sarah and Miriam Smith entertained three tables of five hundred most delightfully on Friday evening. Lovely white and pink sweet peas decked the rooms. High honors at cards went to Mrs. H. E. Dixon and the honor guest, Miss Switzer. Those enjoying the Misses Smith's hospitality were the Misses Zella and Enid Switzer, Hilda Anthony, Runa Bacon, Ruth Ghorncley, Carol Curry and Mesdames Gus Levy, H. E. Dixon, James Bennett, L. J. Bennett, W. D. McMillan and Lowell Williamson. Light refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. David B. Hill are planning to leave here tomorrow evening for Hot Lake, where they will be guests of Dr. William Phy, proprietor and manager of the resort. They expect to spend the night at Dr. Phy's cabin in the mountains, and on Saturday will return to Hot Lake and join Dr. Ray Murphy, and as his guests will go for a trip to Wallowa lake and Salmon river. Dr. and Mrs. Hill expect to return here Monday night.—Pendleton Tribune.

A number of friends surprised Mrs. C. L. Scott last Sunday by bringing their lunch baskets and helping her celebrate her birthday with a picnic dinner and supper, thus making the day a most enjoyable one.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. West and four sons, of Montana, Mr. and Mrs. Watts and children, Mr. Alfa, Miss Jrdth, Max Guy and little Letha, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Daugherty and children, of Baker, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Carnes and daughter, Joe Eeddes and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Scott. After having such a good time, all departed in the evening wishing Mrs. Scott many more happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hampton and Mrs. Hampton's sister, Miss Angela Bowler, of La Grande, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merle R. Chessman. Mr. Hampton, who is superintendent of schools in his home city, goes to Portland and Salem on school business and will return here Sunday, the party returning home that evening.—Pendleton Tribune.

Mrs. Frank Franzler, of Pendleton, arrived in La Grande yesterday for a week's visit to her sister, Mrs. Jap H. Stevens, and her father, "Uncle" George Webb.

A quiet wedding took place Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hansen, 307 Fourth street, when their daughter, Vera, and Franklin Hamlin, were united in marriage by Rev. N. S. Hawk, of the M. E. church. Only a few intimate friends and relatives were present. After the ceremony refreshments were served from a beautifully decorated table. The bride was gowned in crepe de chine veiled with silk net. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hamlin, recently returned from France, where he spent sixteen months as a member of the 32nd division. He was wounded in the Argonne woods the day before the signing of the armistice. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamlin will make their home in La Grande.

A miscellaneous shower was tendered Miss Florence Burnett, bride elect, at her home in Island City, Monday evening. After the gifts had been showered on Miss Burnett, among which there were many beautiful and useful presents, refreshments were served. Miss Burnett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Burnett, of Island City, and will be married on August 24 to Otto Pieber, formerly of La Grande but now of Starkey. Those present at the shower were the Misses Lois and Virginia Bryant, Leta Kiddle, Ella Milenburgh, Lorene Smith, Ruth Whitmore, Eula and Jean Smith, and Mesdames Nellie Smith, Lee Smith, Dolly Smith, Maud Bosquet and W. S. Burnett, of La Grande.

An enjoyable picnic party was held at the Jerry Veach home at the foot of Mt. Emily, Tuesday evening when several auto loads of townspeople loaded up their baskets and motored to the cold spring on the Veach place to cook their supper and spend the evening. Those who composed the merry party were Mr. and Mrs. Jim McKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. McDonald and daughter, Helen, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Veach and daughter, Joy, Mr. Alex Campbell and son, Byron, and daughter, Naomi, and the Misses Mary, Chrystie, Kate, Belle and Etta Campbell.

The floor of Rex hall was crowded with dancers Thursday evening when the Musicians' union gave their dance. Good music throughout the evening, furnished by two orchestras, one striking up when the other stopped, called forth the dancing spirit in everyone, and all enjoyed themselves to the utmost until a late hour.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bowler, of Salt Lake City, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Larsen entertained at a delightful dancing party on Saturday evening, August 16. Twelve couples enjoyed Mr. and Mrs. Larsen's hospitality and light refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Complimenting Mrs. George Curry, who is visiting here from Vale, Miss Helen Curry entertained a few friends on Friday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in needlework after which appropriate refreshments were served.

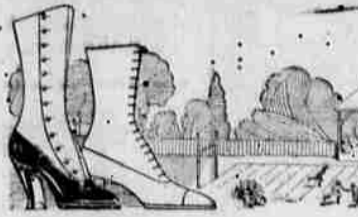

Mrs. Fred Kiddle delightfully entertained the Bridge Club at her Island City home on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. W. R. Jones received high honors. Light refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

GERALDINE FARRAR AMAZING IN NEW TRIUMPH "SHADOWS."
International Celebrity Sparkles in Casual Role in Picture Coming To Sherry's Theatre

Geraldine Farrar in an Alaskan dance hall! It remained for Goldwyn to place the vivid, electric personality of the international celebrity in this unusual environment.

Everyone who knows her in opera or on the screen will want to see the diva in a role far more unusual than "The Hell Cat," more absorbingly dramatic than in "The Turn of the

Blouses

That are New in Our Ready-to-Wear.

Perhaps some of the newest things we can show you are these beautiful Blouses of Georgette and Marquisette; also the new Smocks you have noticed in our window during the past few days. All are very attractively trimmed with Silk Braid and Embroidery. We invite your inspection now, while they are new. Each one a distinctive model.

Men!

We have new Silk Shirts now, in striped patterns; a very attractive pattern, with wide stripes of Blue, Tan or Green; of very heavy Tub Silk; all sizes. Priced $10.00 and $12.00.

Wheel, and absolutely unlike anything she has ever done in lyric drama.

Yes! "Shadows", her new Goldwyn Picture, is not an Alaskan story. Geraldine Farrar does not appear in the tawdry finery of a dance hall girl. She is a New York society woman, opulent in her attire, superb up her poise and spotless reputation. One of the most adroit twists in the plot of "Shadows" lies in the logical introduction of the star into sordid Alaskan life.

Once more Geraldine Farrar promises to amaze when "Shadows" is presented at Sherry's Theatre today and tomorrow.

Also the "Katzenjammer Kids."

ANNOUNCEMENT

With complete assortments, worthy of Fifth Avenue's most exclusive shops, we invite the ladies of La Grande to see these first displays of COATS, SUITS AND DRESSES Meeting every demand of fashion and reflecting the matchless skill of clever designers and expert tailors.

There are suits of French Serge, Serge, Tricotine, Duvelin, Velour, Poplin and Wool Mixtures—and decidedly DISTINCTIVE. Every woman likes to feel that the lines of her suit bespeak individuality, and that is one important factor among these suits. They are priced at $50.00 to $110.00.

The Coats we are showing are in a variety of new materials, constructed to fit every figure. Some of the very newest models are among these first arrivals, and the women who want to be distinctively dressed is sure to be pleased with these coats.

Among the new Silk and Wool Dresses you will find almost everything one could wish to see. Dresses of Georgette, Tricotette, Pontillette, and Jersey, besides the ever-popular Serges and Wool Fabrics. Some are prettily embroidered, while others are quite attractive in their material themselves. The prices range from $30 to $75.

We invite inspection of these at all times, and we want you to call every few days, as each express brings more for our ready-to-wear department. Our salespeople will enthusiastically show every garment without hint of purchase. We particularly wish you to realize what a splendid stock we are bringing together.
