Hill's Department Store

year was completed Wednesday when a 220-acre tract adjoining Vale, the property of Leonard Cole and Emory Cole, was sold to J. H. Russell, of Vale and Dr. Frank Hall, of Illinois. This ranch has recently been occupied by Lloyd Cranford, and is considered a very fine piece of property. The consideration for the same being $24,000.

Voting $2 to 1 in favor of a bond issue of $20,000 for the construction of a city water system the people of Stanfield took one of the most important steps in the history of the town.

Former soldiers' sailors and marines from every section of Oregon will gather in Portland on September 17 and 18 for the first state convention of the American Legion, the national organization of the men who fought in the great war.

Between 60,000 and 70,000 Rain-bow trout fry were distributed in Mill creek, between Salem and Terry from the state fish and game commission's fishery. Local sportsmen assisted in the distribution.

Today was a day of fast time for the big Delacelland forest patrol planes. Probably the fastest time yet made in Oregon was the trip of Lieutenant Rice, carrying two members of the patrol personnel and some pieces of baggage, from Eugene to Salem in 33 minutes. The distance is 70 miles air line, making the flight at the rate of 125 miles an hour.

George Hoskins, aged 96, of Tillamook, took his first ride in an airplane Sunday. Hoskins is one of the oldest, if not the oldest man in the state. "It was real nice, smooth riding," he said.

Two Classes of Snobs. You who are ashamed of your poverty, and blush for your calling, are a snob; as are you who boast of your pedigree, or are proud of your wealth.—Thackeray.

The Trouble With Them. "Some families," said Uncle Eben, "would be a whole lot happier if they didn't keep tryin' to put too much jazz in 'Home, Sweet Home'."

Optimistic Thought. We have many days for thanksgiving in our pilgrimage.

A young boy whose dramatic ability was greater than her personal attractions called for a longer message with the view of obtaining a part. The manager chaffed about the matter and looked to a woman, sitting up with "Beauty" in a woman who brains are to a goal. "There's only one thing more valuable to a man than brains," said the young lady, "what's that?"—said the manager, "That's what you say."

In a Quandary. A charming hostess, who was entertaining a party of children, observed one little fellow staring in a corner apparently lost in thought. "What are you thinking about, Harry?" "Mother told me not to take two oranges," piped the little host, "and I was thinking I would be mighty rich if I got one."

To Clean Brown Leather Bags. Brown leather bags may be cleaned by rubbing on a thick lather of pure white soap. Apply it with a sponge, rub hard, let it remain on a few minutes, then wipe dry with flannel cloth and polish with vasoline; rub this in with bare hand; rub very hard; don't use too much and wipe it off well and your bag will look nice.

Escaped Mutilation. "It's a mighty good thing," said Uncle Eben, "dat de Ten Commandments was handed down direct, instead of been 'lilled to go through de hands of a lot of committees."

Or the Monday Blues. The office boy has made a careful canvass of all the motion picture show musicians and reports that he is unable to learn who composed the cash rag.

WOULD ALL WOMEN DO AS THE WIFE IN HIGH SOCIETY DID?

Cecil B. DeMill's New Picture "Don't Change Your Husband" a Psychological Study

Suppose a beautiful and refined woman, with romance as one of the compelling motives of her life; a husband who is generous in business, unintentionally neglectful and inclined to coarseness.

Then imagine a handsome, dashing, naive, romantic and convincing young man who appreciates the situation and is overwhelmed by his admiration for the wife.

Suppose the wife, swayed by the fine speeches and the result of odious comparisons, leaving her husband and marrying the interloper, who is at best a trifler.

Then consider her position when the second spouse proves selfish, inclined to stray—while, meantime, the first husband reforms, becomes as good as a pin and saves her from a disastrous situation as the result of another woman's entrance into No. 2's affections.

What would the wife do? Go back to No. 1? To find the answer to this question, the public is referred to Cecil B. De Mill's newest special

MODART CORSETS

Front Laced

WHY LOOK OLDER THAN YOU ARE?

It is astonishing how many women through lack of attention are wearing corsets that give a more mature appearance to the figure than it should have, and consequently they appear to be five or ten years older than they are.

It is possible to readily improve that condition if you will come to our corset department and get a trial fitting of the MODART front laced corset.

"DON'T CHANGE YOUR HUSBAND"

Cecil B. DeMill has done it again. He has put married life in a show window, with all its heartaches, misunderstandings, with all its joys and genuine beauty.

—Mighty men of untold wealth listen attentively when he cares to speak. But his wife sniffs his onion-laden breath, and gasps for air.

Did you see "Old Wives For New?" Then you can have a good laugh on "Baby" when you see "Don't Change Your Husband."

"Sa Camille" is superior to any other front lace corset, for without the Verily features no corset can possibly be just as good. It contains the master touch of scientific construction.

You do not sacrifice comfort for style and you do not sacrifice style for comfort when you wear
