FRANK KEENAN AT THE SHERRY THEATRE
Frank Keenan, America's greatest character actor comes to the screen at the Sherry Theatre, last showing today in an adaptation of Edward Peple's Broadway stage success, "The Silver Girl." One of the most vivid and compelling portrayals of Keenan's whole career, is the manner in which several reviewers have characterized his impersonation of Jefferson Hunter, the rugged Nevada miner, whose chivalrous and abiding love for one woman leads him willingly into the shadow of supreme sacrifice.
The conceded perfection of this picture is due to the fact that Mr. Keenan, an adept through years of continuous service in stage-craft and screen-craft, besides playing the principal role in the story, personally directed it. The result is perfectly harmonious action and a sense of completeness which disarms criticism. The Western scenes give the feeling of the great outdoors and of the life of the men who delve in the earth for treasure. It is a clean-cut story of the Hell-Rim Basin of Nevada; of strenuous toil and the love romance that grew between the Girl and the Man who came to her at a time she needed a friend to protect her inheritance.
Also a comedy and Pathé Review with some more of the wonderful slow photography.

Just What She Needed
"I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets some time ago and they proved to be just what I needed," writes Mrs. Voyta Bankson, Chillicothe, Mo. "They not only relieved me of indigestion but toned up my liver and rid me of backache and dizziness that I had been subject to for some time. They did me a world of good and I will always speak a good word for them."—Adv.

MODART CORSETS
Front Laced

WHY LOOK OLDER THAN YOU ARE?
It is astonishing how many women through lack of attention are wearing corsets that give a more mature appearance to the figure than it should have, and consequently they appear to be five or ten years older than they are.
It is possible to readily improve that condition if you will come to our corset department and get a trial fitting of the MODART front laced corset.

CHAPLIN DOES "HIGHBROW" DANCES IN NEW PRODUCTION

Charlie Chaplin "expresses himself" in the new aesthetic dances, which are quite the thing in the most artistic circles, in "Sunbyside," his third million dollar picture, released by First National, which will be shown at the Star Theatre, commencing Saturday and Sunday. The manner in which Charlie gets in with a group of beautiful and scantily draped young girls which are engaged in this sort of dance is quite Chaplinesque.

Such a thing as riding a cow is "almost" never attempted in the country even by the boy and girl who take the cows out to pasture and bring them back at night. But Charlie attempts this when he tries to induce a cow to leave the church in which the bossy has been breaking up meeting.

Landing in a ditch on his head, the little comedian goes into a state of coma wherein he "sees things." While these are imaginary to him, on the screen they seem real enough, and the sight of Charlie barleesquing the serious sort of dance which St. Denis and Hoffmann, and other less famous give, surrounded by beautiful young girls, bare of limbs, furnishes a most onerous combination.

After this little diversion Charlie settles down to his real problem in the picture, that of sav-

Aunt Jemima Pancake Flour

Pancakes all America loves

No wonder these pancakes have become America's favorite breakfast! One taste will tell you why.

It makes your mouth water just to look at them—they're so nice and brown. Then you eat them—and find them so tender your forks cut through the whole pile. But it's when you taste them—taste that rich, delicate flavor—that you'll never be satisfied with ordinary pancakes again!

Ask your grocer for a package of Aunt Jemima's Pancake Flour. It's all ready mixed (even sweet milk is in it)—you just add water. Learn why so many millions of Aunt Jemima's breakfast are enjoyed every year! Use it for delicious muffins, too!

"LOOKS JUST LIKE NEW"

Vulcanizing, like cobbling, depends for its success upon the skill of the operator, not upon the materials used. A poor shoe-maker and a bungling vulcanizer can spoil good materials. We absolutely guarantee first class work and will turn out a vulcanized tire "just like new." We have never yet spoiled a "shoe."
