HAD TO SEND FOR MOTHER

Mrs. Gist Suffered Complete Breakdown—Gains 33 Pounds Taking Tanlac

"When I began taking Tanlac I weighed just one hundred pounds, and after finishing four bottles of the medicine I now weigh one hundred and thirty-three," said Mrs. Myrtle L. Gist, residing at 326 Chestnut Ave., South Pasadena, Los Angeles, Cal. Mrs. Gist is the wife of a well known member of the Los Angeles Police force and her improvement since taking Tanlac has created a good deal of favorable comment among her neighbors and friends.

"But making me gain thirty-three pounds isn't all Tanlac did for me," continued Mrs. Gist as she told of the wonderful change. "I had been in a dreadfully run down condition for three years and finally suffered a complete physical breakdown. I had no appetite and the little I ate didn't agree with me. I was dreadfully nervous I could get no restful sleep and would often lie away all night long worrying over my condition. Practically all my strength left me and I lost weight until I was almost a shadow.

"My condition finally got so bad they sent for my mother in Oregon to come here and stay with me and when she got here I was down in bed hardly able to raise my head from the pillow. Mother said she had several friends in Oregon who had taken Tanlac with wonderful results and she got me a bottle of the medicine. It seemed to help me from the very start and in a few days I started to get hungry. Then I began eating nourishing food and could feel my strength rapidly returning. I began to sleep soundly and would wake up in the mornings feeling rested and refreshed and I soon was able to walk about the house. I improved every day and now I feel simply fine, have a splendid appetite and can eat just anything I want and enjoy it without any bad after effects. As I said before, I have actually gained thirty-three pounds and for the first time in many months I am able to do my own housework without any trouble. I now feel so happy over my wonderful improvement that I just get out in the yard with my two children and romp and play with them and enjoy it thoroughly. I will never cease praising Tanlac for the wonderful change it has brought in my life."

Tanlac is sold in La Grande by Silverthorn & Richardson Drug Store; in Union, by L. A. Wright; in North Powder, by L. A. Russell; in Elgin, by Scott E. Harris, and in Telocaset, by Telocaset Grocery Co.—Adv.

"Campholatum" is just the thing for tan, sunburns, rough or cracked lips, sore throat, cold on the chest, boils and such complaints. It is sold only at Silverthorn's and warranted by them.

"SPOTLIGHT SADIE," POWERFUL MAE MARSH PICTURE

Mae Marsh in what is by all odds her best role is the promise made by Goldwyn when she comes in "Spotlight Sadie" to the Sherry theatre today only.

The unique star is given the opportunity to tighten her hold on the heartstrings of those who love her, by reason of a role that no other actress could handle as Mae Marsh does. All those qualities which first brought her fame she displays with compelling effect. And the story of "Spotlight Sadie" is one calculated to enarouse and [illegible] for. It is torn from the book of life.

There have been thousands of girls who came from the Emerald Isle to seek fortune in America, and thousands of such girls who drifted finally to the stage. In the new Goldwyn Picture there is no suggestion of the popular fable of the unknown amateur who becomes a star overnight. Strictly realistic are all the theater scenes in the new Mae Marsh offering.

A wonderful romance runs through the story and an odd instance of how an innocent girl may be legitimately exploited until she comes to realize just how serious any deception is—this is the foundation of the new play. Laughter, tender smiles, a tear now and then with a [illegible] climax, make up the unmatched success of "Spotlight Sadie."

A comedy also shown.

ANITA STEWART'S SECOND SPECIAL FEATURE IS NOVEL STORY OF MYSTERY AND LOVE

In Character of Marie, a Hotel Maid, Whose Hands Are Velvet She is Puzzling Enigmas

Local theatre patrons will find a great difference in the story of "A Midnight Romance," second of the Anita Stewart special productions, to be shown at the Arcade theatre today and tomorrow, and that of her superb attraction, "Virtuous Wives."

In her latest offering to motion picture fans in La Grande, she essays a role the exact opposite in its social position, refinement and ambition to that of her characterization of Ann Forrester in Owen Johnson's story. In "A Midnight Romance" she plays the part of a hotel maid, who is a mystery to everyone with whom she comes in contact.

Known to the housekeeper of the hotel only as one of the passengers rescued from a stranded ocean liner that had gone aground near the big summer resort, Marie begins her first day's work in the cotton livery of a maid by running headlong into romance. Two society crooks have selected the object of Marie's affections as their victim. In the succeeding action Marie innocently is made the victim of their conspiracy to compromise young Roger Sloan as the preliminary to a blackmail scheme.

By sacrificing herself and running the risk of being discovered by those who were seeking her, she saves Sloan and disappears. Where and how he finds her again constitutes a novel story of mystery, love and strong story of mystery, love and fast moving action.
