State News

Eugene's growth is illustrated by the city electric office having 300 more people on their record than they have ever before had. So great is the demand for residences in Eugene, that electricians have been called to "cut in" in numerous old houses that had long ago been abandoned.

Compilation and indexing of the house and senate journal for the 1919 session of the state legislature has been completed, and is now in the hands of the printers. Copies of the journal will probably be ready for distribution to members of the legislature not later than October 15.
