

MENS CLOTHES for WOMEN

Get us right on this. We don't mean that women wear these clothes, but we would like the women to help the men make their selections. Women are better judges of values than men. Women know materials and recognize good workmanship. We know that our clothes are good. If we didn't we wouldn't make this suggestion.

FILM HAS BACKGROUND FULL OF CHEERFULNESS

Douglas Fairbank's new Atterday photoplay, "The Kulkorbocker Buckaroo," which will be shown at the Arcade Theatre today and tomorrow is laid in bright cheerful interiors. He had an idealistic Mexican town built in preference to the typical setting that usually depicts ruggedness and filth on the part of the natives and is bound to be distasteful to screen patrons. This town was erected on the side of a California hill, vivid with colorful touches that are pleasing and automatically have a lift on the action of the play.

The new picture is said to be headed an original constructive philosophy, not of a purely nature, but treated in a comedy-dramatic spirit. Fairbanks believed that the people of America like to laugh. He likes to laugh. It braces him up and makes him feel fine and keeps him in prime mental condition. To him, laughter is a necessity. His nervous system requires it, and it is the object of his new picture to make everybody laugh, with the hope that it will bring a happy moment to those who know for the most part only sorrow and disaster.

GRIPPING BATTLE FIGHT ON SCREEN

"Just Snow," the gripping western drama, starring Bent St. Michel, is a story of life in the primitive—red blood and snow—in which the elemental primordial passions of red men strive for mastery. It stirs the emotions, permeating, gripping by its verities and thrilling by its tremendous climaxes. There have been many big screen fights, but among them the death struggle of "Just Snow" is the half-breed fight. The fight is one of the best of all time, with realistic and pitiful details.

minutes without interruption, and there is action every moment. Both Robinson and Morrison were covered with blood at the finish of the fight, and were stiff and sore for days after getting on the scene.

What is different about Crisco fried goods

They are not greasy!
They taste better!
They are wholesome!

THREE SIZES, SMALL—MEDIUM—LARGE

Crisco is simply a solid white cream of choice Vegetable Oils—clean—pure—odorless and with no suggestion of greasiness. It does not smoke. It does not burn and is used for all kinds of cooking.

Doughnuts especially, taste better because you get only the full, rich flavors that you have stirred into the dough. Try Crisco and you'll use no other cooking fat.
