FOR STYLE! FOR QUALITY! FOR VALUE!

Uncle Sam's Advice On Clothes

When you set out to buy clothes, says the United States Government, go with a definite purpose. To get all-wool fabrics, smart style, good tailoring, genuine value—that's a purpose Uncle Sam would certainly approve. And that is the very purpose these Kirschbaum Clothes are made to fill.

MARGUERITE CLARK HAS FINE SUPPORT

Excellent Cast Chosen For "Men and a Girl" Nottable support has been provided for Marguerite Clark in her new Paramount photoplay, "Men and a Girl," which will be shown at the Arca Theatre Friday and Saturday. The leading man is Richard Barthelmess, one of the most talented screen players in the country, who has been seen to excellent advantage in many of Miss Clark's picture successes.

Percy Marshall, a widely known player, has a strong role while Jerome Patrick, who played in "The Three Bears," the story of which has been pictured for Miss Clark, has a splendid part. Others in the cast include Ida Darling, Charles Craig, Sydney D'Albrook, Betty Hutton and Maggie H. Fisher. The scenario was written by Eve Unsell and Marshall Nolan was the director.

The story deals with the trials of a trio of women haters who are at their pretensions are false when they meet Sylvia Weston, the role assumed by Marguerite Clark. The picture is one of unusual interest and displays Miss Clark at her best.

PARENTS OF MANY CHILDREN ARE LOST

Red Cross Workers in Poland Search Daily for Those Driven Away By Germans.

WARSAW, Oct. 5.—(By Mail.)—Names and faces of streams of returning refugees are being eagerly scanned by Red Cross workers in every city of Poland each day in search for the parents of ten thousand unclaimed children, lost in the chaos of the German drive of 1918.

Every day, from among the starved ranks of the wanderers, some worn woman or broken father clasps the thin wall from whom they were mercilessly torn almost three years ago—a reunion that takes place as often as not in some Red Cross refugee station. There are thousands who will never be claimed, for their parents, driven away when the Germans came, found only temporary safety in Russia where they were caught in the web of anarchy and suffered death in the days of Russian terror.

All of the children are now under the care of the American Red Cross and such supplies as are available have been devoted to their needs. But for the thousands who will never again be united with their parents, more than temporary aid is needed. Some permanent institutional scheme will have to be devised, but this must wait more normal times than the present. Unless rescued from actual starvation and nakedness and mothered by the outside world, until they are strong again, these children will bear the marks of war for the rest of their lives. Asemia, rickets, tuberculosis and kindred diseases, fast becoming chronic, will forever handicap them.

WARRIOR ON RACES DECEASED IN ENGLAND

Correspondence of the Associated Press. LONDON, Sept. 22.—There is more betting than ever on horse racing, throughout England, according to one of the leading London book-making firms, as though every one was trying to make up for the wartime period when racing as well as betting was suspended.

"It is not only that more people are betting," said "the head of the concern" but they are wagering larger sums. The small man who used to have his "tuner" on a race now risks his shilling or half crown, while the clubman who formerly was content to wager a sovereign now bets a liver.

"I have been in business for 25 years, and I have never made such books as this year over the Derby and other classics.

"Another claim about present day betting," continued the bookmaker, "is the number of women who back horses. Fifteen years ago I don't think we had a dozen women customers. Now we have hundreds. I don't know where they get information, but some of the biggest checks we have drawn this year have been for women.

"They nearly always pay too, when they lose. Of course, we get an occasional defaulter, as we do among our men customers. But take them all around they are just as sporting over the business as any of the men we have on our books."

H. B. WARNER AT STAR THEATRE TODAY

The elusive mystery of India, the home of the poppy, the mystic, the magician and the beautiful Nautch-Girl dancer, is strikingly portrayed in "For A Woman's Honor," H. B. Warner's new production that will be shown at the Star theatre today and tomorrow.

Extraordinary care has been taken and no expense has been spared in making this production colorful and convincing in atmosphere. The town of Nampur, with its crooked streets, quaint houses, picturesque bazaars and wine-shops, with its swarming crowds of Hindus and their paraphernalia of Oriental impediments, camels, goats and donkeys, is a striking graphic scene.

In the native wine-shop Nautch-girls are dancing to a weird concatenation of Oriental music, for the entertainment of a heterogeneous gathering of cosmopolitan rascals and adventurers and curious tourists.

The dance of the Nautch-Girl in this scene is a realistic performance and leaves little to the imagination.

In this wine-shop some of the most significant action of the drama takes place. Debendra Nath, a wily Oriental smuggler of opium, inveigles a young Englishman into his nefarious schemes and shows him subtle ways of Oriental dissipation unknown to the average Occidental.
