

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS
In Siberia.

Possibly the most important Red Cross work in Siberia, and one which most demands the continuance of operations there, is the campaign against typhus. Over a stretch of 4,000 miles the American Red Cross has fought the scourge. Here is seen "The Great White Train," an anti-typhus institution which, with its crew of doctors and nurses and cargoes of drugs, food and cleansing apparatus, has saved the lives of thousands.

Too Big a Word for David.
David is a little boy five years old, and a patient of Sunnyside. He always watches the nurse very closely when she takes his temperature, pulse, and respiration. One day he was lying in bed with his chest bare, watching him breathe. "What are you doing, David?" asked the nurse as she came upon him suddenly. "Why, I am watching myself get well," was his reply.—Indianapolis News.

No Disgrace to Be Hypnotized.
An idiot or a person without considerable ability in concentrating his mind can not be hypnotized. The fact that one has been hypnotized is proof that he can hold his mind on one subject. It is, therefore, not to his discredit, but rather the contrary.

Evil.
If evil is inevitable, how are the wicked accountable? Nay, why do we call men wicked at all? Evil is inevitable, but it is also remediable.—Horace Mann.

Wives for Colonists.
In 1921 on August 21 a cargo consisting of marriageable women was consigned at London to the colony of Virginia. The market price of these ladies, eleven maids and one widow, was set at 120 pounds of the best leaf tobacco for each maid. No reduction in price was mentioned for the widow.

Georgia Led in Local Option.
The first local option legislation for the suppression of the liquor traffic was enacted in Georgia in 1833.

An Objection.
When I was at my cousin's wedding everything was going along very nicely. Just after the minister said "Hast any one any objection to these two being wed?" my baby brother cried out "Da, da."—Exchange.

It All Depends.
Ardent Wooer—"Do you think that money is necessary to happiness?" Demure Damsel—"Not if one has unlimited credit."
