PUBLIC SALE OF SHORT HORNS

WILL BE HELD IN LA GRANDE SATURDAY, OCTOBER 25

Eight of the Leading Breeders of Eastern Oregon Are Consigning To This Sale.

A public auction sale of registered Shorthorn cattle bred in eastern Oregon is scheduled for La Grande on Saturday, October 25, and the readers of this paper who are interested in the breed are cordially invited to attend. Before the sale one of the best authorities on Shorthorns in the west will line them up in their respective classes and judge them for first, second and third honors.

Eight of the leading breeders of Eastern Oregon are consigning to the bred individuals. There will be sold a total of 25 head, 23 of them being bulls and the remainder females.

This sale presents a grand opportunity for the farmer who likes livestock and who desires to produce the kind that will give him personal satisfaction as well as to make a fine profit on them. The animals are backed by blood lines that have made the Shorthorn breed popular. The individuality of the animals sent into the sale ring speaks for itself. It will be no disappointment to any lover of the breed. If you are interested in Shorthorns, plan to attend the show and sale.

The breeders who consign are W. O. Cummings, Mt. Vernon; W. J. Townley, Hot Lake; W. J. Green, Union; W. W. Green, Union; G. G. Taal, La Grande; Davis Bros., North Powder; G. W. DeLay, Hot Lake; Mrs. C. E. Jacobson, Union.

Paul H. Spillman, county agricultural agent, La Grande, is sending out the sale catalogue. If you have not received a copy, write him for one at once as the time before the sale is short.

Frank Brown, of Clatsop, Oregon, field man for the American Shorthorn Breeders Association, is also among the sale. Col. Harry C. Drake, the well known livestock raiser, is to be at the sale.

Trick Hair.
My little brother, Bobby, always liked to have Mr. L.— call, because he could perform an act which amazed as well as amused him greatly—wiggle his hair. One evening, during such a performance, Bobby said wistfully, "You can wiggle your sister can take hers clear off and lay it on the bureau, and I can't do a thing with mine."—Chicago Tribune.

Beech Valuable in Medicine.
The beech, which is found in the temperate zone in Europe, America and Asia, is valuable in medicine for the creosote distilled from its tar. Creosote, creosote carbonate and gualacol are medicines used to supplement the hygienic measures which have done so much to reduce the death rate in sufferers from pulmonary tuberculosis.

A Friendly Errand.
A small Scottish boy entered a tobacconist's, and with the air of an amateur placed a penny on the counter and requested a packet of cigarettes. The tobacconist, after viewing the youth and said: "Aye" and buy a "smoker" took his departure, and in about five minutes returned with a paper bag, which he held up to the shopman, saying: "Here, mister, here's yer scots, and gie's me cigarettes!"

Privileged Characters.
The old saying "a bull in a china shop" is not an idle one when the bull referred to is one of the tribe of sacred cattle of India. In the streets of Calcutta members of the sacred herd roam at will. In the eyes of the orthodox Hindu it is sacrilegious to interfere with the cattle's liberty, even when it takes them into the city shops and crowded bazaars.

Sugar in India.
The small East Indian sugar grower makes no white sugar, but simply boils down the juice and does not remove the molasses. The dark brown product is called gur or gul, and is generally sold and consumed without refining, although in some parts of the country a certain amount of modern sugar production is carried on.

Placing the Responsibility.
"When things are going good financially I notice men always say 'Fine!' when you ask them how they are," observes R. W. Moorhead of Sabetha. "But when finances look a little dark, ask how he is. The usual answer is 'Old woman's growling' or 'Children mighty poorly.'"—Kansas City Star.

Prettily Described.
Junior, describing a beautiful, chubby little girl with two dimples in her cheeks, and also in her fat little arms, said: "Oh, daddy, you should have seen her. The smile it grewed right on her face, and even her arms have got little smiles on 'em!"

With Her "Brood."
Ida heard her aunt speak of the little chickens that were following a hen as a brood. A new neighbor moved next door to Ida with five children. Ida saw them following their mother about the back yard, and she said to her mother: "See the lady with her brood of children following her."

Vision.
A man's vision is ever greater than his achievement; and literature reflects not so much a man's deed, as the spirit that animates him; not the poor thing that he does, but rather the splendid thing that he ever hopes to do.—Andrew Lang.

Big Yield of Bone.
The largest yield of bone from a single whale was taken in 1883 and amounted to 3,110 pounds.

General Grant Know.
To Joannie Hopkins: "Yes, you are right. Soldiers always grow tired of beans as a steady diet. We think it was General Grant who said: 'Let us have peas.'"—Arkansas Thomas Cat.

The Horse in Scripture.
Sacred story has not forgotten the horse. There we are told of the "pale horse whose name is Death," the horse to whose "strength" we are not to "trust," the "horsemen and chariots" of Pharaoh, with thousands of others too numerous to mention. In the pages of the Scriptures alone the horse occupies a goodly place.

States With Spanish Names.
The following state names are of Spanish derivation: California—hot furnace; Colorado—color red; Florida—land of flowers; Nevada—snow covered; Oregon—wild marjoram.

Coming and Going.
An electric trolley on a shallow French canal has propellers on both ends and is driven either by storage batteries or power obtained from an overhead wire.

Siamese Object to Walking.
The Siamese, above all nations in the world, hate to walk. No such mode of progression is tolerated by a Siamese if he or she can by any means ride. A Venetian gondolier will walk sometimes, even a Hollander will ride on his rough cart, but a Bangkok man—not if he can help it. His family boat for him.

Optimistic Thought.
Titles may be purchased, but virtue is the only coin that makes the bargain valid.
