The Charles Reynolds home was the scene of a pretty party Monday evening, when Mrs. Charles Reynolds and Mrs. Lee Reynolds invited in seventeen of the most intimate friends of Miss Ethel Wright, guest of honor. After the guests had assembled and had spent some time around the cheery fire place, the hostess asked the guests to follow them and lead the levy of girls up stairs where they opened a door and found a comfort ready for knitting. The guests spent the evening in comfort knitting for the guest of honor, and at an appropriate hour a pretty luncheon was served by the hostesses. Pink and white furnished the color decorations. Beautiful Ophelia roses in a cut glass vase formed the centerpiece, from which pink ribbon streamers extended to the end of the table to where the guest of honor was seated. The were attached to rose buds, and each in a silver bud vase which was placed on each side of Miss Wright.

Those present were the Misses Ethel Wright, Lillian McDonald, Russ Baern, Hazel Magnusson, Meri Nell, Beattie Allinson, Leona Novella Wilma Oesterling, Minnie Ash, Hilda Anthony, Helen Currey, Elsie Peare, Helen McDonald, Dorothy Meyers, Charlotte Jones and Mrs. Clarence Charbonnet and Mrs. Charles Blaguer.

The P. E. O. Sisterhood were guests on Friday afternoon of Mrs. Robert Eakin. The party was given in honor of Miss Ethel Wright and was relative in every detail to her approaching marriage. Each guest presented Miss Wright with a original brief on "How to Bring Up a Husband." Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess on a beautiful and appropriately decorated table. In a charming little speech, full of humor and pathos, Mrs. George Currey in behalf of the Sisterhood, presented Miss Wright with a coffee urn.

Another guest of honor, seated at the table, was Mrs. George L. Clark, who is soon to join her husband in Corvallis. Mrs. E. E. Kiddle presented her with a P. E. O. spoon, as a farewell token of esteem. Tomorrow, one of the happiest afternoons in the history of Chapter "H" came to a close and the assembled guests reluctantly departed for their homes singing the praises of their charming hostess and their happiest wishes for their guest of honor.

At six o'clock Wednesday evening Ralph Winters and Miss Mary C. Groupe, popular employees of the O. W. R. & N. office were quietly married at the Methodist parsonage by the Rev. N. Sherman Hawk. The bride and groom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Byers.

The wedding came as a complete surprise to their many friends who were expecting the event later in the year. However, secretly, as the wedding had been planned the news was soon out and Mr. and Mrs. Winters were greeted at the train as they left by a jolly crowd who wished them much happiness and luck on their honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Winters will spend their honeymoon in California after which they will return to La Grande and make their future home.

The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Lena Groupe and received her education in the La Grande schools, as did also her husband, who is a son of Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Winters former residents of this city, but now of Caldwell, Idaho.

William M. Pearce and Mrs. Frances A. Ward, both of this city, were united in marriage Sunday evening at 6 o'clock at the Methodist church. Rev. N. Sherman Hawk officiating. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Haven, Charles Andrews and Est. Kurre.

The friends of Lyle Stringham of Imbler, will no doubt be interested to know of his marriage to Miss Louie Warren at Bisbee, Arizona, on September 30th. The young couple have returned to Imbler where they will make their future home.

Miss Warren lived in La Grande several years ago and also has taught in the public schools of Wallowa county. Mr. Stringham was employed in the State Bank of Imbler, which place he again occupies after serving in France with the La Grande Hospital Unit.

The Parent-Teacher's Association of Central school will hold its second meeting for the year Friday afternoon, October 24, at 3 o'clock in the Central building. The meeting is to be an important one as all members and friends of the different parent-teacher's associations of the city are invited and will take part in the program. Some extra good numbers are being arranged and Miss Kathleen Rye will have charge of the musical program to be given. All interested are especially invited.

The regular meeting of the Neighborhood Club will be held Tuesday of this week at the Club parlors. This will be a meeting of much interest and importance as the coming Red Cross Drive for Christmas Stools will be discussed and plans made for carrying on the campaign. Mr. Dorris the state representative for the prevention of tuberculosis was in La Grande this week and met with the committee on Civics of the Neighborhood Club, requesting them to take care of the drive for Union County.

The neighborhood Club feels that it is an honor and a privilege to be entrusted with this work and will devote themselves earnestly to its fulfillment.

Mrs. Ray Loran is chairman of the Civics committee. A splendid musical and literary program is also to be given.

A very delightful social event was the second get-together, social of the Young People's Class of the Methodist Sunday School of which Mr. J. L. Cramer is teacher, on Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Wheatly, 991 Fourth street. There were thirty-five present and the evening was spent in very amusing and memory-testing games. Late in the evening, dainty refreshments were served by the charming hostess.

Miss Helen and Mary Johns arrived Friday evening to spend the week-end as the guests of Miss Helen Currey. Miss Helen Johns was a teacher here in the high school two years ago. Both the Miss Johns are members of the same college sorority, Gamma Phi Beta, as Miss Currey. Their home is in Pendleton.

Miss Paul Weintz of Chicago, who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. Harris French, left yesterday morning for Nampa, Idaho, where she will visit Mrs. French's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ormand.

Miss Nell Grimmett very pleasantly entertained the Mardl Club on Tuesday evening. Six tables were arranged for cards, at which Mrs. Claude Scranton won the high honors. Refreshments were served by the hostess at an appropriate hour.

Mrs. Laura Hedricks of Pendleton, who is a guest with Mr. and Mrs. Harley Richardson, expects to return this evening to her home in Pendleton.

Cecil C. Howard, of Union, and Miss Lily May Squire, of Portland, were quietly married yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at the Methodist parsonage. Rev. Sherman Hawk officiating. Mr. Howard is a teacher in the Union Schools.

Mrs. Ed. Rumble of Joseph, is the guest this morning of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Lilly, as she is stopping over during trains, continuing on to Portland.

A farewell reception to one of their departing members, Mrs. C. C. Coolidge, who leaves soon for her new home near Weiser, Idaho, was given by the members of the Park Club Wednesday at the home of Mrs. C. M. Riddle. In May 1918 nearly all the members were present to bid a good bye to Mrs. Coolidge who has been one of the very active members of the organization and has recently filled the office of secretary. While the occasion was one of interest to the members present and a bounteous repast made up a part of the program there was manifested a genuine feeling of regret over the early departure of Mrs. Coolidge which was in a partial measure expressed in the way of a souvenir gift in which all the club's membership had a share. Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge are arranging to leave in a very short time for Idaho where they will go on an extensive farm which they recently purchased.

La Grande friends of Miss Ruth Elton this week received announcement of the marriage to Roy Kozz Terry of Portland, Saturday, Oct. 11th, at the First Methodist Episcopal church in Portland. The wedding was a quiet event, to which only a few close friends and relatives of the bridal couple were present. Rev. Joshua Stanfield officiated at the ceremony which occurred at 8:30. The bride, who is a sister of Mrs. John Hodgkin of this city, whom she has visited frequently, attended the University of Oregon where she was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. For the past two years she had been associated with the work of the Elton-White Chautauqua series.

Mr. Terry, who is a son of Mrs. A. Terry, and a nephew of Senator Gus C. Moser, was graduated from the University of Oregon and the Harvard Law school. He is a member of the Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity. He served as first lieutenant overseas. After a brief wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Terry will make their home on Portland Heights.

There is something mysterious stirring in the Neighborhood Club circles. Curiosity is on tip-toe for it has looked out just enough to set everyone guessing. The president, Mrs. T. J. Scroggin, and the vice-president, Mrs. Norman Fresse, have been busy conferring all the past week. Just what is going to happen is still in the dark but the general opinion is that some very unusual program for the near future is being planned.

The members of the Sans Souci club were entertained Wednesday of this week by Mrs. Fred Holmes. The afternoon was spent in cards and high honors were awarded to Mrs. Claude Scranton.

The Bridge Club tendered Mrs. W. R. Jones a most pleasant surprise Thursday evening, when they gathered at the Jones home to help Mrs. Jones celebrate her birthday.

The home of Mrs. H. W. Lohnton in Cedar street was the scene of a happy gathering Saturday evening October 11th, when a miscellaneous shower was given Miss Anita Worth, bride-elect of John Berry.

Miss Worth is a La Grande girl and the daughter of Mrs. Mary Worth. After finishing her course at the La Grande schools, she attended the Washington State Agricultural College at Pullman, and for the past three years has been teaching at Grande Mound, Washington, in the state industrial school.

Mr. Berry's home is at Chehalis, Washington, where he is serving his second term as sheriff.

Mrs. Karl Lynch was hostess to the Eastern Star "Social" club Tuesday afternoon. Five hundred proved the means of entertainment, high honors going to Mrs. W. H. Bohnekamp. Light refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the afternoon. Miss Carrie Hunter of Island City will entertain the next meeting of the club.

Miss William Ash will be hostess to the Lucky Thirteen Club next Thursday.

Mrs. Fred Kiddle entertained the Thursday Bridge Club this week.

Miss Hazel Jenkins of Pendleton is spending the week-end as the guest of Miss Roma Jacobson.

Hupmobile

Just Received a Car Hupmobiles

To the motor buying public in general, to 70,000 Hupmobile owners, and to all who sell Hupmobiles, we express our deepest conviction that the Series "R" is the best Hupmobile we have ever built.

We say this not alone because we know that, specification by specification, the Series "R" outdistances all its predecessors in strength and quality of material and quality of workmanship. And not alone because by actual test the "R" outpoints every other Hupmobile in all-round performance, comfort and economy of upkeep and operation.

But because this newest Hupmobile seems to us to anticipate and meet the demands of the most important section of the great motor-buying public—that part which demands a relatively light car at the lowest price which insures the best in engineering, material, and workmanship.

It is low hung. Its clean lines are without a break. The slightly sloped line from the back of the rear seat to top of radiator together with the sloping windshield suggest speed.

The finish on the hood, fenders and running gear is hard-baked enamel, black as jet. The body is special Hupmobile blue with a high and lasting lustre. The upholstery is genuine leather in French plaits fastened on all edges with leather covered moulding. The body is lined throughout; no painted surface is exposed for scratching and marring. The driving compartment has a clean-cut appearance with no unsightly housings protruding. The bonnet is handsomely carpeted and has nicked rollers and foot rails.

Hupmobile owners this season will have even less difficulty in equalling the performance of any car—at any price, with any number of cylinders—in hill climbing on high gear and in pulling on high gear through sand and mud.

WOMEN DRIVERS

Women drivers have always given the Hupmobile more than a measure of approval. We predict that the Series "R" will excel in their favor, all former Hupmobile models. Its beautiful appearance—long, low body with graceful, sweeping lines—will instantly attract them. Its many other good qualities will convert that attraction into downright preference.

USED CARS.

A few good bargains in used cars. We have—
Two Dodges.
One light-four Studebaker.
One Kissel.
