The three year old daughter of Frank Hatfield was burned to death in the yard of their home at Cottage Grove Monday. She was playing with her older sister, who had some matches and started a bonfire. Little Bertha went too near and her dress caught fire. Her mother's arms were frightfully burned in trying to save her.

The largest silk manufacturing concern on the Pacific coast will start operation in Portland Monday according to announcement made by H. Shirok, owner of the company, to the trade department of the Chamber of Commerce.

Furs valued at $900 and an amount of money were stolen Monday night from the White House Cloak and Suit company at Astoria.

According to information from Salem, cars to meet the demands of Western Oregon lumber mills are ordered to be sent to Oregon at once by the railroad administration.

VICTIMS RESCUED

Kidney, liver, bladder and uric acid troubles are most dangerous because of their insidious attacks. Avoid the first warning they give then they need attention by taking

The world's standard remedy for these disorders, will often ward off these diseases and soothe the body against further attacks. Three sizes, all druggists. Look for the same Gold Medal on every box and see our insertion.

Bees Distinguish Colors. Experiments have shown that bees distinguish different colors, but different colors acquire significance for bees when the insects have learned that certain colors are associated with certain nutritive advantages. The bees are not "reflex-machines"—they are not compelled by any organic chromotropism to prefer certain colors to others. They accumulate experience and remember that certain colors are associated with certain nutritive benefits.

Edinburgh Landmark Gone. An interesting bit of old Edinburgh, dating back about 1600, has been burned. The destroyed building, which consisted of a single story and attic, was one of the landmarks of the Holyrood area. It was the old Yew Tree tavern, and stood inside the bounds of the Holyrood sanctuary for debtors, within which, in days of yore, the fugitive was free from the attentions of his creditors.

In the Days of Beaver Hats. In the olden days in the United States soon after the Revolutionary war, a good beaver hat became a kind of family heirloom, and was handed down from father to son. For some strange reason it was considered to be rather frivolous and extravagant to be seen wearing a new beaver hat, and it was the custom when a man bought one to leave it out in stormy weather before wearing it, to "take the newness off."

Colorado's Wonderland. The Garden of the Gods is a fair of land, about 500 acres in extent, near Colorado Springs, Colo. It abounds in weird and fantastic pinnacles of red and white sandstone, some of them more than 300 feet high. Among the chief features are the Cathedral spires, the Balanced rock, etc. The gateway of the garden consists of two snow-capped masses of red sandstone, 350 feet high, sufficiently far apart for the roadway to pass between them.
