"BARE FISTS"

coming Saturday in the city hall in La Grande at 2:30 in the afternoon, a county public health association will be organized which will tie up the people in the different sections of the county to the work. In this way it is hoped that before long every community in Union county will come to realize that the county nurse belongs as much to one part of the county as the other.

In order that the Saturday meeting may be a success, it should be made up of representatives from every community center of the county. Especially should the larger centers, such as Elgin, Union and North Powder, send good delegations. It is expected that La Grande people will turn out in good numbers and thus show their interest in and appreciation of the value of this work for better community health.

$10 HAT DAY

Friday and Saturday is $10 day at the La Grande Millinery store. All $12, $15 and $18 hats for $10, including exclusive pattern hats. 10-30-21.

SEALSKIN SALE

SEATTLE, Oct. 29.—Over 25,000 sealskins taken by the United States Government from the Pribilof islands, near Alaska, will be sold at the St. Louis fur market this winter, according to reports received here. Last winter the skins brought about $47 apiece.

Government employes took 22,027 skins from St. Paul Island, one of the Pribilof group this year. From the other island, St. George, 3,354 skins have been taken.

PRICES GO DOWN.

PARIS, Oct. 30.—The raids of the "high cost of living police" on one of the largest department stores of Paris and the numerous summons to appear before the courts which have been delivered to the staff of the store.

The very latest boxes of Fine Stationery, just the thing for letter writing, such as you all must appreciate—you will find at Silverthorn's. 10-30-21.

"The Woman Thou Gavest Me"

By Hall Caine.

"Oh, you good women, who are happy in the love that guards you, shields you, shelters you, wraps you round and keeps you pure and true—trudge lightly over the prostrate soul of your sinners in her hour of trial and fierce temptation."

Thus does Hall Caine plead for the unhappy young wife who flees, in this great picture, from a hateful husband to a decent man she loves. You'll get a new angle on many a "double standard" of morality when you see "The Woman Thou Gavest Me."

COMBINATION HEATING STOVES

The firebox of this stove will burn 18-inch wood laying flat on the grates. You do not get the efficiency out of wood if you burn it standing on end. It has a large door for burning chunks or knots. When you reverse the grates you have a small narrow firebox for coal.

If you have to have a heater be sure and look at our stoves—$22.00, $27.50, $30.00, $32.50, $42.50, $46.50, $51.00, $55.00.

IDEAL UNIVERSAL

We also have some used stoves that we have taken as first payments.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Gives Another Bond

Harry Williams has given another bond of $250 to appear before the grand jury and answer to the charge of circulating false reports against the United States National bank. Williams was arrested about a week ago on the same charge, waived examination and gave a bond of $250 to appear before the grand jury. Not undaunted Williams is said to have done more talking and last Monday was arrested, and for the second time released on bail.

Henderson Sells Home

Charles F. Henderson, who, when the war began, resigned his position of school director and went to Portland to work in the ship yards, this week disposed of his home near the high school to Mrs. Mary H. Penn. Mrs. Penn has taken immediate possession. Mr. and Mrs. Henderson are now residents of Walla Walla. The deal was negotiated by George H. Curry.

Goes to Spokane

Miss Alice Snook, employe of the postoffice, left last evening for Spokane, where she will attend the meeting of the Y. W. C. A. convention which is being held in that city. It is a meeting of representative business women and Miss Snook is representing the business women of La Grande. Miss Snook fell on the icy steps at the postoffice on Tuesday, severely spraining her left wrist, so she did not know until late last evening whether she would be able to attend as a delegate.

Popular Orchestra Returns

The popular Broadway Novelty Orchestra, which his said to be one of the best Jazz aggregations in the country, will return to La Grande Friday and Saturday nights and give the public their entertainments coupled with their popular dances. The Broadway folk were here some time ago and made many friends for they are a courteous bunch of clever musical people and their entertainments and dances are rated as top-notch stuff in the Northwest.

Return to Home

France Magaw and daughter, Mrs. Mary Berry of Puyallup, Washington, who have been making a trip to their old home Wilmington, Delaware, and on their trip stopped off to visit with their nephew, J. H. Trayner, have returned to their home.

Released from Hospital

Miss Clara Coughnour who was operated on some time ago for appendicitis, was released from the hospital yesterday and taken to her home.

In Same Condition

Mrs. Clara Parkhurst, who was taken to the hospital Saturday with typhoid fever, is today reported to be the same.

In Pendleton

Mrs. M. Roland, of La Grande, is registered at the Hotel St. George in Pendleton, and J. A. Whitty at the Golden Rule Hotel.

Here on Business

S. S. Thompson, of Elgin, was a business visitor in the city today, calling on the United States land office.

Leaves the Lindsay Ranch

Mrs. Alice R. Lindsay has leased the Lindsay estate farm to V. A. Masters for five years. He will take possession at once. The ranch consists of 240 acres and is one of the good properties of Eastern Oregon.

CAREY AT THE STAR

He traveled the hill country suburbs. He offered his cattle, those for he possessed, to the stage, his sweetheart to be named.

Cheyenne Harry endured these things—and many more—without remorse in the west, method of retaliation and protection—the six-shooter.

Why? The reason and the inevitable "extenuating circumstances" that Cheyenne once again "a man among men" are contained in the story of "Bare Fists," showing at the Star the

SALT BATHS NOW FOR SOLDIERS

BUCHAREST, Oct. 2.—(By Mail.)

The famous salt baths of Salsburg, where the millionaires of Austria, Hungary and the Balkan states used to spend their summers, are now curing rheumatic Rumanian soldiers.

Stripped of all their luxurious furnishings during the war, the Salsburg baths have just been refitted with the aid of the American Red Cross for use as a military hospital for chronic rheumatism resulting from trench warfare. Five hundred soldiers are already there, recovering from rheumatism and similar diseases contracted while undergoing the hardships of war.

In times of peace, thousands of tourists visited Salsburg, high up in the Transylvanian Alps, southwest of Kronstadt. Many came for the dazzling social life. With its magnificent hotels and gay casino, it was perhaps the chief show place of eastern Europe. When the Germans pushed the Rumanians out of this district early in the war, General Mackenier and his staff took possession of the town and staged luxurious revelry there. When the Germans left they looted the place, stripped the hotels of tapestries, furniture and brass fittings. Even the equipment for the medicinal baths was wrecked.

Under the direction of Major George C. Treadwell of Albany, N. Y., and several American physicians, the baths have been refitted sufficiently to care for the soldiers.
