OBSERVER CARRIERS DEFEAT GREENWOOD

Coming back at their opponents with a rush and vim, the Observer carriers yesterday swept the Greenwood team off their feet in a football game, defeating them to a score of 18-6. The game was played on the high school grounds, and despite the mud, the young athletes of both teams tore into the game, each with a spirit to win the victory.

Pete Stoddard referred the game. Showcase and Weighing Machine. Chiefly for restaurant use is a recently invented combined showcase and weighing machine.

LABOR OUTLINE IS DISLIKED

GOMPERTS EXPRESSES HIS ATTITUDE FREELY.

Proclaims American Labor to be in Accord With Other American Principles.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Abjuring loyalty to a "temporary" administration which violates the principles of democracy, Samuel Gompers, speaking for American labor at a dinner given Monday night for delegates to the international federation of trades unions, declared that we are tied to no administration and we propose to exercise the freedom of our judgment.

Mr. Gompers told the representatives of labor that he did not believe that a true understanding of the coal miners' strike had reached the president because of his illness.

Responding to the American labor leader's address, Leon Jouhaux, leader of the French labor delegation to the international labor conference, declared that "if the workers of the United States need the assistance of the workers of other countries they will get it," as he added, "frontiers cannot separate the interests of workers and private interests cannot separate workers."

"We are engaged in the greatest work of today," Mr. Gompers said, "the greatest that has ever been entrusted to the common people of America—to secure right and justice and a better standard of life and the principles of freedom and humanity."

"Whenever and wherever there is an attempt made by the employers as employers or by the government as government to depart from the fundamental principles of freedom and democracy, it is not only the right but the duty of the men and women of labor to stand up and protest regardless of what the consequences may be."

Continuing in a lower voice, the federation chief said:

"We are living in our own time as best we can but our lives are just passing instant to the continuity of civilization and the progress of the world, and what matters it if you and I are placed in jail because we have attempted to uphold the principles of freedom and justice and democracy? It is better that we should have our own respect and hand down to the generations yet to come the principles of freedom and the worthiness to battle for freedom and to die than to live an inglorious life."

Proclaiming American labor to be in thorough accord with American principles and ideals, Mr. Gompers added:

"We are in accord with our government when we know that our government is following out a course of justice and freedom and of human development as expressed by the principles of democracy. When our administration fails to conform to those principles and when our administration for the time being fails to stand for the principles of democracy, then we have no alternative but to assert that American justice must prevail against temporary administration of affairs of our country."

"We are tied to no administration. We are free men and we propose to exercise the freedom of our judgment and our conduct and to criticize or to express ourselves in discussion or to express ourselves in discussion."

of the policies pursued. "We love faith in our course," Mr. Gompers further asserted. "We believe that we are right. As you are convinced that we are in the right and the men and women of labor in America understand and that the men and women of freedom in the whole world stand united, that the attempt to impose upon our people a conglomeration of faith that is repugnant to the concepts of right and justice and of democracy, we, the men and women of labor, will stand true to the highest principles of justice and of right and of freedom."

OHIO DRYERS ARE DEFEATED. 641

PROHIBITION AMENDMENT VOTED DOWN LAST TUESDAY

Manager of the Dry Forces Has Asked for a Recount of the Vote.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 12.—Ohio last Tuesday voted against ratifying the federal prohibition amendment by a majority of 641, according to complete official returns received today by the secretary of state. The vote was: For ratification 499,879; against ratification 500,520.

Secretary of State Smith announced that some errors are apparent in the complete official vote and that the official returns from nine counties will be sent back to county election boards for correction. He also announced that the official figures from 24 counties would have to be verified.

James A. White, manager of the Ohio Dry federation, has asked for a recount of the vote.

Corns 'Tween Toes? Use Easy "Gots-It"

Any Corn or Callus Comes Off Peacefully, Gloriously, Never Falls. It is easy for "Gots-It" to reach "hard-to-get" corns, and better yet, it is easy to remove, for these cause "Gots-It" makes them come.

Any Corn Peels Off With "Gots-It". Right off! Just like a banana peel. You can try to dig or drag out your corns with a knife, or slice them with a "Gots-It" razor, or use a "Gots-It" and lose and reap up your feet into a package, but "Gots-It" is the only way that never fails. You reach the corns with the little plastic bottle, it does not hurt the true flesh. Try it, and you will see. "Gots-It" never fails. "Gots-It" is the only corn-remover that does not cause a sore. Sold in La Grande and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by D. Putnam, Levy Vogel Drug Co., and Red Cross Drug Co., Sappo, La Grande Pharmacy.

RETIRES FROM ACTIVE DUTY

Changes Made in Personnel Of the Offices of the Different Companies.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Union Flouring Mill Company, Pioneer Flouring Mill Company, Imbler Flouring Mill Company, La Grande Milling Company, Grande Ronde Grain Company and Elgin Flouring Mill Company held November 8th, E. E. Kiddle retired from the active management of the corporations. The officers elected for the Pioneer Flouring Mill Company were as follows:

Fred H. Kiddle, president; Merton W. Kiddle, vice-president and general manager; C. H. Bidwell, secretary; E. E. Kiddle, treasurer.

The officers of the other Corporations were the same as above except the secretary, J. F. Bate being elected secretary of the Elgin Flouring Mill Company and Fred E. Kiddle, Secretary of Union Flouring Mill Company, La Grande Milling Company, Imbler Flouring Mill Company and the Grande Ronde Grain Company.

This means that E. E. Kiddle will no longer be active head of the mill companies and that the responsibilities of the large institutions has been shifted to the shoulders of others. Mr. Kiddle will spend his time here as usual, but will not be present "on the job" as he has been for years. In retiring from this work Mr. Kiddle can happily review of a very successful career in which he has, with the help of others interested, created a business of large proportions in Eastern Oregon. He came here twenty-five years ago from the Topeka, Kansas mills and cast his lot in the Grande Ronde valley. That he made no mistake in his selection is proven by Kiddle institutions, all of which are very prosperous and have served the people well.

Imperfect Vision In A School Child. often entails more than mere eyestrain. It must be remembered that trouble from imperfect seeing school work, comes not only from seeing words and figures wrongly but also from fatigue of the brain caused by eyestrain. Twenty-five per cent of children have defective vision. Frequently a bashful child fails to tell the teacher he cannot see the blackboard easily and so is unable to do his work--is accused of neglect and falls behind in classes--all because of lack of proper eye care. If your child has defective vision have it corrected by an Optometrist. Our equipment is the most modern in the optical science. J. H. PEARE & SON Optometrists.
