Summons

In the circuit court of the state of Oregon for Union county Marion R. DeVore, plaintiff, vs. Ethriel DeVore, defendant.

To Ethriel DeVore, the above named defendant:—

In the name of the state of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled cause, on or before six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons.

You will take notice, that if you fail to appear and answer, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in the complaint herein, to wit: for judgment dissolving the marriage contract heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant and that plaintiff be granted an absolute divorce from plaintiff.

You will further take notice that this summons is published once a week for six consecutive weeks, in the La Grande Evening Observer, a daily paper published in the city of La Grande, Union county, Oregon, by order of the Honorable J. W. Knowles, Judge of the above named court, which order is dated Oct. 13, 1919, and the first publication of which is made the 14th day of October, 1919.

R. J. KITCHEN, Attorney for Plaintiff.

Daily Oct. 14-21-28; Nov. 4-11-18-25.

Corns 'Tween Toes? Use Easy "Gets-It"

Any Corn or Callus Comes Off Peacefully, Gloriously. Never Fails.

It is easy for "Gets-It" to reach "hard-to-get-at" corns, and better yet it is easy to remove them, because "Gets-It" makes them come right off just like a banana peel. You can try to dig or drag out your corns with a knife, or slice them with a "bloody" razor, or use bandages and tape and wrap up your toe into a package, but that's the "treat-em-rough" painful, foolish way. Use 2 or 3 drops of "Gets-It"—that's the peaceful, sure, common-sense way that never fails. You reach the corn easily with the little glass rod in the cork of every "Gets-It" bottle. It does not hurt the true flesh. Try it, trot and smile! It's a blessing; never fails.

"Gets-It," the only sure, guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, costs but a trifle at any drug store. ATD by R. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.
