

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Dr. Bouvy in Pendleton—Dr. Bouvy is spending the day in Pendleton attending the Eastern Oregon Medical convention.

To Attend Delco Convention—Nate Zweifel, Delco light dealer, will attend the convention of the Delco men which is to be held at Pilot Rock.

Summerville Lady Here—Mrs. Peter Arnoldus of Summerville, is in the city visiting for a few days. She attended the meeting of the Eastern Star last evening. Here From Telocuset—C. F. Hinkley, well known Telocuset land owner, was in the city last evening.

Missionary Society to Meet—The Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. John Hodgin, 1502 N. avenue, on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

North Powder Ranchman Here—Harley Leubin, prominent ranchman of North Powder, is a business visitor in the city.

Up From Elgin—Mrs. E. G. Bailey, wife of the professor of the High schools, and Mrs. Frank Smith, also of Elgin, are visiting in the city. Mr. Smith is a merchant of Elgin.

Well Known in Pendleton—Three well known Pendleton people were in the city last evening. J. A. Fee, prominent attorney, accompanied by Bill Sutscher, well known politician, and H. E. Bartholomew, sheepman of Stanfield, were transacting business here.

La Grander in Portland—Among the guests at the Multnomah Hotel is E. P. Harding, a stockman of La Grande.—Portland Telegram.

Mr. Vurpillat Improving—Charles Vurpillat who underwent an operation on Saturday at St. Anthony's hospital for appendicitis, is reported resting nicely today.—Pendleton Tribune.

Mrs. J. G. Holm Arrives—Mrs. J. G. Holm arrived last evening from Battle Pass, Minnesota where she has been spending the past few months. She and her husband will again make their home in La Grande, as he recently purchased the Goodgrass Grocery. Mrs. Holm says she had a hard time making it through, as they had to pass through a terrible blizzard in the middle west, in North Dakota, and in Idaho were held up by a freight wreck ahead of them. At Passo the lights went out and Mrs. Holm thought it was a holdup, but everything turned out alright.

Interesting Patriotic Display—A pretty and interesting patriotic window display in that which was placed in the Club Cigar store window for Armistice Day. The whole workings of a battlefield are there from the soldiers, barbed wire entanglement, trenches, Red Cross, Salvation Army boxes with their doughnuts, to hospitals, camps, an airplane, in fact everything which one can think of may be sooner or later found in the window.

I. V. W. Lodged in Jail—George Higgins was taken into custody by the police when he was found drunk. He was fined $25 and five days in jail. The interesting part of the affair is that when he was searched by the authorities, they found his I. V. W. tag hidden in his shoe. Chief Christiansen this morning said that he and his assistants had counted eighteen men who had come out of La Grande in the past two days on the brakes and that he had reason to believe some of them are members of the I. W. W.

Almost From Grower To Customer

Mr. Farmer and Produce Raiser, LOOK US UP! We buy your stuff, or sell on commission. We are looking for eatables that will reach the homes of La Grande with as little expense as possible; and by getting producer, buyer and consumer together, it's going to be a big thing, properly worked. If you have SPUDS to sell, see us. We have been supplying many homes the past few weeks. We are running out a few hundred boxes of apples this week—ask those who purchased. If you eat onions, see us; don't let anything go to waste on the farm—bring it to us—we have the market, if the price is right. Eighty sacks of small spuds left, at $1.75 per cwt. Bring your rig or auto when you come—save the hauling. It's a big store room with nothing in it but eatables. For the right connection, PHONE BLACK 1081. Don't Buy or Sell until you see us. It's a new enterprise for La Grande.
