

BIG SESSION OF LUTHERANS

LARGE NUMBER OF DELEGATES IN ATTENDANCE

Convention Opened By the Reading of a Summary of Work Done During the War.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—A program to mobilize a million Lutheran men for peace-time service was presented to the opening session of the war-work convention of the Lutheran Brotherhood of America today. The convention is being held in the Cameo Room of the Hotel Morrison. Two hundred delegates from every part of the country, representing local brotherhoods, are in attendance.

The convention was opened by the President of the Brotherhood, Dr. J. A. O. Stab of Minneapolis. Dr. Stab summarized the war-work of the Brotherhood. He pointed out that the Brotherhood was an emergency organization called into being by the emergency of the war. At its first meeting in 1917 it had thirty members. Today it has more than sixty thousand. Dr. Stab then pointed to the question what shall be the task of the Brotherhood in times of peace. He said, "Our Lutheran church's manpower is today an undeveloped factor of incalculable possibilities. It is the aim of the Brotherhood to organize this force and make it available for church, home, and country."

"There are three things, especially which I have in mind for the Brotherhood to do. In the first place it will, of course, continue a good deal of its war work in such places where our boys will be in the army and navy.

There is a great peace task before us now through which we must do for our young men; that is establishment of Lutheran social centers in every one of the larger cities. It is necessary that we have such centers as rallying points to which the many thousands of young men of our church that come to the cities can be directed. The loss to the church through lack of such provision now, is incalculable. Our main interest is not in retaining church membership. It is the obligation of the protective care which we have for those young men and it is the large view of service for our country which we have learned during the war. We want to serve them, not for the church as an organization, but for our church as a living power, for everything that is worth while in our nation today.

"A similar service we must render at the state universities. Especially in the middle west a large percentage of the students at the state universities are Lutherans. The Brotherhood aims to establish Lutheran centers at these universities than can serve as gathering points and can bring the service of the church to the boys, that are preparing for larger usefulness."

Dr. A. B. Leamer, of Des Moines, Iowa, Secretary of the Brotherhood reported on the war work done by the Brotherhood. He pointed out that the Brotherhood had buildings in fifteen camps, that it maintained service organizations for eleven Student Army Training Corps, that it spent more than a quarter of a million dollars in taking the church to the boys in the army and navy.

The officers of the Brotherhood are: President, Dr. J. A. O. Stab, Pastor Central Lutheran Church, Minneapolis, Minn., former Executive Secretary of National Lutheran Commission; Vice-President, R. V. A. Norrbom, Pastor

First Swedish Lutheran Church, Des Moines, Iowa; Vice-President, Mr. N. S. Nielsen, General Manager Randall Lumber Co., Des Moines, Iowa; Vice-President, Rev. Emil Raabe, Pastor Lutheran Church Ottumwa, Iowa; Vice-President, Rev. Otto Mees, President Capital University, Columbus, Ohio; secretary, Dr. A. B. Leamer, Pastor St. John's Lutheran Church Des Moines, Iowa; treasurer, John A. D. Hague, Member of Iowa Legislature, President of Iowa Trust & Savings Bank, Des Moines, Iowa.

In the evening a banquet was held at the Morrison hotel at which nearly 2,000 delegates and guests were present. Dr. J. A. O. Stab presided at the banquet. D. W. A. Granville, President of Gettysburg College, was the toastmaster. The addresses of the evening were given by Dr. Frederick H. Knobel, President of the United Lutheran Church and by Hon. Clarence Magney, Mayor of the city of Duluth. Dr. Knobel spoke on the theme, "Mobilizing the Lutheran men for country and church." His address was received with great enthusiasm. He said, "The war found the Lutheran church divided, not knowing its strength nor its possibilities. In a few months the war necessities compelled united action in a manner as was conceived impossible only shortly before. The Lutheran church took a commanding position in establishing the church of Christ as a factor in bringing assistance and relief as well as ministering spiritually to the soldiers and sailors and sailors. Two end of the war found the Lutheran church strong, a national force and factor for good."

War Develops Church Tasks.

"Great Tasks have developed for the church out of the war. The greatest of them is the obligation of the Lutheran church of America to the Lutheran in the rest of the world. The war has made the Lutheran church an international force. Already closer ties through service and helpfulness are being formed with the Lutherans across the water whose cry for help has been answered in a large and generous measure by the Lutherans of America. When the debris of the war is finally cleared up, there will emerge, no doubt, a Lutheran Federation embracing the Lutherans of the world as well as a unity of faith and of heart. To this great international task which makes an epoch in the history of the church, it is our duty to bring the most careful preparation. That preparation will mainly consist in developing the teaching function of our church. Only as we keep alive this thorough knowledge of our Lutheran faith in every one of our members and strengthen it by a fuller application to our duty, will we be able to do the duties that are resting upon us."

ALASKA TOWNS WANT AIR RACE

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 14.—Alaska towns and cities are interested in a proposed aerial race between Seattle and some Alaska town, probably Skagway or Juneau, according to letters received here from the north. The airplanes in the race probably will follow the Inside Passage, touching at Ketchikan, Wrangell, Petersburg, Juneau, Skagway and probably Sitka. According to present plans the race will be staged next spring under the auspices of the Aero Club of the Northwest.

Only a Cold.

Are you ill? Is often answered, "Oh it's only a cold." If a cold was a matter of little consequence, but people are beginning to learn that a common cold is a matter not to be trifled with that some of the most serious diseases start with cold. As soon as the first indication of a cold appears take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Remember that the sooner you get rid of your cold the less the danger, and this remedy will help you to throw it off.—Adv.
